

IT'S BACK TO SCHOOL AGAIN

Stylish Couples

Clothes will be the big items for children and young people when they return to school this fall, and designers have made certain the children will be just as in step as their more style conscious "elders."

Shown at top are Doug Matson and Gale Short, a pair of Roseburg High School students in the fashion which will become part of the school scene. At right are two members of the "younger set" as they show off the latest word in children's fashions. They are Bill Gregory and Joyce Ann Tucker.

That Time Again

With the peak of August passed, and school days only a couple of weeks away. It's time to select all those things for back-to-school.

The stores of Roseburg have been planning for the annual rush for months and are now well stocked with a big selection of clothes that are fashion-right, budget right and essential for getting off to the classroom in stride. Plan your shopping now—at Douglas County's back-to-school capital, where Roseburg merchants are ready to serve you.
