Roseburg Youth FFA Champion

A young Future Farmer of America from Roseburg was the Grand Champion Showman in all divisions in FFA showmanship at the Douglas County Fair. He is Ed Nielsen, Roseburg High School student who has been active in the program during the school year. Nielsen was awarded a handsome trophy in addition to his monetary prizes.

According to Curt Loewen, Roseburg FFA adviser, the fair entries this year from FFA boys were unusually good. A slight reduction in the total number of entries was more than made up for by the quality, Loewen said. All winners listed, unless otherwise noted, are from the Roseburg area and in order of placing:

Commercial Entries Win Awards At Fair

Recognition was given at this year's Douglas County Fair to outstanding exhibits in the commercial category in the form of trophy presentation to four winning displays.

According to Hazel Bird of the fair staff, the increasing excellence of the commercial section called for this innovation. Judging on the basis of design, color and general attractiveness was done by a panel of professional display artists.

Out of a total of 75 commercial exhibits, four received the honor of capturing the first of such awards. Winners were Modern Floor Covering, Carl Peetz Chain Saw, Studio of Hair Design and Reynolds-Rushton Music Co.
