San Francisco Falls To Cards

By United Press International
Seven weeks ago tonight the St. Louis Cardinals marched into Los Angeles as the surprise leaders of the National League.
They stumbled out of town three nights later and dropped and embarrassed. They had managed three straight victories, including a pair of shutouts, to the Dodgers, who sidestepped them from first place.
Now the Cardinals are back in the City of Angels for another three-game set, starting tonight. This one can make or break Johnny Keane's upstarts, who completed a three-game sweep over the San Francisco Giants by grinding out a comeback 8-7 triumph Monday at St. Louis.
The Cards' latest victory gave them undisputed possession of second place, 5½ games back of the idle Dodgers. With time running out in the NL race, they must win at least two of three from Los Angeles this time to keep their pennant hopes alive.
And should the Dodgers sweep this series as they did last month it will be bye bye Redbirds.

The Cardinals left the defending champion Giants reeling on the ropes and 6½ games off the pace.
The Giants took a 7-5 lead in the top of the ninth with a three-run burst that featured Felipe Alou's two-run triple. Alou, though, wound up as the goat when the Cards pushed across three runs in the bottom of the inning for their hard-earned victory.
Bill White walked to lead off the frame and Ken Boyer followed with his second two-run homer of the game to tie the score. Jack Fisher relieved Billy Hoeltz at this point and retired the next two batters before Julian Javier singled.
Catcher Tim McCarver then singled to right center. When Alou bobbled the ball, Javier scored all the way from first on the hit and error.
Sam Jones, although nicked for those three San Francisco runs in the ninth, was credited with the victory—his first since his recent reprieve from the minors. Fisher suffered his ninth loss against six victories.

DICK WEBER, bowling's top money winner in 1963, has signed to compete in the City of Roses Open scheduled for Portland's 20th Century Lanes Sept. 19-22. Weber has pocketed $37,000 this year, and added an additional $15,000 by winning the National All-Star event in January. The St. Louis kegger has won a record 11 PBA tournaments in four years and is considered a top threat for the "Bowler of the Year" award.

Sports

The Philadelphia Phillies scored their eighth straight victory and moved to within 1½ games of third place by nipping the New York Mets, 1-0, behind the five-hit pitching of Dennis Bennett in the only other NL game.
A pair of home runs by Max Alvis powered the Cleveland Indians to an 8-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the lone American League game.
The Phillies scored a run off Galen Cisco in the second inning on successive singles by Don Demeter, Clay Dalrymple and Bobby Wine. That was all the margin Bennett needed as he rolled to his sixth victory in eight decisions and his first shutout of the campaign.
Alvis knocked in six runs with his pair of homers and Joe Azcue accounted for Cleveland's other tallies with a solo homer, a double and a single. Dick Stuart of the Red Sox unloaded his 31st and 32nd homers, including an inside-the-park clout, a rarity at tiny Fenway Park.

hearts without quite so much formality. The contract also appears to be a cinch. South wins the opening diamond with his ace and leads a heart. West shows out and South finds that he has an unexpected trump loser. There also is a diamond loser and South looks around to see if he can do anything about that.
It doesn't take a long look. South cashes dummy's two high trumps and comes to his own hand with a club. Then he leads a spade and finessees dummy's queen. If the finesse works he can get rid of his losing diamond, if the finesse loses he will go down two instead of one. Certainly he can afford to risk this small extra loss against the possible slam and he takes the gamble.

Another interesting question with this hand is, "What should South do against a spade opening?"
The answer is that he should finesse. This will cost him his contract only if West has opened a singleton spade and also holds the queen of hearts. It gains a trick any time West holds the spade king and in the event that East has all three trumps this trick will be most important.

Dear Abby!

Think Twice, Honey!
—By ABIGAIL VANBUREN—

DEAR ABBY: I added up all the time I spent baby-sitting with my little sister last year and figured it out at the rate of 50 cents an hour. It came to $81.50. That is what my mother owes me. I am 15 and can use the money for clothes. Do you think I should send her a bill?

FIFTEEN
DEAR FIFTEEN: Since you are so expert at "figuring," combine the yearly salaries of a cook, housekeeper, nurse, teacher, preacher and chauffeur and then multiply it by your age. THAT, my dear, is what YOU owe your mother. Now, do you still want to send her a bill?

DEAR ABBY: Have you space in your column for a letter that might save someone's life. Another woman and I were driving to a restaurant for a lobster dinner. The restaurant was only two miles from my home, so I wore my high heels. I hadn't gone far when one of my heels got caught in the rug of the automobile. When I tried to free it, my shoe jammed between the brake and the gas pedal. The harder I tried to stop, the faster we went. The car went out of control and we hit a house and knocked down a 50-foot chimney. Fortunately, no one was killed, but we will both be hospitalized for the rest of the summer. And heaven knows when we'll get that lobster dinner.

DEAR JERRIE: Thanks for the warning. Forget the lobster, and be thankful you didn't get angel food!

DEAR ABBY: A big hand to Mrs. Canoga Park on her question, "Why don't Americans fly flags any more?" I am a Marine recruiting sergeant. On Memorial Day I made a three-minute guest appearance on TV. I offered a FREE booklet on "How to Respect and Display Our Flag." In a city whose population is 250,000 only NINE booklets were requested. People show their colors by not flying them.

LOST SOME BLOOD
DEAR LOST: Is the offer still good?

DEAR ABBY: I intend to hold up my vote at the polling place until a flag is in view in that room. Last year I asked where the flag was and was told it was "probably in the closet." I am sure our Bill of Rights was not drawn up in the closet!
