

Dear Abby!

Speak To Your Mother!

—By ABIGAIL VANBUREN—

DEAR ABBY: I am a 12-year-old boy and every day of my summer vacation stay home alone and watch television. My mother works all day long, Monday through Friday, and she doesn't want me leaving the house. I have nobody to talk to except the dog, and if somebody heard the way I carry on a conversation with him they would think I was nuts. I am not supposed to let anybody in the house. Can you tell me how I can keep from getting bored?

A BOY UNNAMED
DEAR UNNAMED: Boredom is only one of your problems. A boy your age needs fresh air, exercise and the companionship of other young people. Ask your mother if there isn't a day camp where she can send you. A boy your age shouldn't be cooped up in the house all summer.

DEAR ABBY: My sister and I have a friend who lives in the same apartment building as we do. She went on a vacation and left the keys to her apartment with her gentleman friend so he could water her plants and look after her goldfish. She hadn't been gone two days when this no-good gentleman friend brought another woman into her apartment. All the neighbors know about it and we are afraid one of them will tell her when she gets back. Should we tell her first, or should we tell this man make a fool of her?

FRIENDS
DEAR FRIENDS: WHO was the "other woman"? WHY did the "gentleman" take her there? Unless you are sure of the facts, don't be the bearer of such news. And if you ARE sure, even then think twice.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were invited to a wedding. He scarcely knows the people and I have never met them. My husband is a professor, and the bride was a former student. My husband will be unable to attend as the date conflicts with a previous commitment. Would it be proper for me to go with my older, bachelor brother? Must we send a gift whether we attend the wedding or not?

MUST KNOW
DEAR MUST: You were apparently invited because of your HUSBAND'S former association with the bride. In view of this fact, and since you know none of the people involved, it might be wise to decline the invitation. A gift is ALWAYS optional.

CONFIDENTIAL TO IRATE ACCOUNTANT IN RIVERSIDE: Doesn't EVERYBODY know that in the Rules of Professional Conduct for The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, it clearly states: "A member shall not violate the confidential relationship between himself and his client?" I didn't think it was necessary to defend a C.P.A. who was gracious enough to do a relative's tax work gratis.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Clothing Is Needed At Welfare Center

Mrs. Dan (Irene) Blehm reported today that children's clothing is desperately needed at the Seventh-day Adventists' Dorcas Welfare Center at 1515 SE Mill St. "Schools will be starting soon and many parents are unable to provide adequate clothing for their children," Mrs. Blehm said. Clothing for younger children is also needed, it is reported.

During one recent Wednesday, help was given to 38 persons who received 489 garments and this is being repeated nearly every week, Center helpers report.
The Center is open on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Mrs. Blehm, director, can be contacted by calling 672-3407.

Summer Visitor From Ohio Ends Stay In Lookingglass

By HAZEL S. MARSH
Mrs. Agnes Robison left Lookingglass recently for her home in Columbus, Ohio, after spending a portion of the summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Meeks and family.

Nays Leave Area
Mr. and Mrs. Ned Nay have moved to the Umpqua area in readiness for the opening of the Umpqua school where Nay will be principal the coming year.

The two large cedar trees which have been a landmark for many years on the front lawn of Mrs. Velma Jacoby's home have now been removed because they were so badly damaged by the cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Buell and daughters Mardi, Jean and Margie of Portland, came to the valley Monday. They were accompanied by the former's mother, Mrs. Roy Buell, who underwent major surgery at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland recently and who has returned to her home to convalesce. The young ladies visited with relatives in the valley for the week and attended the Douglas County Fair.

Billy Meeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Meeks, received a serious head injury recently while assisting his father in unloading some wood. He was taken to the hospital for first aid and several stitches were taken to close the wound. He is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Dee Cleveland of St. Paul, Minn., left the first of the week after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Findlay, Mrs. Cleveland and the Findlays have been close friends for many years.

Parties Planned
The Lookingglass Grange Home Economics group met Thursday evening at the hall to plan for the card parties which will be resumed in September. They also discussed plans for the annual harvest dinner which will be held at the grange hall in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh returned Sunday from a 13-day trip which included a visit with the Rev. and Mrs. Orval Whitman at Astoria. Whitman is a former pastor of the Lookingglass Methodist Church and Mrs. Whitman is the former Ruth Rodley who spent her childhood days in the valley. The Whitmans are starting their 13th year in a pastorate at the Astoria Methodist Church.

The Marshes toured the Olympic Peninsula and ferried to Victoria, B.C., where they visited the Butchart Gardens and other places of interest and then ferried through the San Juan Islands to Anacortes and motored south along the Hood Canal. They also spent some time at Spirit Lake and at Diamond and Lenolo Lakes.
