Ex-Beavers Now Playing For Cowboys

PORTLAND (Special)—The Dallas Cowboys, sporting a 1-1 record in pre-season play, settled down to a week of practice at Pacific University in Forest Grove today, getting ready for Saturday night's encounter with the Los Angeles Rams at Multnomah Stadium.

There's a decided Oregon tinge in the Cowboy camp. Amos Marsh of Oregon State is a starting offensive back amd Mike Gaechter of Oregon occupies a regular defensive back assignment.

Sam Baker, another ex-Beaver, handles all the Cowboy kicking chores, including punts, extra points and field goals.

Brad Ecklund, an All-Coast Center on Oregon's 1948 Cotton Bowl team and former pro great, is on the Dallas coaching staff.

Cowboy workouts at Forest Grove are slated each afternoon and are open to the public.

When the adjusted rates by species are lower than the base rates, the difference between the total dollar value of the timber cut at adjusted rates and at base rates will be recorded for each species. The stumpage rate for a species will not be increased above the base rate until the subsequent adjusted rates above the base rate will develop an accumulated total dollar value for the species in excess of the recorded accumulated difference for all species. All those who submitted a satisfactory sealed bid will be permitted immediately to continue auction bidding.
