

Dick Stuart Blasts 33rd Four-Bagger To Key Bosox Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Cocky Dick Stuart may be all talk and a yard wide, but he can always say he topped Ted Williams.

And don't worry about the big uninhibited Boston first baseman—he'll say it all right because it happens to be true in one respect, anyway.

When the Pirates traded Stuart to the Red Sox last winter, so the story goes, he was asked whether he felt he would hit more homers than Williams did at Fenway Park.

Stuart promptly inquired: "How many did he hit his first year up?"

Informed that Williams had belted 31 homers his first season with the Red Sox, Stuart said "I oughta hit more than that."

And he has.

Stuart, the American League home run leader, smashed his 33rd of the year with one on Thursday to help the Red Sox wallopp the White Sox, 11-2.

Big Stu also leads the league in runs batted in. Those two he accounted for Thursday upped his total to 93—13 ahead of his nearest challenger.

Teamates Help

Stuart, however, didn't quite do the job on the White Sox alone. Ed Bressoud drove in six runs with a grand slam homer and two sacrifice flies while rookie Dave Morehead earned his eighth victory with a seven-inning Joe Horlen was the loser.

The Yankees retained their 10-game lead even though they dropped a 7-4 decision to the Indians, the Orioles roughed up the Angels, 5-1, and the Athletics

Boros Shares Classic Lead With Hot 67

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—Julius Boros, the 43-year-old U.S. Open champion who usually plays the tough courses the best, shared the first round lead in the $55,000 American Golf Classic today with two dark horses—Johnny Pott and Miller Barber.

They cut the long, exacting Firestone Country Club down to size Thursday when they shot three-under-par 67s, which was good enough to give them a three-shot lead over two pre-tourney favorites, defending champion Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus.

Between the three leaders and Palmer and Nicklaus came six others—Jay Hebert, Bruce Crampton, Dave Hill, Gay Brewer, Al Geiberger and Dave Marr. They all broke Firestone's 35-35-70 par with 68s.

At even par 70 along with Palmer and Nicklaus were former U.S. Open champion Ed Furgol, Bob George Bayer, Ted Kroll and Rex Baxter.

Boros Putts Well

Boros' brilliant round, in which he had to overcome bad driving with superb putting, came as no surprise. For he is having the best year of his long career, with three tournament victories and a total of $70,956 in official prize money—behind only Palmer and Nicklaus.

But neither the 27-year-old Pott nor the 31-year-old Barber was given much of a chance over the back-breaking 7,165-yard Firestone course. However, they played the first round as though they owned the layout.

Both carded five birdies and two bogeys. The steady Boros had four birdies against a single bogey although he hit erring drives on seven holes, five times hitting the rough and twice winding up in the bunkers.

He overcame those errors with his putter, needing only 28 putts.

R. C. 'Alley-Oop' Owens Checks Into Camp For Baltimore Colts In Shape To Play

By United Press International

Alley-oop is back and ready to bounce even higher.

That would be flanker R. C. Owens, the springsteen man in the National Football League, who checked into the Baltimore Colts training camp Thursday after nearly losing his life in an automobile accident in July.

Owens, who stands 6-3 and was an outstanding college basketball player, achieved his greatest fame and his nickname during his days with the San Francisco Forty Niners when he and quarterback Y. A. Tittle originated the "Alley-oop" pass in which Tittle would throw the ball high in the air and Owens simply would outleap the defenders.

The only known player ever to block a field goal as it was clearing the crossbar, Owens did not suit up Thursday but appeared fit and ready with no trace of injuries.

In other NFL camps, San Francisco placed injured end Clyde Connor, an eight-year veteran, on waivers...linebacker John Reger will return to the Pittsburgh Steelers starting lineup for Saturday's clash with Baltimore at Atlanta after being sidelined a week with a knee injury...the Los Angeles Rams sliced their roster to 44 players by placing five men on waivers...veterans Glenn Shaw and Duane Putnam and rookies Ken Chancellor, Doug Brown and Jerry Green-walt.

Plays Newcomers

Coach Allie Sherman of the New York Giants said he planned to use newcomers Nat Craddock, Charlie Killett and Jim Pace as much as possible at the running back positions in Sunday's game with Minnesota, while the Vikings planned to use quarterback Fran Tarkenton for the entire 60 minutes of action.

Washington head man Bill McPeak intends to make wholesale use of rookies, sophomores and borderline cases on Saturday night's contest with the Philadelphia Eagles...Both the Green Bay Packers and Cleveland Browns worked out in preparation for weekend clashes with the Chicago Bears and San Francisco, respectively.

In American League camps, Weeb Ewbank felt that the time of passes between the quarterbacks and ends was showing definite improvement after watching his New York Jets work out on Thursday...The Oakland Raiders acquired defensive halfback Jim McMillan from the Denver Broncos for a draft choice...And the Kansas City Chiefs went through a short 30-minute drill in preparation for tonight's encounter with Denver.

Chargers Beat Oilers

In AFL exhibition action Thursday night, the San Diego Chargers, apparently fully recovered from last year's injury jinx, rode the passing arm of sophomore quarterback John Hadl to their third pre-season victory in four starts with a convincing 21-3 rout of the Houston Oilers.

The Oilers, perennial Eastern Division champions who twice defeated the Chargers for the AFL title in 1960 and 1961, fell behind at the outset as Hadl hit Lance Alworth with a 15-yard TD pass after defensive back Dick Harris picked up a Billy Cannon fumble on his own 27 and raced to the Houston 16. Hadl also tossed a 42-yard scoring pass to Bob Jackson as the Oilers suffered their second loss in four games.

Elks Billiard Team To Meet Medford

The Roseburg Elks billiard team will play in tournament competition against the Medford Elks Saturday, with games starting at the Roseburg Elks home at 1 p.m.

The first six games will be for 30 points and the seventh game, between the top player from each team, will be for 50 points. Medford defeated Roseburg 4-3 earlier in the year, but Roseburg manager Doss Burgess says he feels the Roseburg team may win here.

Medford is managed by Dr. William Miller, who also plays on the team. George "Dinty" Moore, the Medford club champion, is considered one of the best three-cushion billiard players in the state.

Roseburg Faces Omaha In 'Nationals'

Cardinals Beat Dodgers 3-2, But Hopes For Pennant Dwindle After Big Series

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Instead of half a loaf, all that the Cardinals got were the crumbs.

They won the third and final game of their series with the Dodgers, 3-2, Thursday night and it probably was more in the nature of a consolation victory than anything else.

The disappointed Cards, who lost the first two games of the showdown series, had the satisfaction of snapping the Dodgers' seven-game winning streak. That was mighty small consolation considering that the Dodgers still lead the National League by 6 1/2 games today.

What the sad situation amounts to for the Cardinals is this:

They came into Los Angeles last Tuesday all hepped up about their pennant chances because they had taken three in a row from the Giants and were "only" 5 1/2 games back. But they lost a full game—plus a precious opportunity—by the time they left L.A.

Meet Once Again

The Cardinals have one more shot at the Dodgers when they meet them again for a three-game set in St. Louis starting Sept. 16 but by then it may be too late.

The Cards broke a 2-all tie Thursday night when Ken Boyer doubled in the sixth inning and came home with the winning run on Julian Javier's single.

Ernie Broglio won his 14th although he departed in favor of Ray Sadecki in the eighth. Don Drysdale suffered his 14th defeat against 16 victories.

Giants Beat Braves

In the only other NL games scheduled, the Giants snapped their five-game losing streak with an 8-6 victory over the Braves.

Juan Marichal won his 19th for the Giants even though Milwaukee first baseman Joe Torre nicked him for a grand slam homer in the eighth inning.

Roberto Clemente's grand slam homer was the key blow in a five-run ninth inning rally that cemented the Pirates' victory over the Cubs.

Nebraska Champs Feature Speed Against Lockwood 9

Roseburg's Lockwood Motors will open play in the American Legion Junior National Baseball Tournament at Keene, N.H. against Bishop Ryan High School of Omaha, Neb., a team which dropped its first games in both the Omaha state tournament and the Region Six tournament.

The Lockwoods will square off with the Bishop Ryan squad, sponsored by a Pepsi-Cola bottling company in Omaha, at 8:30 p.m. (EST) Sunday. This will be 4:30 Roseburg time and the game will be carried on KQEN radio, with sportscaster Lyle Fenner at the mike.

Omaha defeated St. Paul, Minn. 4-3 Wednesday night for the Region Six championship. Right-hander Jerry Beninato was the winning pitcher. Other moundmen for the Omaha squad are right-handers George Stilen and Joe Rysavy and lefty Ken Fila.

The Omaha squad had dropped a 7-6 decision to Cedar Rapids, Iowa in the first game of the Region Six tournament. They came back to defeat Rapid City, S.D. 6-1; Bismark, N.D. 6-2; Enid, Okla. 3-0 and 3-2; and then take St. Paul 4-3 in the championship game.

The Omaha squad has compiled a 35-4 record for the season.

They are coached by Bishop Ryan HS football coach Tom Dineen and play their regular season games in the Omaha City Legion League.

The normal starting lineup is Tom Tyrdik, left field; Rich Lang, second base; Chuck Shimerdla, first base; Ron Blessie, catcher; Jack Vacer, third base; Len Boryca, shortstop; Frank Stamen, right field; and Rich Vacer, center field.

The Lockwood Motors squad goes into Sunday night's National Tournament contest with a 51 win and 10 lost record. Their last two defeats, in the state and regional tournament, have come in extra innings, both in the 10th.

The Lockwoods defeated Billings, Mont. 4-1 Tuesday night for the Northwest Regional Championship, as Dick Williams fired a brilliant three-hitter and were "only" 5 1/2 games back. But they lost a full game—plus a precious opportunity—by the time they left L.A.
