

MR. AND MRS. LARRY ELLIOTT, above, were married at the Assembly of God Church in Roseburg Aug. 2 by the Rev. C. O. Ross. The bride, Patsy Lou Hammond, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hammond of Port Orford. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Edna Elliott and the late John G. Elliott of Roseburg. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Patsy Hammond Becomes Bride

The Roseburg Assembly of God Church was the scene Aug. 2 of the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Patsy Lou Hammond of Port Orford and Larry Lavern Elliott of Roseburg. The Rev. C. O. Ross officiated at the 8 p.m. rites.

Baskets of white gladioli were used in decoration. The couple stood before a white arch covered with ivy to complement the ivy-ornamented candleabra.

Mary Valentine, church organist, played the wedding music. Arlene Hardage sang "Whither Thou Goest," and Clyde Ross sang "Wedding Prayer."

Candlelighters were JoAnne Haskins and Bonnie Roell.

T. C. Hammond of Port Orford, father of the bride, gave his daughter in marriage. She was lovely in her floor-length gown of Chantilly lace. The Sabrina neckline dipped to a modified V in the back, the fitted bodice extended into the bouffant skirt. She wore a fingertip veil caught by a tiara-type crown trimmed with simulated miniature pearls and crystal beads. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses and carnations.

Mary Weber was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Wanda Toles and Vivian Looney. Linda Elliott was junior bridesmaid. They were clad in light blue taffeta brocade dresses, styled with full skirts. They wore white accessories and carried fan-shaped bouquets of carnations.

Jeff Willey of Sutherlin was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Daniel Weber, Gray Riffe and Lonnie Willey, all of Port Orford.

Brenda Whitten and Randy Hambrick of Sutherlin were flower girl and ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hammond wore a pastel blue sheer dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in navy blue and white, and she wore matching accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was given in the church basement by Mrs. W. Pe-
