

Hospital Brace For Casualties Among Marchers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The city's health director estimated today that at least several hundred persons will be hospitalized during the "march on Washington" Wednesday and indicated the figure could be higher.

humid day and will be congregated under conditions which make it essential for us to plan for any eventualities."

As local officials continued to plan for the demonstration, march leaders met in New York Friday night for another organization meeting.

They announced that they will see President Kennedy at the White House at 5 p.m. EDT, one hour after the close of ceremonies at the Lincoln Memorial. They will see congressional leaders at 9:30 a.m. EDT.

Grant said that 25 first aid stations will be in operation Aug. 28, 14 in fixed locations such as government buildings, 10 in National Guard tents, and one in a mobile van.

Casualties will be taken to the District of Columbia Hospital except for the critically ill. The D. C. General Hospital will be used to maximum capacity and 350 beds have been set aside for demonstrators.

About 200 physicians, nurses, staff aides have been placed on special call at the hospital for the march. In addition, Grant said, the National Guard is assigning a staff of 100 to the hospital.

Other hospitals have been asked to prepare for any overflow. Civil defense cots and blankets have been loaned to the hospitals.

President Mixes Work, Relaxation

HAYNNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI) — President Kennedy mixed work with relaxation today on Squaw Island where his wife, Jacqueline, is recuperating from the Caesarian birth of their son who died.

The White House in Washington was forwarding to Kennedy secret reports on the tense situation in Viet Nam from the new U.S. ambassador to the Southeast Asian kingdom, Henry Cabot Lodge.

The President arrived at the island retreat late Friday by helicopter from Otis Air Force Base where his plane from Washington landed. On hand at the base to greet him were his two children, Caroline and John Jr.

Kennedy planned to return to Washington Monday.

"We traveled the entire coast, all the way to the Mexican border, in search of a motel business and decided this was one of the finest we had seen," John told The News-Review. "The Holiday is being set up to cater to the commercial man, offering him luxury which will help make his stay in Roseburg a pleasant one."

In addition to the 40 units, each featuring a modern interior decor with wall-size murals, television, telephones, air conditioning and electric heating, the Holiday features a spacious lobby where a complimentary continental breakfast is served daily.

The manager's apartment is located at the rear of the lobby. The Holiday has a large parking area and John said he plans to add a swimming pool in the spring.

Grass Fire Calls Crew

The Roseburg Rural Fire Department answered an alarm to the end of NE Currier St. at 8:30 p.m. Friday when a grass and brush fire was discovered. There was no damage, and the origin of the fire was undetermined.

Milo Academy Announces Teaching Staff Newcomers

By MRS. DURNIN SWINGLEY. Eleven new faculty members will greet Milo Academy students arriving for registration for fall semester Sept. 1 and 2. Classes start Sept. 3 with an expanding curriculum and counseling program scheduled for this year.

Elder Edward Harms is new to the campus as pastor, Bible teacher and head of the guidance program. Harms, with his wife and three children, comes to Milo following four years at Baker, Ore. He has specialized in guidance and counseling, with a masters degree from Andrews University and bachelors degree from Walla Walla College in Washington.

Also on the guidance staff is Melvin Derby who will be teaching religion and history. Recipient of both his masters and bachelors degrees from Walla Walla, he has served 10 years with the interdenominational Oregon Council on Alcohol Problems, which sends instructors to visit schools throughout the state. He comes here following one year in Michigan.

Wife To Teach. Mrs. Derby will teach home economics and English. The Derbys and their three children have been joined by a nephew, Ron Skinner, whose missionary parents are in Iran. Ron has had some of his schooling in India and has returned to the states for his secondary work.

Completion of the science and home economics classrooms in the lower floor of the main administration building by the first week of September, if not sooner, assures better handling of those subjects requiring laboratory work.

CENTER OF ATTRACTION for the younger set at the North Douglas County Fair was the ring toss on the midway. The carnival, food booths, games of chance and a dunking tank also drew crowds to the fair. This afternoon a special event will be a horse show featuring halter and performance classes. (News-Review photo)

New Faculty Member Hired By Sutherlin School District

Several teachers will be working in the Sutherlin schools for the first time this fall. Some of them come from places as far away as North Dakota and Illinois.

One, however, is a Sutherlin graduate who is returning to teach in her home town. She is Lynne Queltette, a graduate of Southern Oregon College who will be teaching a third grade at the West School. She is getting married prior to school opening and her students will know her as Mrs. Ralls.

Also teaching at the West School will be C. A. Dyringer who is returning to Oregon after having taught in California for two years. Prior to that he served as elementary principal for the Weston-Dillard schools. He will be teaching a sixth grade.

Another teacher new to the West School is Mrs. Robert Lee. She comes to Sutherlin from Glendale in Viet Nam from the new U.S. ambassador to the Southeast Asian kingdom, Henry Cabot Lodge.

Others Are New. LaVonne Hartley will teach a fifth grade at the East Elementary School. Last year she taught at New Leipzig, N.D.

Two new staff members at the junior high school are Dick Sampson and Mrs. Betha Kristianson. Sampson will work in the social sciences and mathematics and will also work with counseling and guidance. Mrs. Kristianson will teach language arts. Mrs. Kristianson is a recent graduate of Eastern Washington College of Education and Sampson taught this past year at Prosser, Wash.

Teaching in the high school besides Lee, will be Ray Weisenborn, Gary King, James Heath and Mrs. Dorothy Gillett.

Weisenborn is a recent graduate of Portland State College where he participated as a member of the debate team. He will handle speech and drama and teach in the English field.

Science instruction is King's field. He recently returned from a tour of duty with the U.S. Navy. Prior to his service connection he taught at Ukiah High School. He attended summer school at Eastern Oregon College this summer where he is working on an advanced degree.

James Heath of Eastern Washington College and the University of Washington will instruct in art for the high school. He has more than 100 hours of training in the fine arts. He is married and has one child.

Mrs. Gillett will teach commercial subjects in the high school. She comes to Sutherlin after having taught for six years at Yorkville, Ill. Her husband will teach in the Oakland schools.

Secretaries Hired. At a recent meeting of the Sutherlin School Board, Supt. Raymond Mullen reported the hiring of Mrs. Betty Harris as secretary of the West Elementary School and Mrs. Della Mattingly as assistant at the high school.

The board also instructed school personnel to inquire further into Mrs. Gillett will teach commercial subjects in the high school. She comes to Sutherlin after having taught for six years at Yorkville, Ill. Her husband will teach in the Oakland schools.

Local residents have been notified of the death Aug. 15 of a former Winchester man, Carlyle H. Humphrey, 75, of Los Angeles. He died as the result of an emergency operation.

Owner of the Humphrey Bakery in the Farmers Market in Los Angeles, he lived on his Winchester ranch for a time before moving back to California. The ranch was sold in recent months to Jim Lewis of Myrtle Creek.

He was active in business until the time of his death, operating the bakery with his son, Tom, who survives him.

Other survivors include his wife, Gladys; two sisters; and three brothers.

Private interment will follow at Civil Bend cemetery in Winston. He was born Feb. 4, 1889, at Kellogg. He has lived all his life in this area.

Backers Fear Amendments To Test Ban

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Supporters of the nuclear test ban treaty, armed with another qualified military endorsement, today considered their only problem now is to defeat any effort to "cripple" the pact with amendments.

Adm. George W. Anderson, retired chief of naval operations, gave his support Friday to the treaty during testimony before a closely session of the Senate preparedness subcommittee. But, like the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Anderson insisted that the limited ban be accompanied by proper security safeguards.

Anderson, who did not receive a reappointment to the Joint Chiefs, has been named ambassador to Portugal.

Details of the safeguards, demanded by the Senate Armed Services Committee, may be dispatched by the Pentagon today. Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., who asked the Defense Department to spell out how it will implement the safeguards, said he expects them by Monday.

Ratification of the treaty has been taken as a foregone conclusion. But statements by some top-flight nuclear scientists over whether the pact adequately protects U.S. security, coupled with former Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis L. Strauss' critical testimony, kept alive concern about moves to restrict the treaty.

Strauss recommended that two formal reservations be attached to the pact and that Congress take four other moves to guard against losing ground to Russia under the agreement.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., foreign relations chairman, told reporters: "My guess is that our only trouble will be with people trying to tack on reservations — to try to cripple the treaty."

Treaty advocates favor clearing up any ambiguities in Senate debate and in the Foreign Relations Committee's formal report on the pact. This was suggested by Edw. P. Neilan, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, in testimony before the committee Friday. He endorsed the treaty.

Attendance areas for each of the elementary schools will remain about the same as last year except for some shifting of students to Nonpareil. Adjustments in the schools will be made after school opens to compensate for classroom space and to balance student loads.

Time schedules will remain about the same as in past years. Any changes will be announced opening day. The buses will also run about the same times as in past years. A bus will be added to service the children transferred to Nonpareil, according to Mrs. Jerry DeMuth, correspondent.

Roseburg City Police early Saturday morning investigated a report of an abandoned baby, which turned out to be a small child who had wandered away from her family while moving into a new home.

The incident occurred about 3:15 a.m., involving a girl believed to be about 13 months old. She had wandered away from her new home and was discovered crying on the porch of a neighbor's apartment.

City police received a report of a hose and sprinkler being stolen from the home of Oswin M. Day, 560 NE Fulton St., Friday night. Value of the stolen items was placed at $20.

The Sutherlin City Reminder, which has been published as a shopping guide each week for the last 11 years by Lyle Seehawer, has been sold.

The new owner is Logan White, publisher of the Sutherlin Sun-Tribune, a weekly newspaper.

White said the Sun-Tribune will publish a weekly advertising section along with the newspaper. It will be delivered each Thursday evening and Friday morning in place of the Reminder.

Seehawer, present mayor of Sutherlin, has not announced future plans.

Two Douglas County men have filed for bankruptcy in U. S. District Court in Portland. They are James V. Henry of 656 W. Corey St., Roseburg, and Donald H. Graham of Oakland.

Holiday Motel Changes Hands

The Holiday Motel, one of the expansive new buildings to rise in the downtown area destroyed by the Aug. 7, 1959 blast, has undergone a change in ownership and management.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry John purchased the Holiday from Todd McClaskey and Ed Pietz, Vancouver, Wash., businessmen, effective Aug. 10. The motel will be managed by the Johns.

The Holiday, a luxurious 40-unit motel, was opened June 1 on SE Oak Avenue and SE Sheridan Street by McClaskey and Pietz, owners and operators of the Thunderbird Motel in Portland.

Although he is new to the motel business, John is not a new figure in the Roseburg area. As general manager in charge of timber and plywood operations for Evans Products Co., he was in complete charge of the $2 million expansion of the Evans Company's Winchester plant which created 125 new jobs for the area.

A native of Canada, he has been in the executive end of the lumber and plywood business all of his life. His wife, Inge, is a native of Germany. John was production manager of Aberdeen Plywood and Veneer Co. before that firm was chased by Evans, and had served in the general manager capacity for Evans the past two years. He resigned from that firm effective July 1.

"We traveled the entire coast, all the way to the Mexican border, in search of a motel business and decided this was one of the finest we had seen," John told The News-Review. "The Holiday is being set up to cater to the commercial man, offering him luxury which will help make his stay in Roseburg a pleasant one."

In addition to the 40 units, each featuring a modern interior decor with wall-size murals, television, telephones, air conditioning and electric heating, the Holiday features a spacious lobby where a complimentary continental breakfast is served daily.

The manager's apartment is located at the rear of the lobby. The Holiday has a large parking area and John said he plans to add a swimming pool in the spring.

STACY ADAMS to speak on Birchers

Jayeets to discuss the John Birch Society, which has been described as a politically rightist group. Adams describes his political stand as one of "rock-ribbed conservatism" which calls for "adherence to the basic principles of the Constitution, particularly in the separation of the powers of the three branches of government."

He says he has a feeling "that there is grave danger to the American way of life in the increasing size and power of the federal government and discouragement of individual initiative." He said he is also concerned about "the general teaching away of the rights guaranteed under the Constitution."

Adams is currently a washing machine sales and service man in Yoncalla, where he has lived since 1928.

Merely Players Meet Set Monday At 'Barn'

Plans for the next show, "Rainmaker," will be discussed at the general meeting of the Merely Players Monday night. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 at the "Barn" Umpqua West Theater.

Yates said nominations and election of officers for the coming year is on the docket. A report on "Flower Drum Song" will also be made, he stated.

Local Woman Arrested For Passing Bad Check

Olga Lillian Battenberg of 3255 NE Stephens St., Roseburg, was released on her own recognizance late Friday after her arrest on a Benton County warrant charging her with passing a non-sufficient funds check.

She will appear in court at Corvallis Monday to answer the charge.

Those attending should bring a picnic lunch and table service.
