

RESCUE WORKERS MAN DRILL in Hazeltown, Pa., early this week as they attempt to enlarge a drill hole leading to three entombed in the earth for more than a week. A six-inch hole was driven through more than 300 feet of solid rock Monday and food, cigars, brandy and blankets were lowered to the trapped miners. A telephone also was sent down.

CEYLONESE SCIENTIST working at Ames Research Center at Moffet Field, Calif., has synthesized a life-essential molecule in a way that might have happened naturally in earth's primitive oceans four billion years ago. Experiment demonstrates life could have arisen naturally, without the intervention of supernatural powers.

REACHES NEW HEIGHTS — Chief Space Agency Pilot Joe Walker is shown in front of the X-15 rocket ship here Thursday after he gunned the plane to a world altitude record of more than 66 miles despite some difficulty with radio communications and with a new altitude-predicting device. During the flight, Walker reached a peak speed of 3,614 m.p.h. — short of his mark of 4,104 m.p.h. which he set last year.

Picture Page

All pictures via UPI Telephoto Service

Sat., Aug. 24, 1963 — The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 7

DOUKHOBORS MARCH — Some 500 radical "Sons Of Freedom" set up a makeshift camp near federal prison in Agassis, B.C. to "be near" friends and relatives imprisoned for terrorist arson and bombing attacks.

THIS WAS THE SCENE in the North Terminal of Washington National Airport late Tuesday after a heavy rainstorm struck the Washington area. An estimated 2 1/2 inches fell during the evening.

PETER BARAGAS, 14, of Tahoe City, Calif., shows father the knife he used to open cans of food he found at abandoned campsite during five days he was lost in high Sierra near Lake Tahoe. Peter, feared dead, made way out of rugged area Thursday, apparently all right except for possible broken nose, scratches and exposure to near-freezing temperatures.

LIFE'S HAPPIEST MOMENT comes to Karen House, 10, of Suburban Westchester, Ill., as she is given "Butterfly" by expressman at O'Hara Airport in Chicago early this week. Karen had written to White House when litter of four pups were born to pet there asking for one of the newborn. Mrs. John F. Kennedy gave dog to Karen after selecting her letter from some 5,000 others, each requesting a puppy.

POLICE JAGUAR leads the way as a special convoy leaves Leatherslade Farm near Oakley, England early this week. The vehicles are the trucks, Land Rovers, and automobiles used by the "Great Mail Train Robbery" bandits to carry their loot away from the robbery scene to their hideout.

HONORARY BOY and Mrs. John A. Burns, center, received samples of Oregon products from delegates at their Washington home residence for delegates to National Legislative Conference in progress in Honolulu. Making presentations are, left to right: Ben Musa, Oregon state senate president; Clarence Barton, speaker of the Oregon house of representatives; Mrs. Barton, standing behind Mrs. Burns, and Mrs. Musa.

RELUCTANT YOUTH — Six-year-old Ruben Lavrocuento of Manhattan, N.Y., cries and struggles as he tries to prevent policemen from placing him in Bellevue Hospital ambulance Wednesday. Four stitches were required to close head injury the youngster received when he fell from one-story ledge while trying to retrieve a ball with which he had been playing.

DOG HERO OF 1963 — Dutch, a German shepherd from Troy, Pa., arrives at Chicago Airport to receive gold medal and $1,000 war bond as the top canine hero of the year. He saved Hugh Hawthorne, 4, right, and his brother Gordon, 3, from drowning October 31.