

Dear Abby!

"Reason For Telling!"

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I know a practical nurse who is a disgrace to the profession. She was hired to care for an elderly lady who is almost helpless. After the P.N. puts this elderly lady to bed she goes out the back door and across the street to spend the night with a widower who lives alone. She is supposed to be sleeping in the bedroom next to the patient in case she is needed in the night. I am not the kind of person who makes trouble, but I think somebody ought to tell the family of this poor old helpless woman, and I don't know them well enough.

SEEING IS BELIEVING
DEAR SEEING: To be aware of this situation and withhold it from the family is, in my opinion, morally wrong. Since you don't know the family well enough to tell them, find someone who does. But see to it that the family learns the truth immediately.

DEAR ABBY: I am married, but for reasons I cannot put in a letter I am unable to keep my baby. Will a home for unwed mothers take me?

NIGHTMARE
DEAR NIGHTMARE: Yes, there are some homes that will take married girls. Send me your name and address.

DEAR ABBY: About six years ago a nice young couple moved into our neighborhood. I'll call them Mabel and Pete, which are not their real names. My husband and I became very friendly with them. They had two children and so did we. Two years ago, for no reason at all, Pete walked off and left Mabel. She was five months pregnant at the time. We never saw Pete again, but Mabel said they were divorced and she gets alimony and support money regularly. We have been like a family to Mabel. Out of the blue my husband told me he wanted to ADOPT Mabel's youngest child, a sweet boy. I knew my husband was fond of this child, but I can't see why he would want to ADOPT him. He said Mabel would continue to raise him but the boy would be legally his "son." Isn't this rather unusual: What would you do, Abby?

IN A DAZE
DEAR IN: I'd tell my husband to forget it. And if you are like a "family" to Mabel, do her a favor and help her find a nice man to complete her own family.
