Diana J. Becker Now Mrs. G. Cox

Baskets of white gladioli and blue and white carnations, flanked by candles, formed the setting for the wedding Friday, Aug. 16, at 8 p.m. of Diana Jane Becker and Gary Bruce Cox, at the Drain Church of Christ. Delbert White, minister, performed the double ring ceremony before 150 relatives and friends of the couple.

Diana is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Becker of Cottage Grove, and Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cox of Drain. Edwin Becker escorted and gave his daughter in marriage. The bride was beautiful, wearing a floor-length gown with applique of lace at the neckline. The skirt had a straight front with fullness at the sides of the drop waistline. The shepheress influence at the back flowed into a full chapel train. She wore an elbow-length veil of illusion, held in place with a headpiece accented by seed pearls. She carried on a white Bible a cascade-style bridal bouquet of white carnations centered by a corsage orchid.

Mrs. Rex Swearingen was her sister's matron of honor, wearing a gown of blue with lace bodice and gentle fullness in the skirt, with how detailing on the front. She carried a cascade-style nosegay of blue and white carnations. The bridesmaids, whose dresses and flowers were like those of the matron of honor, were Miss Joyce Schuchart, Spokane, Wash., cousin of the bride; Miss Linda Becker, sister of the bride; and Miss Carol Nemeth.

Steven Cox was his brother's best man. Ushers were Richard Yoder and Mike Cunningham and Duane Johnson of Veneta.

"Wedding Prayer" and "because" were sung by soloist, Gerald Rust, accompanied by organist, Mrs. John Bogan of Roseburg. Candelighters were Mike Cunningham and Duane Johnson. Ring-bearer was Eddie Becker, brother of the bride. The flower girl was Janie Sue Haldeman of Eugene, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride chose a pale turquoise sheath with black accessories accented with the orchid from her bridal bouquet, for the wedding trip up the Oregon Coast and to Pasco, Wash.

The bride's mother wore a dark blue floral dress and black accessories with a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink dress, pink and navy blue accessories and a white carnation corsage. The couples' grandmothers, Mrs. Lena Gardner and Mrs. Bertha Rogers, both wore white carnation corsages.

Bouquets of blue and white gladioli and daisies decorated the reception room at the church to follow the wedding theme. The bride's cake was centered by a tiered cake of hearts topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Serving were Mrs. Roy Haldeman, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Len Brown, aunt of the bride. Pouring punch was Mrs. Bill King, cousin of the bride from Edmonds, Wash. Pouring coffee were Mrs. John Lamb of Creswell and Mrs. Brumbaugh, The Dalles, both aunts of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bruce Cunningham and Sharry Becker, sister of the bride, were in charge of gifts and Miss Judy Brown was in charge of the guest book.

The young people both were graduated from Drain High School in 1962. Diana attended Eugene Business College, and Gary the University of Oregon. He will attend the Columbia Basin College at Pasco, Wash., where they will be at home after Aug. 30.

Out-of-state guests were Mrs. Florence Schuchart and family of Spokane, Wash.; Jessie Lloyd, Woodville, Wash.; Kristen Arnesen, Briggs, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill King of Edmonds, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Levins of Redwood City, Calif.

Others from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brumbaugh, The Dalles; Tom Brumbaugh, St. Helens; Emilie Haldeman, and Mr. and Mrs. Einer Vohnson and Pam, all of Portland; Mary Ann Crites, Kathy Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Becker, Eugene; Duane Johnson of Veneta; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marvick and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Becker and Bob, Brookings.

A DELIGHTFUL BIRTHDAY party was given by Mrs. Myrtle Harwood in honor of her granddaughter, RuSelle Diana Harwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harwood of Camas Valley, in observance of her first anniversary.

First Birthday Celebrated By RuSelle Diana Harwood

RuSelle Diana Harwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harwood of Camas Valley, was honored on her first birthday recently at the home of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Myrtle Harwood, in Lorane.

A lovely birthday dinner was prepared by Mrs. Harwood. An aunt, Gweneth Harwood, had baked and decorated a beautiful birthday cake which was white with a large candle in the center encircled by fresh pink sweet peas. After RuSelle opened her many lovely gifts, the dinner was enjoyed by Mrs. Myrtle Harwood, Gweneth Harwood; two uncles, Ray and Glenn Harwood of Lorane; her great-uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Boque from Eugene; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harwood.

Tenmile Methodist Church Scene Of Lovely Wedding

A beautiful wedding took place at the Methodist Church in Tenmile at 4 p.m. July 28 when Miss Claudia Jeanie Burr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burr, became the bride of Darrell L. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Anderson, all of Tenmile. The Rev. Everett Mitchell of the Winston Christian Church performed the impressive single ring ceremony. Only immediate members of the family were present.

For her wedding, the bride wore a beige sheath dress with a lace jacket.

The bride attended Douglas High School. The bridegroom was graduated from Douglas High School with the class of 1961 and is now employed at Roseburg Lumber Co.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the parents of the bridegroom.

A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Carl Westfall of Myrtle Creek, a friend of the family, was cut and served by the bride. Serving punch were Mrs. Carl Burr and Janet Burr a sister of the bride.
