Glendale Boy
In Air Force

By MRS. G. B. FOX
Don Neifer has enlisted in the U. S. Air Force and is now undergoing basic training in Texas.
Kills Rattler
C. E. Young, Glendale rancher who has been a resident for the past 35 years, recently killed a rattlesnake on his place. He says it is the first rattler he has seen on the ranch in all that time.
Mrs. Vera Kemp of Glendale enjoyed a visit for several days recently from her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hyia Jones and her children, all of Chappaqua, N. Y. The Jones family is making a trip all over the United States and had already traveled 7,000 miles when they arrived in Glendale.
Paula Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young of Glendale won a free helicopter ride on a recent Saturday in Roseburg. It was Paula's first time in the air and she was thrilled with her ride.
Norman McKel former Glendale resident now living in California, was in Glendale recently on business. He visited the Robert Youngs.
Old Friends Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Wid Foreman and daughters from Canoga Park, Calif., visited briefly with the Robert Young family in Glendale recently. Mr. and Mrs. Foreman formerly lived at Quines Creek. Their visit was a pleasant surprise to the Youngs who had not seen them for 13 years.
Mrs. Susan Tanner, 83, is reported making a good recovery from recent surgery at the Forest Glen Hospital.
Mrs. Sidney Perry and her daughter, Virginia returned to Eugene with Mrs. Perry's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bill Perry, and children who had come down for a bridal shower given for Virginia.

G. Valley Couple
Ends Portland Stay

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER
Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Laver of Garden Valley were in Portland for three days recently to attend the state Board of Mental Health luncheon meeting. They visited with a former Garden Valley resident, Mrs. Mary Broderson, who is now residing again in Portland at the old family home. In recent years she has been making her home with Grace Dwight in Minneapolis, Minn. The Lavers stopped in Salem to see Dr. Treleven, administrator for mental health in Oregon. While in Portland they attended the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "Pirates of Penzance," and "The Merry Widow" Franz Lehár light opera.
Mrs. Dale Poteet and Susan of Bend accompanied by Mrs. Poteet's sister, Anne Madison, visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Madison. Mrs. Madison and Anne had been to Bend to care for Susan while Mrs. Poteet had minor surgery and Anne extended her visit. Mrs. Madison and Anne had spent a week at the Baptist Church youth camp where Mrs. Madison was camp nurse.
Mr. and Mrs. Sig Madison and Kathie Madison of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Preson and Sandee attended the Scandinavian Folk Festival at Junction City. Kathie Madison was home recently to be a bridesmaid for Judy Alpaugh.
Mrs. Ruby Boyd of Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, Canada, and Mrs. Ida McKechnie of Regina, Saskatchewan, have returned to Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. Mrs. Boyd has been visiting with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. Graham Ewens, while Mrs. McKechnie was attending an eight-week course at the University of Oregon in Eugene.
