Ellen L. Cole Becomes Bride

A lovely wedding took place Aug. 17 at 2 p.m. at the Oakland Church of Christ when Miss Ellen Louise Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cole of Oakland, became the bride of Vernon James Landreth of Hayward, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. William K. Landreth of Hayward are parents of the bridegroom.

Ronald Spaulding, minister, officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony.

Church decorations included an archway flanked by candelabra with white and lavender candles and tall white baskets of white and lavender gladioli.

Mrs. Margaret Crane played the organ music and accompanied Larry Cole, who sang "Because" and "Together Life's Pathway We Tread." Mrs. Ronald Spaulding sang "At Dawning."

The bride, escorted by her father, was lovely in a white lace over satin floor-length gown which she had fashioned herself. She wore a pearl crown which held in place her elbow-length veil. The bride's bouquet was of white gladioli centered with a lavender orchid.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Jerry Harris of Fairbanks, Alaska. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Cole, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Susie Braack and Miss Diana Boyter. All wore street-length lavender dresses with full skirts, bouffant tulle hats and white accessories.

Kathy Cole, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed the same as the bridesmaids and carried lavender flowers. Stephen Harris, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Robert Landreth, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Frank and David Landreth, brothers of the bridegroom, and Larry Cole, brother of the bride.

Candlelighters were Linda and Glenda Landreth, sisters of the bridegroom. They also were attired in lavender dresses the same as those of the other attendants.

The bride's mother wore a sea-foam green dress, and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue flowered dress. Both wore white accessories and had white carnation corsages.

A reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the dining room of the church. Decorations were in lavender and white. The three-tiered cake was decorated with lavender flowers.

Cutting the cake was Mrs. Walter Cole of Eugene, an aunt of the bride. Mrs. William Snyder of Roseburg, another aunt, served the punch. Miss Barbara Pichette had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Myron Oberman and Mrs. Ted Balmbridge had charge of the gifts.

The young people spent a week at the coast. For traveling, the bride chose a white suit with lavender flowered blouse, white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

After Sept. 1 they will make their home on North 39th St., Boise, Idaho.

The bride was graduated from Oakland High School, and the bridegroom was graduated from Castro Valley High School in California. Both young people are students at Boise Bible College, where the bridegroom is a senior. They have been employed in Boise during the summer.

Guests coming from California to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Landreth and Robert, David, Linda and Glenda Landreth, all of Hayward; Frank and Mark Landreth of Alameda; Mrs. Andy Johnson and Howard Johnson, Manteca; Edward Saunders, Dunsmuir; Eva Renquist, San Fernando; Diane Young, Granada Hills; Mrs. Pat Chapman and Jon, Elizabeth and Julie, Castro Valley; W. K. Landreth of Oakland; and Mrs. J. C. Harris of McCloud.

Others were Mrs. Robert Young, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Dorothy Reaney, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Harris and children, Fairbanks, Alaska.

Michael Harris, Madison, Ill.; Warren C. Swartz, Findley, Ohio; Betty Wells, Marvin Miller, Gary Reynolds and Mrs. Hazel Scott, all of Boise, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wells, Kuna, Idaho; Nellie Maddox and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cole, Eugene; and Elizabeth Robins, Blue River.

MARRIED Aug. 16 at the Wilbur Methodist Church were Edith Myrth Van Cleave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Cleave of Sutherlin, and Speed James Blanton, son of Mrs. Guy Cunningham of Anchorage, Alaska, and Speed Blanton of Harlan, Ky. (Picture by Warren Studio, Sutherlin)

Church Wedding Unites Couple

A small informal wedding was held at the Wilbur Methodist Church Friday evening, Aug. 16, when Edith Myrth Van Cleave of Sutherlin was married to Speed James Blanton, son of Mrs. Guy Cunningham of Anchorage, Alaska, and Speed Blanton of Harlan, Ky.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Everett Gardner, assisted by the Rev. Richard Case, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The church aisle was decorated with lavender and white crepe paper orchids and streamers. Tall baskets of lavender and white gladioli and white candles and candelabra formed the altar decorations.

Mrs. Lewis Binliff played traditional organ music and accompanied Miss Ruth Harvey who sang "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of ivory lace and net over satin. Her bouffant veil was held in place by a seed pearl crown. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Mrs. Lee Noyes, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a blue brocade street-length dress. She carried a white fan with carnation corsage.

Miss Ruth Harvey lighted the candles. Frank Van Cleave, brother of the bride, ushered in the guests, and Miss Becky Van Cleave, niece of the bride, handled the guest book.

Robert Van Cleave, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a pale blue brocade dress with white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's step-grandmother, Mrs. Guy Cunningham, was also honored with a white carnation corsage.

The reception was held in the church annex. The Wilbur Methodist Ladies' Aid served the two-tiered lavender and white wedding cake and coffee. Mrs. Lee Noyes poured the punch. Miss Kathi Leitheiser of Portland had charge of the gift table.

The bride wore a going-away suit of white wool with pink accessories.

TO MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Baurassa, Rt. 4 Box 826, Roseburg, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Donna Jean, to John Anttonen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Anttonen, 1848 Linnell, Roseburg. The bride-elect was graduated from Douglas High School this year and is entering University of Oregon in the fall to major in elementary education. John was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1959 and is in his junior year at the University of Oregon as a pre-med student. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. The wedding date is Sept. 15 in the garden at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Relatives and friends of the couple are cordially invited to attend. (Picture by Barbra E. Wackerbarth)

Novel Shower Party Given For Miss Leslie Spurgeon

Mrs. Merv Weaver and Mrs. Lee Eaton of Idlewild Park entertained Friday at an unusual event, a "proxy bridal shower" honoring Miss Leslie Spurgeon of San Francisco. The party was held at the social room of the Glide Baptist Church.

A crepe paper umbrella covered with artificial flowers was suspended over the gift table which was piled high with gaily wrapped packages. The serving table, covered with a linen cloth, was centered with a beautiful arrangement of roses. Bouquets of summer flowers were placed around the room.

After Mrs. Lester Spurgeon, acting in behalf of her absent daughter, opened the many gifts, the evening was spent in visiting.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. H. B. Bradstreet, served lovely refreshments.

Those enjoying the evening were Miss Kenna Lea Anderson, Mrs. Lester Spurgeon, Miss Marijean McClure, Miss Jeanette Spurgeon, Mrs. Gilbert Magness, Miss Donna Weaver, Frances Price, Mrs. N. W. McMillen, Mrs. H. B. Bradstreet, Mrs. G. W. McClure and the hostesses, Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Eaton.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Emil Palm, Lou Ann Jones, Miss Helen Falbe, Mrs. Ray Ballou, Mrs. Syd Comfort, Mrs. Harry Bakken, Miss Karen Weaver, Miss Judy Spurgeon, Mrs. A. Calkins and Miss Mykel Walker.

Miss Spurgeon was graduated from Glendale High School in 1960, was employed at the First National Bank in Roseburg for one year, and has spent the past two years as a teller in the Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco. She will be married in San Francisco Aug. 31 to Richard King, who received his doctor's degree in bio-physics from the University of California at Berkeley, Calif., this year.
