Christian Church Meet Scheduled At Little River

Families from 11 Christian churches of Southern Oregon will gather at the Little River Christian Camp Sunday afternoon and Monday for the fourth annual meeting of the Southern Oregon Association of Christian Churches.

At 4 p.m. on Sunday, Harold Robins of Sutherlin, president of the association, will introduce leaders of camps this past summer. Reports will show that nearly 300 children and youth of Christian Churches used the camp. Over $200 was given toward mission projects.

The evening meal will be served by the camp cook, Evelyn Nickerson of Dillard, Westside Christian Church of Roseburg will assist.

At 7:30 p.m. the evening service will feature Mr. and Mrs. Del Troxell, missionaries to Japan. They will display curios and include pictures of their varied work in urban and rural Japan. This had been scheduled at the First Christian Church in Roseburg but is being moved to the Little River service so that a larger group may be included, according to James Smith, First Christian Church minister.

IT PAYS TO PATRONIZE NEWS-REVIEW ADVERTISERS

Labor Day has become "Work Day" at the camp when members of the participating churches join in making improvements to the grounds and in preparing the facilities for winter. Two hundred persons are expected to take part in this activity.

The most welcome announcement of all will be that the final payment for the property has been made and that plans for the Memorial Chapel and other additions can be accelerated, Smith reported.

Neither Westside Christian Church nor First Christian Church will have evening services in Roseburg this Sunday night as they will be moved to Little River Christian Camp.

Dear Abby!

You Need The Help!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: Why does a woman hang on to a man when she knows he's in love with another woman? I met this man and we became interested in each other. His wife was in the hospital for a month, so nobody could blame him. After his wife came home we continued to see each other, but not so much. I know he loves me because he said so. I wanted to help him bring things to a head, so I called up his wife, pretending to be a third party, and told her all about her husband and myself. I gave her my name and address in case she wanted to check. She said she wasn't interested in anything I had to say. I hear she is back in the hospital again. Should I visit her there and have a woman-to-woman talk with her?

TIED OF WAITING
 DEAR TIED: You rank high on my list of predatory women. Someone should put a bounty on your kind. And I'm afraid in this case, the wrong woman is in the hospital.

DEAR ABBY: How old do you think I should be before I can (1) Wear the kind of make-up I want to wear? (2) Go in cars with boys? (3) Pick out my own clothes? My mother and I fuss about this all the time. I would like your opinion.

"SOMEBODY"
 DEAR "SOMEBODY": Every girl must live by the rules set down for her. If she is lucky enough to have a mother, she should listen to her mother. I could tell you what MY regulations would be for a daughter, but it wouldn't help you because I'm not your mother.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to be married in two months. My mother dug up her grandmother's wedding gown and she wants me to wear it. I tried it on and it is still in very good condition, but it looks so old-fashioned! Some very fashionable people will be attending my wedding and I would rather have a new wedding gown. Am I wrong? It's not a matter of money because my father can well afford to buy me a new one.

MIXED EMOTIONS
 DEAR MIXED: An heirloom wedding gown is considered VERY fashionable — and the older the better! Most girls would give their blue garters for the opportunity to be married in their great grandmother's gown, but if you can't see it, buy a new one.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BEEN HAD:" If you don't mind the publicity, you could take him to court and probably get some of your money back. And in the future, young lady, I advise you to tell him that from now on all he can count on is his fingers!

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
