

Farm Safety Program Due

Paul W. Shepard, farm safety representative for the state of Oregon Industrial Accident Commission, was in Roseburg earlier this week in the interest of inaugurating a farm safety program in Douglas County.

He stated he was requesting that farm safety groups be organized and that they put on farm safety programs between Oct. 15 and the busy spring months.

Safety kits with information on setting up complete programs are being sent out to vocational agriculture instructors and others connected with farm activities.

He stated that safety model building has been added to the 1964 State Fair awards list. The models should show something pertaining to critical moments in farm accidents, accompanied by a card telling circumstances leading up to the accident.

Farming, by law, is no hazardous, so the Industrial Accident Commission has no jurisdiction. The safety program being introduced is of an educational nature.

METHODIST MEN MEET

The Rev. Ted Shirakawa, associate minister of the Roseburg First Methodist Church, gave a talk on church missions at the recent meeting of the Methodist Men's Club held at the church. Shirakawa's talk included comments on religion as it exists in Japan today.

A dinner served by William Kisinger preceded the meeting.

Melrose 4-H'er To Benefit From Horse Award At Fair

A new feature has resulted from this year's Douglas County Fair that may have an impact on horsemanship activities of 4-Hers in the area, according to the county 4-H office.

For the first time, winner of the Glendale Kindergarten Has Openings Available

There is still room for further registration in the Glendale Christian Kindergarten which is scheduled to begin on Sept. 3 at the Glendale Assembly of God Church. According to the Rev. Robert Hutchinson, pastor of the sponsoring church, the classes follow a prescribed state curriculum and are open to all area youngsters in the kindergarten age bracket.

Classes will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. on regular school days. Registration may be made by calling the Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, director, or Miss Kay Hubler, teacher.

OAKLAND CHANGE MADE

William Ambrose is taking the place of Darrell Langvin as principal of Oakland High School. It was reported in Thursday's News-Review that Ambrose was replacing Cecil Barnett as principal.

Barnett is superintendent of schools at Oakland.

Grand Champion 4-H horse award in conformation will benefit from free breeding with a prize-winning registered stud horse.

This year's winner, a four-year-old half Arabian, half quarter horse mare, "Goldie," owned by 4-Her Bob Reinert, 15, of Melrose, will in addition to her championship ribbons, benefit from breeding with "Bay Toad," quarter horse owned by Mr. and Mrs. Zip Lemke of Sutherlin. Bay Toad, sired by Thadius Toad out of Dame Miss Laurel, in July of this year was junior champion at the Yreka, Calif., Quarter Horse Show and in August was reserve grand champion at a quarter horse show in Grants, Pa.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Lemke, the free breeding award was instituted by them in line with such awards offered at other fairs throughout the state. It is the first time such an award has been made at the Douglas County Fair, and according to the Lemkes, it is hoped that similar such offers will encourage young horsemen to improve their stock.

Young Reinert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinert of Melrose, is a member of the Silver Spurs, 4-H horsemanship club, and has been active in horsemanship circles for the past two years. Reinert trained his prize-winning mount without assistance from adults.
