Drain Couple Married Aug. 19

Bouquets of white gladioli and blue hydrangeas decorated the Drain Methodist Church for the wedding of Sady Yvonne Frank and Timmy Ray Main. The Rev. Norman Few, Creswell, Presbyterian minister, performed the 7 p.m. double ring ceremony Aug. 19 before 110 relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stig Nelson, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Main. Both families reside in Drain.

The bride was beautiful in her floor-length gown of lace on taffeta. The bodice was decorated with sequins and pearls and styled with a drop waistline and short sleeves. She wore long gloves and an elbow-length veil of illusion, held in place with a crown of pearls, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses with a purple orchid in the center. She was escorted and given in marriage by her father.

Linda Boggs was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Peggy Main, sister of the bridegroom, and Laine Nelson, sister of the bride. All wore light blue brocade gowns and carried nosegays of blue carnations.

Gary Main was best man for his

Tenmile Couple Is Married At Home Rites In Dillard

A beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Gentry in Dillard at 8 p.m. on Aug. 10 when their granddaughter, Judy Elaine Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Preston of Tenmile, became the bride of Delano Morris Sherman, son of Mrs. Erta Sherman of Tenmile.

The Rev. William Turner of the Winston Missionary Baptist Church performed the impressive single ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white taffeta with an elbow-length veil of white nylon net held in place by a tiara sprinkled with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations with white ribbon streamers.

Sandra Cross was maid of honor and wore a pink street-length dress and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Clayton Sherman, brother of the bridegroom. Arrangements of pink and white gladioli and dahlias were used to decorate the rooms.

Mrs. Wayne Powers, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of gifts. The guest book was presented by Susan Preston, sister of the bride.

A reception was held on the patio immediately following the wedding. After the bride and bridegroom cut the first slice of cake, the cake brother, and ushers were Brad Cole and Gary Wilson.

Tanja Nelson of Tenmile, cousin of the bride was flower girl. Miles Franklin was ring bearer.

Mrs. William Gasser was organist and accompanied soloist, Eileen Hutchins, when she sang "God Gave Me You" and "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride chose a beige suit, accented with the orchid from her bridal bouquet for the couple's wedding trip along the coast to Santa Cruz, Calif.

The bride's mother wore a rose sheath dress with jacket and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a light pink jacketed sheath dress with bone-colored accessories. Both wore white rose corsages.

The bride's parents gave a wedding reception following the ceremony in the Fireplace Room at the church. It was beautifully decorated with bouquets of blue and white gladioli and blue candles to follow the wedding theme.

The bride's table was centered by a beautifully decorated tiered cake of hearts topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Sixteen Nelson of Tenmile, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Mae Main, Creswell, grandmother of the bridegroom, poured coffee, and Mrs. Oiva Linna, from Roseburg, poured punch.

The bride has lived in Drain two years and the bridegroom 11 years. Both attended Drain High School. He is employed as a car loader at the Smith River Lumber Co. in Drain and they will make their home at 415 Date St. in South Drain.
