

A CHARMING GARDEN TEA has been announced by the Roseburg Woman's Club board members to be held Sept. 10 between 2:30 and 5 p.m. at the Meredith Wilson home at 415 W. Elizabeth. Members and their invited guests and friends of the club, either newcomers to Roseburg or who would like to learn more about the activities of the club and its various monthly programs, are invited to enjoy the affair. Pictured above seated are Mrs. B. W. Maddox, Mrs. Claude Baker and Mrs. Paul Abeel. Standing are Mrs. Sig Fett, Mrs. V. W. Wallace, Mrs. J. R. Anlauf, Mrs. E. G. Kohlhogan and Mrs. M. L. Fletcher. Below are Mrs. R. Heiner, Mrs. Foy Hibbard, Mrs. Meredith Wilson, Mrs. Lois Burton and Mrs. Clarson Chitwood. (News-Review Photos).

Garden Tea Announced

Mrs. Meredith Wilson was hostess recently in her home at 415 W. Elizabeth to a planning group of officers and executive board members of the Roseburg Woman's Club.

A garden tea is planned for Sept. 10 between 2:30 and 5 p.m. at the Wilson home for all members and their invited guests. The occasion is also for all friends of the club who are either newcomers to Roseburg or who would like to learn more about the activities of the club and its various monthly programs.

Heading the planning group is Mrs. Ruth Heiner, vice president and membership chairman. Other officers and executive board members meeting to plan for the tea were Mrs. Clarson Chitwood, executive secretary; Mrs. Foy Hibbard; corresponding secretary; Mrs. Meredith Wilson, treasurer; Mrs. Lois Burton, house board chairman; Mrs. E. G. Kohlhogan; Mrs. V. W. Wallace, Mrs. J. R. Anlauf, Mrs. Sig Fett, Mrs. Paul Abeel, Mrs. M. L. Fletcher, Mrs. Claude Baker and Roseburg's 86-year old "sweetheart," Mrs. B. W. Maddox, a Roseburg Woman's Club member for 62 years.

Mrs. James Campbell, fine arts chairman, states that she and her committee have completed arrangements with Max Reisinger, University of Oregon Assistant dean of music for the 10-week music series which will be presented this fall by the club. The first program Oct. 2 at 10 a.m. at the clubhouse will feature Dr. Robert Hladky, associate professor of cello at the university.

Other committee members are Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Clyde Carstens and Mrs. Herman Bauer. They will be co-hostesses at the Sept. 10 garden tea and expect to have the program calendar for the music series available at the tea.

Mrs. T. W. Goodwin, club president, plans to announce some of the regular monthly programs at the tea.

Grove 51 Meet To Be Monday

The Woodmen Circle Umpqua Grove 51 meeting regularly scheduled on Sept. 2, has been postponed to Sept. 9 at 8 p.m. in the Evergreen Grange Hall. Election of officers will be held and all members are urged to be present for this important meeting. Members' birthdays occurring in the past three months will also be observed.

Winners Told

The Myrtle Creek Club of the American Contract Bridge League met Monday evening at the Nutt Shell Cafe. Winners were Mrs. James Doyle and Mrs. Walter Fisher, first; Mrs. Ray Carriac and Mrs. L. E. McClintock, second; Mrs. E. S. Wilkey and Mrs. B. O. Bordeaux, third, and Mrs. W. C. Dixon and Mrs. R. E. Bell, fourth. Those desiring more information or assistance in securing partnership are asked to call Mrs. E. S. Wilkey, Canyonville.

INTERESTING VISITORS in Roseburg the last week from Long Beach, Calif., were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brice and sons, Kerry, 16, and Gavin, 12, pictured above, who were accompanied here by the Brices' youngest son, Rory, 11, who was not present for the picture. The family visited Mrs. Brice's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Henry

Kirschman, and family. While here they enjoyed trips to Crater and Diamond lakes, to points of interest up the North Umpqua and to surrounding areas. Brice is a special investigator in the district attorney's office in Long Beach. (News-Review Photo)

Reception Is Enjoyed

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Miller entertained at a charming reception Tuesday evening at their beautiful home in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. J. Harley Smith on their 25th wedding anniversary. Gladoli and asters formed the attractive decorative motif for the occasion. A very lovely anniversary cake graced the buffet table.

Enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Miller in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the former's sister, Miss Ethel Miller, who is visiting here from Gunnison, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Huston, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Laney, Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abeel, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilshire, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Vondis Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gilliland and Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport.

Delightful Party Held Wednesday

A delightful no-host swimming party and potluck dinner was enjoyed at the Hawthorne Pool Wednesday evening by members of the firm Geddes, Richmond, Walton and Felker and their husbands and wives.

Enjoying the delightful affair were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. James Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Felker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Helliwell, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Andes and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Marcy.

Barbecue Picnic Held At Coles'

A barbecue picnic was held recently at the Harold Cole home on Coles Road in Oakland, the occasion being the arrival of T. Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Fraer and family, recently of Adana, Turkey.

Sgt. Fraer was stationed in Turkey with his family for two years, and their sons, Bruce and Joe Sandy went to school there.

Those present were Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Dorothy Bonine and children, Sodie, Bob, Carrie and Eldon, all of Springfield; and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Millott of Oakland.

The Fraers were house guests of the Coles for a week.

Watermelon Feed Enjoyed At Vets'

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scheneman, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wirfs and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bartlett, members of Douglas Barracks 176 and Auxiliary, assisted Richard Hogan, hospital chairman of the local barracks, Veterans World War I, at a watermelon treat for veterans at the Roseburg Veterans Hospital.

Mrs. K. Kirk Club Hostess

Mrs. Kenneth Kirk entertained her bridge club at a charming 12:30 noon luncheon Wednesday at her beautiful home in Laurelwood. Dahlias formed the attractive decorative motif for the lace-covered serving table and the room bouquets.

Enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Kirk were Mrs. P. C. Quizenberry, Mrs. W. L. Tozer, Mrs. Robert H. Savage, Mrs. Glenn Gibbons, Mrs. Carl M. Teague and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, members, and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter, a guest.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours with Mrs. Porter winning the high score and Mrs. Tozer the second high score.

Episcopal Meet Will Feature U Of O Lecturer

Guest lecturer Wednesday at the first fall meeting of the Women of St. George's Episcopal Church will be Mrs. Wallace (Ellen) Baldinger of the University of Oregon. Communion will be held at 10:30 a.m. and the business meeting will follow. Luncheon will be served at 12 sharp, and Mrs. Baldinger's talk will follow immediately afterward.

Last year Mrs. Baldinger gave a series of art lectures for members of the Roseburg Woman's Club.

The public is welcome to attend the Wednesday session, but in order to do so must make a luncheon reservation not later than Monday before noon by calling Mrs. T. W. Bernard at 673-5122.

Mrs. Baldinger has just returned from a trip to Europe, and title of her lecture will be "Cathedrals and Religion of the Countries of Europe." In conjunction with her talk, she will show slides which she took on her recent trip. The slides are new and this will be their first public showing.
