

G. Valley Folks Host Relatives

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carlson and daughter, Eileen, of Portland and their uncle, Henry Snyder of Coos Bay, stopped in Garden Valley recently to visit their cousins, Adam Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Schneider and Marvin. Henry Snyder was on his way back to Ohio where he and Adam Schneider had resided in their boyhood years.

Mrs. Sig Madson took her daughter, Anne, to Salem this week where she will attend the state School for the Deaf. Mrs. Madson will visit the remainder of the week with her sister.

Dale Potocz of Bend came to Garden Valley this week to take home his wife and daughter, Susan. They had been spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Madson.

Mrs. Robert Kennedy and son, David, of San Jose, Calif., spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn. Her husband, Dr. Kennedy, and the other two children visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy at Redding, Calif. Dr. Kennedy has established his own veterinary hospital in San Jose.

Carol Dunn, former resident, is clerking in a large dry goods store in Denver, Colo. She made her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Jack and Joanne Rone, until the birth of their new baby, Jeff Richard, weighing 7 pounds, joined two sisters on Aug. 19.

Gertrude Capelette of San Gabriel, Calif., is visiting her niece, Mrs. Charles Dunn.

Mrs. Ed Johnson of Stockton, Calif., has returned home after visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Walters. Mrs. Johnson came especially to attend funeral services for her friend, Mrs. J. T. Brill of Myrtle Creek.

La Brie Ritchie and sons, Mike and Bobby, have returned to their home in Oxnard, Calif., after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie.

Janet Ritchie has returned to her home in San Francisco after a two-week visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie.

Winston Man Takes Course

By PHEBE MCGUIRE

Elmer Schweitzer, agent for State Farm Insurance in Winston, has returned to his home after a week's stay in Seattle where he attended the Course 3 School sponsored by State Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Villerup and family with Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCullum and family and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crawford spent a recent weekend at Winchester Bay. They enjoyed a picnic at Light-house State Park and fishing, which they reported as very successful.

Glenn Villerup of Dillard with Elmer Crawford and Charles McCullum drove to the coast over the weekend to fish and return to Dillard with the former's boat for the winter.

Bill Winston, Stanley E. Sharp, formerly of Roseburg and now residing in Scottsdale, Ariz., and Dan Kennerly flew to Fields on Friday where they met Gene Krewson and son, Gregory, for a weekend of bird hunting. They returned to Winston and their respective homes Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner of Seattle have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Ulah Winston.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grensky and sons, Edie, Teddy and David spent Sunday and Monday at Lemolo Lake for an outing and horse-back riding. They also spent time at Diamond Lake and Crater Lake and stayed overnight at Klamath Falls. While at Lemolo Lake they visited George Kughn, former owner of the Winston Model Market, who now operates a store in the area as well as several cabins.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Viola Kendall and her son, Dale, and daughter, Wanda, in Dillard recently included the former's mother, Mrs. Olive Lowry of Norton, Kans., who spent the past two weeks here; Mrs. Kendall's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kendall of Madras, who spent a weekend; a son, Johnnie Kendall of Portland; son, Bennie, a marine stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif.; and a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hodges of Madras. Mrs. Lowry accompanied the Allen Kendalls to Madras before taking a bus to return to her home in Kansas.
