Dear Abby!

Not For Real!
—By ABIGAIL VANBUREN—

DEAR ABBY: I've got a good husband. He doesn't drink. He brings home his whole pay check and is really good with the kids. And he never goes anywhere without me. But he never gives me a compliment. If I get a new dress or change my hair style, he doesn't even notice. If I ask him how I look, he says, "Just fine."

Abby, it sure gets depressing living with a man who doesn't pay any attention to the little things.

DEAR DOWNHEARTED: A husband who takes as good care of the BIG things as yours does can be forgiven if he overlooks a few "little things." What greater compliment can a man pay his wife than to come home (sober) every night with his pay check and play with his children and stay with his wife? Lady, you've got a lifelong date with an angel. Pooh pooh on praise!

DEAR ABBY: My wife came from a family where the one who yelled the loudest got the floor. I knew this when I married her, but I didn't think it would show up so strong in her. It is very embarrassing to have my wife butt in to make some correction or addition when I am relating an incident or telling a story. She is a good person otherwise, but this bad habit is deplorable. What do you suggest? She does this with everybody.

BUTT IN ON DEAR BUTT IN ON: First, tell your wife privately that when you or anyone else—is talking, she should not "butt in." Explain that it makes her appear rude and inconsiderate. Ask her to try to overcome it, and offer to "help" her with a subtle reminder such as, "Pardon me, Darling, I believe someone else was talking," should she forget. And she won't forget nearly so often.

DEAR ABBY: I'm writing to you for some advice. My 15-year-old daughter is too fat. She weighs 190 pounds. Many doctors have tried to get her weight down, but none of them did any good. Please, Abby, tell me what to do.

A WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: NO ONE can help your daughter if she refuses to help herself. When SHE writes to tell me that her weight is HER problem, I will tell her what to do.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LINDA: You are mistaken. No matter how many more years of "education" you have had than your parents, they will always be 25 years ahead of you in experience. Listen, dear, and learn.

Lovely gifts were presented to Cindy from her mother and grandmother, Mrs. A. L. Sevall and Mrs. L. P. McAnaney; the bridegroom-elect's mother and sister, Mrs. James E. Smith and Mrs. Richard Taylor; Eugene; Mrs. L. K. Cornwell, Mrs. James H. Harris, Mrs. Clifford Aten, Mrs. Bruce Hetrick, Mrs. C. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Joe Sojka, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Merrill Keller, Mrs. Lloyd Shelton, Mrs. J. W. Wilder, Mrs. Robert Elliott and the hostess, Mrs. Nevue.

Council Luncheon Planned By Club

Roseburg Toastmistress Club met this week at the Grand Jury room of the courthouse, and made final plans for the council luncheon to be held Sunday at Oak Tree Inn.

"Design for the Future" was the theme for the meeting. Margaret Clay gave the inspiration and flag salute. Table topics were in charge of Lois Krug. Maple Lyons was toastmistress, and she introduced Iva Scheppe, the new education chairman, who outlined books available for study and asked for suggestions on courses of study. Jackie Davidson gave her interesting ice-breaker speech.

Following an all-member evaluation, the closing thought was given by Frances Luoma.

Grove Breakfast Given On Sunday

Mrs. George Cornish, assisted by Alice Christensen and Bella Holm, entertained at a welfare breakfast at the former's home in Roseburg Sunday morning for members of the Woodmen Circle Umpqua Grove 31 of Winston and their families and friends.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID HANSON, above, were united in marriage Aug. 29 at Community Presbyterian Church in Oakland by the Rev. Neil Brown. The bride, Constance Ann Allen, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Oakland, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Hanson of Villisca, Iowa. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Constance Allen Now Mrs. Hanson

At an 8 p.m. candlelight ceremony at the Community Presbyterian Church in Oakland, Constance Ann Allen, of Oakland, became the bride of David Carl Hanson of Villisca, Iowa. The Rev. Neil Brown performed the double ring ceremony Aug. 29. Dr. H. M. Noble, retired minister from Port Orford, gave two prayers. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Oakland. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Hanson of Villisca.

Decorations in the church were done by Mrs. Calvert Bowles. Yellow and white gladioli were used in the sanctuary, and orchid and white ribbons ornamented the pews.

The organist, Mrs. Ruth Bridges, played interlude music and accompanied Mrs. Lucretia Ross who sang "Love Thoughts" and "Wedding Prayer."

Robert Allen gave his daughter in marriage. She was lovely in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace applied to a full skirt of peau de soie. The square, scalloped neckline was accented with tiny pearls. Her veil, of silk illusion with scalloped laced edging, was held by a small pearl half crown designed and made by the bride's mother.

The bride's bouquet was of white gladioli with a white orchid corsage, later used as a going-away corsage.

Maid of honor was Ruth Pulley, cousin of the bride. Kathy Dieckman was bridesmaid. Both were clad identically in street-length dresses of yellow lace, designed with full skirts. Their bolero jackets had three-quarter-length sleeves. Their bouquets were of yellow and white gladioli on white fans.

Lt. Ronald Wickstrom of Orange, Calif., was best man for the bridegroom. Ushering was done by two cousins of the bride, Frank Kopp and Gary M. Rae, the latter of Eugene.

Patty and Mickey Allen, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters. More than 100 guests were present.

Melrose Picnic Fetes Navy Man

Mr. and Mrs. Odie Stringer and children of Melrose entertained at a picnic at their home recently in compliment to their son, Don, who was home for 10 days on U. S. Navy leave.

Present were Don and his friend, Jerry Bitterman; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Husley and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lane and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Verlie Welch and two boys and Betty, Marvin and Mildred Stringer.

Brown-Robbins Marriage Lovely Event Of August

A very lovely wedding took place at the Christian Church in Sutherland Aug. 10 when Miss Margie Robbins of Sutherland became the bride of James Brown of Oakland.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Robbins.

Given in marriage by her father, Al Robbins, the bride was beautifully gowned in a ballerina-length white satin dress topped in lace. Her bouquet was of white and lavender flowers. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a white pearl headpiece. Helen Whiting, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a lavender sheath dress. Her veiled headpiece was secured by a matching lavender bow. She carried a

Timber Town Duplicate Club To Sponsor Series

Timber Town Duplicate Bridge day, Sept. 23. Players may participate in the series or disregard it in the weekly play, which will in no way be affected by the series. Series tournaments are in addition to routine weekly games and offer an opportunity for players to win additional fractional or Master Point awards. The series will consist of seven Monday evening games excluding Master Point and Special Events nights. Only six best scores of the seven will be considered in determining the winners. It will be an individual tournament. Each game counted must be played with a different partner. Winners will be determined by the fractional point method. Top score holders will later be offered the opportunity to play in a series winners play off for which there will also be awards.

Thursday evening Timber Town winners for the Master Point play were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Green, first; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fillmore, second; Mrs. E. H. Hamilton and Walter Ulrich, third, and Mrs. James Hughes and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp, fourth.
