

1. To the parents who want their children to stay out of the police station: "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." (PROV. 22:6)
2. To the man who never finished high school, yet is eager to emerge in a highly competitive field: "The race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong." (ECCLES. 10:11)
3. To the person who wonders if the many people of the world can ever live in harmony: "The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid." (ISA. 11:6)
4. To the man who thinks everything and everybody has a price: "Man shall not live by bread alone." (MATT. 4:4)
5. To the honest, sincere young man who just never seems to get anywhere and doesn't know why: "Be ye therefore wise as serpents and harmless as doves." (MATT. 10:16)
6. To the man of vision who constantly runs afoul of committees that seem to exist only to frustrate him: "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house." (MATT. 13:57)
7. To the man who can't handle money, who is about to turn over his family's finances to his wife who can't handle money either: "And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch." (MATT. 18:14)
8. To the man who has made a million and still insists on getting to the office at 8 o'clock in the morning: "And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry." (LUKE 12:19)
9. To the employer who wonders why his polite, attractive, well-dressed employees never come up with any ideas: "Judge not according to the appearance." (JOHN 12:24)
10. To the little clique that snubs other people for religious, racial, educational, professional or economic reasons: "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." (HEB. 13:2)

The Bible gives hope to the frightened mother sitting up with her feverish child... it gives courage to the mariner riding out a storm... it has seen civilizations rise and fall

... it has helped a terrified soldier to suffer his wounds in a strange land among strangers... it has seen superior people grovel in the dust... it has seen the tyrant trip on his sword... it has seen humble men rise to acts of heroism... it has seen the headlines of History reduced to mere footnotes of Time

... it has trudged with the murderer to the gallows... it has walked with the bride to the altar... it has inspired the musician... it has comforted the miner's widow... in sea chest, saddlebag and glove compartment it has found its way onto every mile of the earth's surface and will find its way to the moon... it knew your father's father and will know your children's children... it inspired an awkward man named Lincoln to speak the timeless words of our land

... in each year of its existence it has been the most modern, most helpful of all books... it can enrich your every emotional experience, it can ease your daily problems. Why don't you read it? Tonight. Tomorrow. And always. (By I. M. Nickerson, Inc.)

Two Great Days With The Bible
September 21 and 22, 1963. REGISTER NOW!

Registration Headquarters: FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Roseburg.

The purpose of this program is to strengthen the interest and use of the Bible in our churches and in our homes. All Church members and non-church members are cordially invited to attend and help bear witness to the importance of the Bible in the life of our Nation and community.

The Rev. Donn D. Moomaw, First Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, Calif., will speak at the Saturday Men's Breakfast, The Youth Rally Saturday evening and Festival Of Faith, Sunday Evening.
