

Canyonville Claims 20-19 Victory Over Camas Valley

Crucial PAT runs by Steve Gardner provided the host Canyonville Tigers with a thrilling 20-19 non-league eight-man grid win over the Camas Valley Hornets Friday.

Gardner, a powerful 170-pound sophomore, dove into the end zone for the extra point following each of the two second half TDs, thus providing the Tigers with their winning margin. Throughout the afternoon Gardner had paced Canyonville's rugged ground game, carrying the ball 22 times for 99 yards, including a one-yard plunge for the first six-pointer of the second half.

The host team broke the ice in the first period when Mike Heath dove on a fumbled punt in the end zone.

Camas Valley came back late in the period when Terry Volkman returned a punt 23 yards to the Canyonville 19-yard line. By the end of the period the Hornets were resting inside the one-foot marker, and on the first play of the second half Terry Buel scored on a quarterback sneak.

After the halftime intermission the Tigers came on strong, taking the opening kick-off and marching 71 yards on 19 plays. Gardner provided the scoring punch, then ran for the PAT. The vital play of the long march was Roger Kimble's 24-yard jaunt around right end on a third and 10 situation at the 36-yard line.

Once again the Hornets followed suit, going 67 yards in three plays. The 66-yard pass-run combination on a short screen pass from Buel to Volkman gave the Hornets the evening. Mike Priest ran for the extra point to tie the score.

Canyonville's final tally came early in the fourth quarter on a 54-yard sustained drive with John Ringen carrying over from inside the one-yard line. The TD was set up on a 31-yard pass from Heath to George Muetzel. Gardner plunged over the goal line for the all-important PAT.

The Hornets took the kick from the Tigers and marched downfield for another TD at this point, with Volkman charging around left end for the final five yards. When the PAT run was stopped short by the determined Tiger defenders the scoring was ended for the day.

Ducks, Beavers Favored In Grid Openers Tonight

PORTLAND (UPI) — Oregon's speedy Ducks and the tough Penn State Nittany Lions clash in a football opener for both teams at Multnomah Stadium tonight. Game time is 8 p.m.

More than 30,000 persons are expected for the inter-sectional game.

The Ducks, spearheaded by All-American senior halfback Mel Renfro, will be seeking revenge for a 41-12 defeat suffered to the Nittany Lions in the 1960 Liberty Bowl game. It was the school's only previous grid meeting.

Oregon coach Len Casanova plans to open with Bob Berry at quarterback, Larry Hill and Renfro at halfbacks and Lu Bain at fullback.

His line will be composed of Dick Inwalle and Rich Schwab at ends, Milt Kanehe and Lowell Dean at tackles, Dave Wilcox and Ron Jones at guards and Oliver McKinney at center.

Oregon State Beavers minus the services of graduated All-American quarterback Terry Baker—open their football season against the Utah Redskins tonight.

The Beavers are rated as two-touchdown favorites. A crowd of 20,000 is expected.

Gordon Queen, a junior who understudied the Heisman Trophy-winning Baker last season, is scheduled to open at quarterback for Oregon State.

Coach Tommy Prothro also will start Dan Espalin or Leroy Whittle at left halfback, Tom Osmer at fullback and Booker Washington at fullback.

The Beavers' line will be made up of All-American candidate Vern Burke and Len Frketch at ends, Joe Bonilla and Rich Koepfer at tackles, Ron Doman and Tom Holley at guards and Hoyt Keeney at center.

It is the first meeting in football of Oregon State and Utah since 1952.

Ruldolph Leading At Portland Open

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Mason Ruldolph, a chunky 29-year-old southerner now playing out of Lehigh Acres, Fla., had a chance today to win his first professional golf tournament in four years.

Sixteenth on the 1963 Professional Golfers' Association money list with $23,820, Ruldolph nevertheless has been an also-ran since he captured the Golden Gate Open in San Francisco in 1959.

But he turned in his best score of the year Friday in the second round of the $30,000 Portland Open — a 64 to give him a two-day total of 133, 11 under par and three strokes ahead of the field.

Trailing Ruldolph at 136 were George Knudson (69-67), Tommy Jacobs (69-67) and Dave Hill (70-66).

Bakerless Beavers Expect Another Good Grid Year

This is another in a series of dispatches dealing with the 1963 prospects of major West Coast college football teams.

BY GORDON RICE
CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Talk about Oregon State's football prospects this autumn center more around a player who isn't here than on the 26 veterans who are.

That one, of course, is Terry Baker, the All-America quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner drafted No. 1 last winter by the Los Angeles Rams.

Baker guided the Beavers to nine wins in 11 games last fall, including a 6-0 victory over Villanova in the Liberty Bowl.

Despite the loss of his team leader, coach Tommy Prothro expects to produce another winner this fall. His assets include the nation's top pass-catcher last year, 25 other lettermen and a plentiful crop of promising newcomers.

Gordon Queen, a junior, apparently has inherited Baker's job. Queen completed four touchdown passes last year in the few times he saw action and his throwing has been outstanding in practice sessions. Back of him are sophomores Warren Woodworth and Marv Crowston.

Prothro's winged-T now has a flanker back instead of a wing-back after a mid-winter overhaul. That job has been won by a sophomore, Tim Osmer of San Jose, Calif.

The Beavers are two deep in vets elsewhere in the backfield with Dan Espalin and LeRoy Whittle at left half and Booker T. Washington and Bruce Williams at fullback.

Top man at end is Vern Burke, who set NCAA records by catching 69 passes for 1,007 yards last fall. The other end could be Len Frketch, Doug McDougal or Scott Miller, each a letterman.

Prothro has two experienced tackles in Joe Bonilla (218) and Rich Koepfer (234), but may lack depth. Ron Doman (188) and Tom Holley (215), moved from tackle, are the guards. Jerry Neil (219), counted to bolster the guard position because of a knee injury.

At center the Beavers have Hoyt Keeney (211), converted fullback Dick Ruhl (192) and letterman Doug Suckling (211).

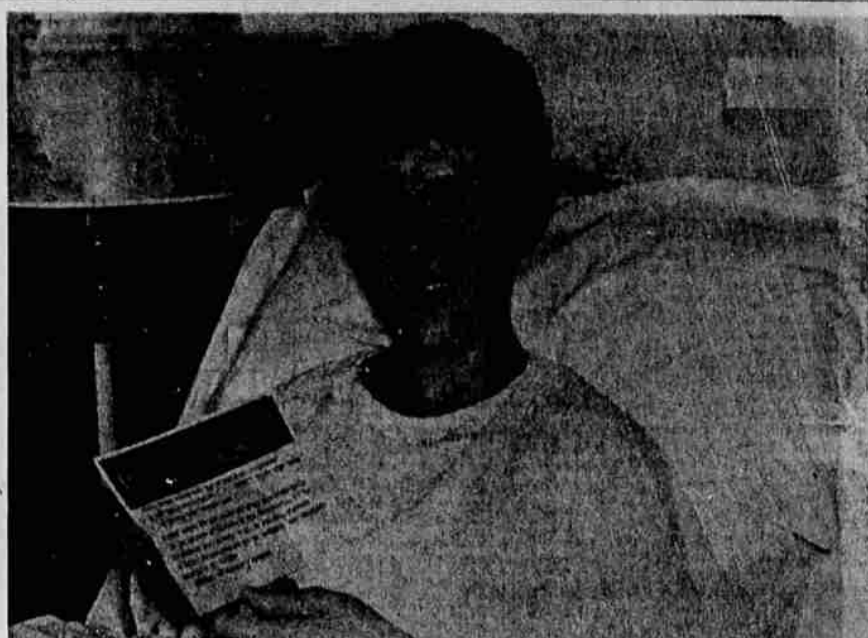

The Beavers open the season tonight at Utah and then take on, in order, Colorado, Baylor, Washington, Washington State, Syracuse, Stanford, Indiana, Southern California and Oregon.
