

Dear Abby!

She's In A Spin!

—By ABIGAIL VANBUREN—

DEAR ABBY: I am 29 and am married for the sixth time. I know that makes me sound like a terrible person, but I'm really not. I married my third husband twice. My problem is I am still in love with my fifth husband. I lived with him longer than with any of the others (four years) and I loved him with all my heart. He kept accusing me of still being in love with my ex-husbands, first one and then another. I couldn't take it any longer, so I divorced him. The day my divorce became final I married the lawyer who got me my divorce. I don't love him, Abby. I only married him because I am afraid to stay alone at night. How can I get my fifth husband back? He is now going with my younger sister. I know it is only because she reminds him of me.

DEAR MIXED UP: After six trips to the altar and five to the divorce court, you are not likely to take my advice—which I am reluctant to give. Forget your numbers game and make No. 6 your No. 1 for life.

DEAR ABBY: We have a nice-looking 16-year-old daughter who has never given us any trouble. She helps her mother and has all ways brought home good report cards. She has a boy friend who is almost 18. They have gone together for almost a year. He is a good kid, quiet like our daughter. Lately he has been bringing his laundry here (underwear, shirts and socks) for my daughter to wash and iron. I told my Mrs. this was all wrong. She says our daughter is showing the boy what a good little wife she can be. I say, what's the hurry? Who is wrong?

A SAD DAD
DEAR DAD: You're not your daughter is generous to a fault, and her mother isn't helping matters much. Your daughter should wait until she's married to show what a "good little wife" she can be.

DEAR ABBY: Just a few lines to let you know what you did for me. I saw your column on donating your eyes to the blind. My husband said for years he wanted to do it, so I called the Lions Club in Marysville, and my husband, myself and our five children, ages from 4 to 21 are now going to donate our eyes after death. I want to thank you, Abby. I know this is what God would want us to do. Forever grateful.
DONNA MARTIN, HARRISBURG, PENNA.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "E": If you would first forgive yourself, you would find it easier to forgive others.

Glide Schools Set Deer Hunt Closure

All schools in the Glide district will be closed Sept. 20 and Oct. 1 because of the deer hunting season.

According to Supt. Donald Fluke, a similar closure was in effect last year when the opening of hunting season coincided with a visitation of the state School Evaluation Committee to schools in the Glide area.

"Many parents are in the habit of taking their children out of school for those days early in the season," Fluke said, "and largely because of the success of last year's closure, we have scheduled the one this year even though there is no special activity in the district."

According to Mrs. Arthur Selby, correspondent, the ruling will affect teachers as well as students, all of whom may now go hunting without disrupting the regular school schedule.

Wyszynski Accepts Bid To Visit U. S.

WARSAW, Poland (UPI)—Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski, Roman Catholic primate of Poland known for his struggles with the nation's Communist regime, has accepted an invitation to visit the United States, a spokesman for the cardinal said recently.

He did not say when the visit was planned.

In Boston, the chancery of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese said Richard James Cardinal Cushing had extended the invitation last year at the first session of the Ecumenical Council at the Vatican.

(A spokesman for Cardinal Cushing said no definite plans had been made for the visit, but it was expected Cardinal Wyszynski would travel to Boston and then to other U.S. cities.

(Reports from the United States last month had predicted the visit would be made, but not before 1965.)

North's four heart bid was the transfer bid to spades at the four level because the two level transfer is not used after second hand doubles the opening no-trump or bids over it.

This time it worked to perfect.

♥♦♣♠ CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:
South West North East
1.N.T. Pass 3♥ Pass
3.N.T. Pass 4♦ Pass

You, South, hold:
♠A K 5 4 ♥J 2 ♠Q J 9 8 ♠A Q 3

What do you do now?
A—The advanced bid is four spades. This bid clearly shows the ace of spades and interest in a diamond or no-trump slam. You can't be interested in a heart slam because you merely bid three no-trump over three hearts.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Your partner continues with a four no-trump. What do you do now?

Improve your bridge game order your copy of "Win at Bridge With Oswald Jacoby." Just send your name, address, and 50 cents to: Jacoby Bridge, News-Review, P. O. Box 1248, Roseburg, Oregon and a copy will be mailed to you. Or if you prefer, copies may be purchased at the News-Review office.

South went to four spades and West opened the eight of hearts. The nine was played from dummy and East's queen lost to South's ace. A spade lead put West in with the ace and he led a second heart. South won in dummy and entered his hand with the queen of trumps. Then he led the queen of clubs.

West thought awhile. Or at least stopped to count points. He held 15 high card points himself. Dummy had started with seven and East had shown the queen of hearts. This left 16 points unaccounted for and the odds were that South held them. It also was certain that East could not hold more than one point. South was using the 15-17 no-trump as is customary today.

Thus, there was no hope of beating the hand. West hopped up with the ace of clubs and promptly cashed.

Camas Valley Pupil Elect New Officers

Camas Valley High School held its freshman initiation recently. All freshmen students were dressed in strange costumes, girls as boys and boys as girls.

Superintendent O. J. Monger stated there is a slight increase in enrollment this year, last year there were 163 and this year there are 170 over all the school, with the high school having 56 students this year.

A tentative date of Nov. 22 has been set for the school play to be directed by Ted Drake.

There will be no school Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 due to hunting season, these days will be made up later in the year.

Sept. 26 the fifth and sixth graders and their teacher, Harold Kirk, will take a forestry trip under the supervision of Bob Bradley, county extension forester. They will leave the school at 9:15 a.m. and will be back to resume their studies in the afternoon.
