Callers From Many Areas In U.S. Spark Routine Of Forest Glenners

By MRS. R. E. PROCTOR

Forest Glen senior residents in Canyonville continue to have callers from all over the United States. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dinividdie from Moab, Utah, visited Mrs. Mabel Hann last week. Gene Scoville was surprised by a visit from his son, Donald E. Scoville, and family of San Jose, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Wilis A. Shull of Sacramento, Calif., were visitors of Mrs. Helen Stevens early this week.

Fourth floor members gave Mrs. Margaret Shelton a birthday party Friday evening celebrating her 81st birthday. Recent callers on Mrs. Shelton were Mrs. Ruth Franz and Loretta Rush of Roseburg.

A former Myrtle Creek and Tiller resident, the Rev. Lloyd James, now of El Cerrito, Calif., called on the John Hamlins Sunday afternoon. He was accompanied by his host, Harold Gilmore of Myrtle Creek.

Staff Elects Officers

Eleanor Graham was elected president of the Forest Glen Hospital Staff organization at the September meeting held in the nurse's lounge of the Senior Residence.

Mrs. Ernest Pemberton was elected vice president; Sharon Glampe, secretary; and Lucy Jenkins, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chiavaris and David drove to Seattle over the weekend to pick up Ross Chiavares at the airport there. Ross, a Southern Oregon College sophomore, had spent the summer employed by the U. S. Park Service at Mt. McKinley National Park near Fairbanks, Alaska.

Marilyn Chandler, Canyonville fourth grade teacher, spent the weekend in Portland visiting her parents.

Mrs. Alice Gillis-Hobbs of Portland was a house guest recently of the A. R. Bennetts who took her to Coquille over the weekend to visit friends there and at Bandon. Meanwhile, the Bennetts were the guests of the L. L. Bunch's at Lampa Creek. They report the dahlias there spectacular, Sunday, they brought Mrs. Gillis-Hobbs to Roseburg to visit Mrs. Florence Groshong. The Bennetts report Highway 42 much improved on the new stretches, but rough in construction areas. They noted colorful foliage en route.

Church Group Elects

Douglas Wead was elected president of the newly - reorganized Christs Ambassadors of the Gospel Tabernacle in Canyonville, according to the Rev. Claude Malan.

The CA has always been active in Canyonville, but this year is being organized according to the national precepts of the organization. Although most members consist of Canyonville Bible Academy youth, anyone in the Canyonville community is invited to attend meetings each Thursday at 7:45 p.m.

DecAnn Broderson was elected vice president; Karen Flack, secretary; and Joyce Storm, program chairman, the Rev. Malan added.

Powell Threatens Kennedy Measures

RICHMOND, Calif. (UPI)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D - N.Y., chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee said recently he would block further work on President Kennedy's bills in his committee until Congress passes civil rights legislation.

The veteran Harlem congressman, in a speech at Richmond Municipal Auditorium, said Congress has stalled too long on the civil rights bill—and early action could have prevented "the present tragedy in Birmingham."

Powell said he would not convene his committee "for any other legislation whatsoever" until the civil rights package is passed. The committee already has approved a Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) bill and another to withdraw federal funds from any segregated public school district.

"I believe the United States Congress should not entertain any other legislation until it passes out a meaningful civil rights bill now," he said.

However, he predicted that final civil rights legislation "will fall far short of the minimum expectations of the black revolution."

He said the final package probably will not include the proposed ban on discrimination in public accommodations, new powers for the Justice Department to intervene in civil rights suits, or a broadly strengthened FEPC.
