

Roseburg's Beamer Second Offensive Gainer In 5-A-1

Roseburg's Jim Beamer ranks second in total offense and passing in Midwestern League (District 5-A-1) statistics after the completion of two rounds of play.

In both categories the Roseburg ace is following members of the Cottage Grove Lions. Beamer has picked up 93 yards on the ground and 143 yards through the air for a total of 236 yards. Cottage Grove's fleet fullback, Alan Richards, leads this division with 285 yards gained rushing. Mark Henningsgaard, signal caller for the Lions, is following Beamer in total offense with 233 yards, 28 of which has been picked up through the air.

Henningsgaard leads the Midwestern League passers with 12 completions out of 17 attempts for 228 yards and six TDs. Beamer is following closely with 10 completions out of 16 attempts for 143 yards and three six-pointers.

Other leaders include Roger Goude of Marshfield in rushing and Gary Graupensperger, Sheldon, in pass receiving. Goude has gained 107 yards on five carries for a 21.4 average per carry, followed by Richards with 285 yards on 35 carries. Mike Leap, Roseburg's rugged fullback ranks ninth in rushing with 136 yards gained on 28 carries.

Graupensperger has pulled in six passes for 77 yards and one TD for the Irish, followed by three players with five pass receptions. Charles Olds, Cottage Grove's talented end and leading scorer in the district, has caught five passes for 171 yards and three TDs, followed by Roseburg's Gary Heeter and Willamette's John Rossow.

The offensive statistics for District 5-A-1 play, compiled by Paul Harvey III of the Eugene Register Guard, are:
