Auer-Fromdahl Wedding Sept. 7

Patricia Kaye Fromdahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Fromdahl of Roseburg, became the bride of Byron Auer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Auer of Myrtle Creek, at an impressive double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church Sept. 7. The Rev. John E. Adams performed the nuptials at 7:30 p.m. in the presence of 400 guests.

Pink and white gladioli in a large floor basket flanked by candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles formed the setting for the ceremony. Mrs. Homer Grow, organist, played softly as the guests assembled and for soloists, Don Auer, who sang, "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Danny Fromdahl, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a floor length gown of white chiffon designed with long lace sleeves and matching bodice. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white roses. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiny crown. She wore a tiny gold cross centered by a diamond, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mary Giese of Winston was maid of honor and Donna Burks and Nancy Niblett, sisters of the bride; Ricki Cunningham of Roseburg and Pat Desbiens of Seattle, were bridesmaids and wore lavender sheath gowns fashioned with full overskirts of white chiffon to match the matron of honor's. They carried white gladioli bouquets circled by lavender net.

Candlelighters were Mike and Tim Fromdahl, brothers of the bride. Best man was Lyle Bowers and ushers were David Fromdahl, brother of the bride; Jerry Giese, Doug Zitick and Elwyn Jones. Paul and Mike Niblett, nephews of the bride, were ring bearers, and Lauren Niblett, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fromdahl chose a rose lace sheath dress with matching jacket, white pearl necklace and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace sheath dress with matching jacket and taupe accessories.

A wedding reception followed in the church parlors for 250 guests. The bride's table, covered by a white cloth with a lavender net overskirt, was decorated with lavender rosebuds. Pink asters decorated the fireplace.

Mrs. Cliff Ferber, Mrs. Lloyd Fromdahl, aunts of the bride, served the cake. Miss Connie Mugerud, cousin of the bride, served punch, and Miss Jackie Fromdahl, cousin of the bride, poured the coffee. Mrs. Charlotte Roberts presented the guest book and Mrs. Carol Dinwiddie had charge of the many lovely gifts. The rice bags were presented by Sandra Fromdahl and Maria Mulholland. The rice bags were of lavender net with matching bows and pink buds and flowers in miniature white baskets. The bags were fashioned at a dinner party given Sept. 5 by the bride's aunt, Alice Bourne.

Decorations for the reception were arranged by Mrs. Winnie Wilson assisted by Mrs. Ferber and Mrs. Jack Chapman. Mrs. Wilson was in charge of the reception at the church.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Karen Wishart. Out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bowers, Ruth Anderson of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Drews, Linda Cautle, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Drews, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Perrott, Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Capps, Emily, Maudie and Bruce Capps, Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Deets, Marsha and Mary Ann Deets, Langlois; Mr. and Mrs. James Stichter, Gold Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Verne Lundy, Myrtle Point; Carol Dinwiddie, Cozette Anderson, Los Angeles; and Patty Desbiens, Seattle.

A second reception followed at the Elks Club. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. Robert Taylor and Mrs. Alvin Helgeson of Myrtle Creek. The groom's cake was made by Mrs. Helgeson. Mrs. Taylor served from one punch bowl and Mrs. Mary Capps, aunt of the bride, served from the other. Mrs. Alma Deets, aunt of the bridegroom, served the groom's cake. The smorgasbord was presided over by Mary Ann Deets and Emily Capps, cousins of the bridegroom. The entertainment was furnished by Danny Fromdahl, Herbert Hohl, Wayne Tyler and Scott Campbell. The bride and bridegroom led with the first dance.

For traveling the bride chose a gold three-piece knit suit with brown accessories. Following a honeymoon to Lake Tahoe and Reno, Mr. and Mrs. Auer are now residing at 1126 NE Fremont, Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and is a beautician at Roseburg Salon of Beauty. The bridegroom attended school in Myrtle Creek and Roseburg and is a salesman for Hansen Motor Co.

Plans were completed for the annual club benefit card party, and all committees were appointed. The date was set for Oct. 30. All those wishing reservations for the 12:30 luncheon should call 459-2838 or 673-7759.

Van Asten-Robison Rites Take Place In September

On Saturday evening, Sept. 7, at an 8 p.m. double ring ceremony at the Community Presbyterian Church in Oakland, Donna Charlotte Robison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sharp of Oakland, became the bride of Rene Van Asten of Eugene.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Neil Brown, in the presence of close friends and relatives. Church decorations were baskets of pink and white gladioli, arranged by Mr. Jesse Lee.

The bride was beautiful in a quiose sheath and jacket, fashioned of lace over satin by the bride's mother. She wore a pearl tiara, with white shoulder-length veil, elbow-length white gloves and turquoise slippers. The bride's bouquet was a fan around pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spelgatti were the couple's only attendants. Mrs. Spelgatti wore a beige linen sheath with beige accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue lace sheath dress with pink accessories.

Queen To Visit

The monthly meeting of the Zulima South Douglas Daughters of the Nile was preceded by a no-host dinner at the Riddle Sportsman Cafe.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Wayne McCoy, president, where plans were made for the Oct. 11 official visit of Queen Marina Gardiner of Medford.

During the evening, Mrs. Carl Palo of Myrtle Creek showed slides and gave an interesting commentary on her visit to Europe this summer.

Virginia Perry Now Mrs. Bell

Virginia Mae Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Perry of Glendale, and Claude Leroy Bell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bell of Azalea, were married in a single-ring ceremony held at the Olivet Presbyterian Church in Glendale Saturday evening, Sept. 14.

The couple was attended by Glenda Perry of Eugene, niece of the bride, and R. D. Buchanan of Azalea. The Rev. Norman Naugler officiated. Mrs. David Bollinger of Klamath Falls played at the piano.

The sanctuary platform was beautifully decorated with salmon pink and white gladioli in large white baskets. Other decorations included red and pink roses, red carnations, white asters, and Bells of Ireland.

The bride was beautifully attired in a ballerina-length gown of white brocade featuring a scalloped V neckline, short scalloped sleeves and a fitted waist above unpressed pleats. Her brief veil was caught with a dainty tiara of seed pearls. Her jewelry was a pearl pendant necklace. She carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias.

The maid of honor was clad in a flame pink ballerina-length dress detailed with short sleeves, boat neckline, fitted waist and bell skirt. She wore a pill box hat with a veil decorated with butterfly ribbons. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations circled with lace.

The mother of the bride wore a brown and yellow flowered dress with beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a black and white figured suit for the occasion, with blue and pink accessories. With them she wore a pink carnation corsage.

After the ceremony, the newlyweds were honored at a reception held in the social parlors of the church. They cut an exquisitely decorated three-tiered wedding cake. It was frosted in white and accented with dainty garlands of white and pink. The cake was topped with bride and bridegroom figurines, which stood within the circle of double gold wedding rings.

The cake was flanked by crystal double candelabra which held tall pink tapers.

The social rooms were decorated with bouquets of lavender and pink flowers. A large white basket filled with pink, yellow and salmon-colored snapdragons decorated the downstairs foyer.

Mrs. David Bollinger of Klamath Falls and Blanche Coate served the cake; Mrs. Bill Nensell and Betty Campton served the punch; and Mrs. Bill Perry of Eugene, sister-in-law of the bride, poured the coffee. Mrs. George Mill of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Riley Furlong of Grants Pass and Mrs. Jimmy Foster assisted in the kitchen.

Mrs. Robert Askov and Mrs. Terry Cooper of Ashland had charge of the gift table. Jo Ellen Perry, of Eugene, niece of the bride, took care of the guest book, and Leonard Perry, her brother, served as an usher.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Perry and children, Glenda, Jo Ellen, Leonard and Raymond, all of Eugene; Mrs. Riley Furlong, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Enos of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. David Bollinger and Mr. and Mrs. George Mill of Klamath Falls.

After the reception the couple left on a weekend honeymoon at the Lake of the Woods. For her going away dress, Mrs. Bell wore a blue and white striped suit and white accessories, including the white gardenia corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The bride has been a resident of Glendale since she was four years old. She was graduated from the Glendale High School in 1962 and was employed in Salem for several months.

The bridegroom has been an Azalea resident for the past 13 years. He was graduated from the Canyonville High School in 1957 and is employed by the Jantzer Logging Co.

The pair is presently living in Azalea, acting as caretakers for his parents, who are on an extended visit in Cottonwood, Idaho.

Calapooia Club Enjoys Potluck

The Calapooia Women's Club met Wednesday for a potluck dinner served at 12:30. Mrs. Keith Dies and Mrs. G. W. Munson were hostesses. Coral gladioli were used in the decorations.

Mrs. Walter Cutright was a special dinner guest. Mrs. Guy Cole gave several excerpts from the new book, written by Mabel Madison Rader, an 84-year-old Oregonian. Her poem, "The Umpqua," was of particular interest to this group.

Plans were completed for the annual club benefit card party, and all committees were appointed. The date was set for Oct. 30. All those wishing reservations for the 12:30 luncheon should call 459-2838 or 673-7759.

Mrs. L. W. Haines gave a detailed report on the annual garden roundup in Roseburg.
