THE DRAKE HILDEBRANT wedding was an event of Sept. 7 at the Dillard Methodist Church, when Donna Mae Hildebrant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hildebrant of Winston, became the bride of Ed Lynn Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drake of Dillard. The Rev. William A. Gardner officiated.

Donna Hildebrant Now Mrs. Drake

Baskets of orange and white gladioli with ferns decorated the altar of the Dillard Methodist Church for the wedding of Donna Mae Hildebrant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hildebrant of Winston, who became the bride of Ed Lynn Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drake, of Dillard Sept. 7. The Rev. William A. Gardner officiated.

Cheryl Haire was soloist and sang, "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song," accompanied by Margaret McCord on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of lace. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a rhinestone tiara and she carried a nosegay of white carnations centered by a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Erna Jane Manual of Winston, who wore a semi-formal pink chiffon dress and carried pink carnations. Kathy Drake, was bridesmaid, and wore an aqua brocade taffeta dress and carried white carnations. Flower girl was Debbie Osborne, who wore an aqua brocade taffeta dress and carried a basket of rose petals. Ringbearer was Vincent Hildebrant, brother of the bride, who carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Best man was Delano Drake, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were T. Ray Mincher, Lauran Davidson and Larry Smith.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hildebrant wore a blue dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a brown sheath dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore white carnations, tipped pink, corsages.

Editor Speaks At WOM Meeting

The chapter enrollment night of the Roseburg Women of the Moose, held recently, was highlighted by a talk by George Castillo, managing editor of the Roseburg News-Review. He spoke of the value and ways to use the various media of publicity.

June Cawse, sponsored by Pearl Degeberg, was welcomed as a new co-worker and was presented with the "Hands of Friendship" by Academy of Friendship chairman Dorothy Buchanan. This enrollment was dedicated to Hazel Jameson. Table decorations included a centerpiece of fall flowers surrounded by autumn leaves and figurines. A large naaf newspaper on one corner indicated that the publicity committee was in charge of the meeting.

Refreshments were served by Bessie Cornish, Millie Beckwith, Thella Webber, Elizabeth Purdie and Ellen Singer.

TROY PAXTON, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrid Paxton of Oakland, celebrated his first birthday, Sept. 17, with Mr. and Mrs. John Paxton, (grandparents), uncle, Larry Paxton, of The Dalles; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ralph Boyd, and Mr. Boyd, and their children, all of Sutherlin, and his parents.
