

Roseburg Blanks Rugged North Eugene 11, 12-0

By NIEL CELLERS
News-Review Sports Editor

Roseburg's Indians added to the North Eugene Highlanders to their ever growing list of victims Saturday night in a vital Midwestern League grid battle.

The Tribe gridders, after a listless first half, rolled to a methodical, though unimpressive, 12-0 victory. The win gives Roseburg a 4-0 league record and a share of the District 5-A-1 lead with the Cottage Grove Lions.

A spirited defensive effort by the host Highlanders, led by tackles Bill Cooper and Bob Swan, took the Indians by surprise, and late in the third quarter the local power found itself battling for its life.

After playing a scoreless first half, the Indians came to life late in the third period to score the touchdown which put them ahead to stay.

Leading Roseburg's attack was halfback Bob (Smookey) Burgess with 10 carries for 71 yards, an average of 7.1 yards-per-carry. Fullback Mike Leep, who carried 48 yards on 49 carries, made the quarter-back Jim Beamer completed eight of 15 aerial attempts for 112 yards.

Defensively Mike Leep set the pace, being credited with 16 tackles. Jon Burnham and Terry Rudolf each had eight tackles.

Following an exchange of punts early in the third quarter, the Indians began to move. To score the first TD the Tribe marched 77 yards on 11 plays. Burgess started the drive with a four-yard gain. Then on a third down play Beamer hit end Gary Heeter with a 15-yard pass for a first down. A 14-yard pass from Beamer to Doug Matson moved the Indians deeper into North Eugene territory.

Beamer swept left end for three yards and Mike Leep picked up five yards on a draw play. The third down was stopped short, giving the Indians a fourth and two on the Highlanders' 27-yard line.

Keeping the ball on the crucial play, Beamer plowed through the middle of the line for the two yards and the all-important first down.

The ball was moved to the 18-yard marker on a pass from Beamer to Heeter, then on the next play the Indians were penalized 15 yards for illegal use of the hands on offense.

However, the penalty did not stop the Indians as Beamer faded back to pass on the next play, found his receivers covered so took off and galloped 25 yards before being knocked out of bounds on the one-yard line. Mike Leep powered his way over on the next play to put the Indians in front, 6-0, with 3:01 left to play in the period.

In the fourth quarter the Indians traveled 77 yards on six plays for an insurance TD. Taking over when a North Eugene drive bogged down on the Roseburg 33, the Indians wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard again.

Burgess ripped off 12-yards for a first down on the opening play, and Mike Leep went up the middle for two more. A one-yard pass and another 12-yard jaunt by Burgess moved the ball to the North Eugene 40.

Bouncing back after a 3-yard loss, Beamer tossed the ball along to Heeter who was in the clear near the 10-yard marker. Heeter took the pass in stride and raced the remaining yards to paydirt untouched.

The Highlanders, threatened several times during the game, but were never able to capitalize. Roseburg's final play of the first quarter saw the Highlanders hike a punt and take over on the Roseburg 38. Four plays later the home team was to the 23-yard stripe, one-yard short of the first down.

Late in the second quarter North Eugene marched from its own 30 to the Roseburg 24 where a fourth-down pass fell incomplete with 12 seconds showing on the clock. In the second half the Highlanders' deepest penetration was to the Roseburg 33.

Bukich Paces Chicago Bears To Crucial 10-3 NFL Win

By United Press International

Take it from the Chicago Bears and Philadelphia Eagles, whether it's football or baseball, there's nothing like having a good man in the bullpen.

Rudy Bukich of the Bears and King Hill of the Eagles, a pair of journeyman quarterbacks who have been knocking around the National Football League, came off the bench Sunday and turned in winning performances as impressive as Bart Starr, Y. A. Tittle, Frank Ryan and Charlie Johnson.

The Bears came from behind to beat the Baltimore Colts, 10-3, Sunday and the Cleveland Browns defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35-23, Saturday night to extend their spotless records to 4-0.

Starr, Tittle and Johnson each threw three touchdowns passes Sunday to keep the Green Bay Packers, New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals evenly in contention with 3-1 records. The Packers drubbed the Los Angeles Rams, 42-10; the Giants whipped the Washington Redskins, 24-14; and the Cards walloped the Minnesota Vikings, 49-14.

Lions Downed 49ers

Hill's passes helped the Eagles score their first victory of the season as they sent the Dallas Cowboys down to their fourth straight defeat, 24-21, and the Detroit Lions ruined the head coaching debut of the San Francisco Forty Niners' Jack Christiansen with a 26-3 shelling.

The Browns face the Giants next Sunday in an Eastern Division showdown, but it looks like there'll be no stopping the Bears for a few weeks. They next travel to the West Coast for successive meetings with the Rams and Forty Niners, neither of whom has won a game.

Bukich, who previously played for Los Angeles and Pittsburgh during his nine-year NFL career, was summoned from the bench late in the third period after the Bears were unable to overcome a 3-0 Baltimore lead with Billy Wade at quarterback.

Bukich completed six straight passes, mixing the first three with some effective Chicago rushing during an 80-yard touchdown drive.

Hill Led Eagles

Hill, another vagabond quarterback playing in his sixth NFL season, replaced injured Sonny Jurgensen and got the Eagles off winging with an 80-yard touchdown hookup with Timmy Brown. Hill also completed a six-yard TD toss to Clarence Peaks and set up a third touchdown and a Philadelphia field goal.

Herb Adderly, Green Bay's all-league defensive back, raced 98 yards with the opening kickoff and Starr subsequently completed touchdown passes of 27 yards to Jim Taylor, 53 yards to Max McGee and 19 yards to Ron Kramer in the romp against the Rams.

Tittle engineered a 98-yard touchdown drive in the final period, throwing 27 yards to Joe Walton for the score that clinched the game for the Giants.

The Redskins narrowed New York's lead to 17-14 at halftime when Norm Sneed's passing and the rushing of Billy Barnes and Don Bosseler produced two second-period touchdowns.

Johnson's passes gained a total of 301 yards for the Cards against the Vikings. Sonny Randle caught TD passes of 21 and 68 yards from Johnson and another of 11 yards from Buddy Humphrey. Bill Triplett scored twice, on an eight-yard run and on a five-yard pass from Johnson.

Dodgers Victorious In 4 Straight

JUBILANT Los Angeles Dodgers swarm Don Drysdale after the big right-hander tossed a three-hit, 1-0 shutout at the New York Yankees Saturday. The victory proved a vital step in the Dodgers' four game sweep of the World Series, with Los Angeles topping the defending world champs, 2-1, Sunday. (UPI Telephoto)

Koufax Halls Yankees In Series Finale, 2-1

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — On the banquet circuit this winter they'll toast Sandy Koufax and the Dodgers as the man who contributed most to the misery of the proud Yankees in 1963.

Koufax started the Yankees on the skids to their most humiliating World Series defeat last Wednesday in New York. And he dealt the knockout blow Sunday with a superb six-hit, 2-1 victory that completed the Dodgers' four-game sweep before 55,912 fans in sunsoaked Dodger Stadium.

He gave up six hits in each game, yielded a total of only three runs, and struck out 23 Yankee hitters, including a record 15 in the opening game.

But while Koufax is the glamour-boy who won the sports car as the outstanding player in the series, there were several other Dodgers who turned in "clutch" performances in the final game of the sweep.

Peppone Lost Ball

There was Jim Gilliam, the cagey "old pro" who took advantage of the lapse in the Yankee defense to scout all the way to third base on an error by first baseman Joe Peppone in the seventh inning.

There was Willie Davis, who promptly caught hold of one of Whitey Ford's pitches and drove it deep enough to center field for the sacrifice fly that brought home Gilliam with the winning run.

There was big Frank Howard, who in the fifth inning had delivered a mighty 450-foot homer off Ford for Los Angeles' first run.

And there were others who ignored the odds, refused to flinch before the favored Yankees and helped pull off this biggest World Series upset in several seasons.

In the end, it was a break which won for the Dodgers. Yet they had the alertness and the drive to capitalize on such advantages.

Mantle Homered

Howard's fifth-inning home run was offset in the top of the seventh by Mickey Mantle's homer into the left field stands which tied the score at 1-1. Mantle's homer was his 15th in series competition, tying a record set by Babe Ruth.

Ford, who gave up only two hits in the seven innings he worked, was sabotaged by his defense right at the start of the seventh.

Clete Boyer at third made a fine, leaping grab of Gilliam's bouncer and threw to first for what appeared an out. But Peppone lost sight of the ball in the crowd background and it bounced off his wrist and chest and fled past him to the stands.

Gilliam took off for second base, took a look over his shoulder at Peppone still pursuing the ball and headed for third. He made it easily. Willie Davis then delivered the winning run with a fly to Mantle and Gilliam crossed the plate without sliding.

Koufax yielded a one-out single in the eighth to pinch-hitter Phil Linz, who promptly was erased in a double play in which Dick Tracewski picked up Tony Kubek's grounder, tagged Linz and threw to first base for the second out.

Palmer Wins Crown In Whitemarsh Open

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Arnold Palmer's victory in the $125,000 Whitemarsh Open should serve as a warning for the British Ryder Cup team.

The Latrobe, Pa., muscleman proved he was "back on the stroke" Sunday when he won the year's richest tournament at the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club by a stroke over Lionel Hebert.

Palmer, who will lead the U.S. team against Britain in the Ryder Cup matches at Atlanta next weekend, overcame a double bogey on the 14th hole to finish with a winning aggregate of 281, seven under par.

Arnie said he fell "absolutely fast asleep" and hit the ball out of bounds over a snow fence on the 14th. He then had to hit another ball, thus losing two strokes from his big lead over Hebert, slamming Sammy Snead and Canadian Al Balding.

Hebert, who finished in the threesome ahead of Palmer, was waiting for a possible playoff but golfer's top money winner responded to the challenge by getting a birdie on the 15th and another one on the 17th to offset a bogey on the 18th.

Palmer came to the 18th knowing he needed a par four to win. He hit what he termed "his best drive of the tournament" to put him in good position. After his iron shot put him to within 35 feet of the pin, Palmer two putted for his par and the $26,000 first prize money, the largest check he has received in any tournament.

The win, Palmer's seventh tourney triumph of 1963, brought his record earnings this year to $127,555.

Hebert, whose third round 65 on Saturday zoomed him into contention, won $13,000 for his second place finish, the most he has collected at one tournament in 12 years on the Professional Golfers' Association circuit. His last major tournament victory was the 1962 Memphis Open.
