

Gifts Filled With Candies

Invited to a friend's home for a weekend? Or, is it a birthday party for some one who loves to cook? Anyway, you probably have a need for a gift.

You might like to choose something new in a pyroceram sauce-maker... you might decide upon crescent-shaped salad dishes... such handy items!

Wonderful candies can fill the gifts... and wonderfully easy they are to make too. With glazed chocolate chips and marshmallows as the basic ingredients, and with very simple directions, even youthful cooks will find these recipes easy to make... and so good to eat!

Snow Pokes

1 package (6 ounces) chocolate chips
1 cup miniature marshmallows (or 12 jet-puffed marshmallows cut in eights)

Heat chocolate chips over hot water until partly melted. Remove from hot water and stir rapidly until smooth. Then pour into greased 9-inch pie pan. Spread marshmallows over top of chocolate and poke them into chocolate until they are partly submerged. Chill until firm. To serve, cut in slim wedges. Makes about 28 pieces.

Toasty Nut Delights

1/2 cup broken pecans
1 tablespoon butter
8 plain or flavored jet puffed marshmallows, cut in quarters
1 package (6 ounces) glazed chocolate chips

2 tablespoons chopped pecans
Saute 1/2 cup pecans in butter over low heat 3 to 5 minutes, stirring constantly.

Line bottom of 9x13-inch loaf pan with wax paper, letting paper extend in 2-inch tabs at each end. Arrange marshmallows in pan and fill spaces between the sauteed pecans.

Heat chocolate chips over hot water until partly melted. Remove from hot water and stir rapidly until entirely melted. Pour evenly over nuts and marshmallows. Tap pan to settle chocolate. Sprinkle with 2 tablespoons chopped nuts. Chill until hard. Then run a sharp knife around sides of pan and lift out candy with paper tabs. Cut in squares. Makes about 18.

Give Italian Look To Pork Chop Dish

Here's a simple way to give a foreign treatment to a supper main dish. Bake pork chops on top of spinach and cheese sauce. The result: Pork Chops Florentine, bringing a feeling of Italy to your meal.

The chops bake during the majority of the cooking time in a covered baking dish. This holds in the moist heat pork chops need to be their juicy best at serving time, states authority in the meat cookery field Reba Staggs.

Complete your easy Italian-style menu with fried eggplant, a tossed salad with garlic-oil dressing, Italian bread and a dessert of spumoni ice cream.

Pork Chops Florentine

6 rib or loin pork chops, cut 3/4 to 1 inch thick
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3 tablespoons butter or margarine

3 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese
2 packages (10 ounces each) frozen spinach, cooked; or 2 cans (16 ounces each) spinach

Brown chops in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season chops with 1/2 teaspoon salt and teaspoon pepper. Melt butter or margarine and blend in flour. Gradually add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper and grated cheese, and continue cooking until cheese is melted. Drain cooked or canned spinach. Add spinach to cheese sauce and pour into a greased baking dish. Arrange browned chops on top of spinach mixture. Cover tightly and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 30 minutes. Remove cover and continue baking uncovered 15 minutes or until done. 6 servings.

BABY GREEN PEPPERS

The Spanish often fry tiny green sweet peppers whole in olive oil, serve them, seeds and all, as a hot vegetable, sprinkled with lemon juice and salt.
