Florida A&M Rated No. 1; Linfield 11 Draws Support

NEW YORK (UPI) — Florida A&M, paced by "world's fastest human," Bob Hayes, was rated the No. 1 small college football team in the nation today by the United Press International board of coaches for the second consecutive week.

However, Northern Illinois, which moved up to second, and third-ranked Delaware received more first-place votes than the Rattlers and cut the Florida team's point lead nearly in half since the preceding week.

There were no new entries to the top 10, but there was quite a bit of shuffling.

Texas A&I jumped from eighth to fourth and drew five first-place ballots.

Montana State moved from sixth to fifth, San Diego State, from seventh to sixth and Wittenberg, from a ninth place tie to seventh. Lenoir Rhyne, the only team in the top 10 beaten last weekend, fell from fourth to eighth. Central Oklahoma dropped four notches to ninth and East Carolina slipped from a ninth place tie to 10th.

Tennessee Tech led the "second 10" in 11th spot, followed by East Central Oklahoma, South Dakota State, Massachusetts, and San Francisco State.

St. John's (Minn.) and Western Kentucky tied for 16th, Central Michigan was 18th and Linfield (Ore.), McNeese State (La.) and Fresno State deadlocked for 19th.

Five coaches from each of the seven geographical sections of the nation pick the top 10 teams each week on a basis of 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 for votes from first to 10th place.

Torres Wins Close Battle Over Fullmer

TEANECK, N. J. (UPI) — Middleweights Jose Torres and Don Fullmer will meet in a return match, promoter Murray Goodman announced today, because Torres' victory Wednesday night was so close.

"Date of the 10-round bout will depend upon whether it is held at the New York Coliseum, or at Salt Lake City or here at the Teaneck Armory again," Goodman explained.

Sluggish Torres of Puerto Rico won the referee's decision Wednesday night before about 2,500 in the Armory. There are no boxing judges in New Jersey. Referee Joey Harrison gave five rounds to Torres, two to Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, and called three even.

Torres weighed 161 pounds; Fullmer, 158.

Ex-middleweight champion Gene Fullmer, 32-year-old brother of 24-year-old Don, was in Don's corner Wednesday night along with their manager Marv Jensen.

There were no knockdowns. Torres stalked forward constantly and tried to nail Don with close-quarter hooks, while Don concentrated on long-range counter-punching. At the finish Don's nose was bleeding and Jose had a cut on the bridge of his nose.

Belinsky Inks Contract With Angels For '64

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Unpredictable hurler Bo Belinsky of the Los Angeles Angels continued to live up to his character and became one of the first major leaguers to sign his 1964 season contract.

The sophomore southpaw, who compiled a 2-9 won-lost record last season with the Angels and spent part of the season in minor league "exile," telephoned Angel General Manager Fred Henny for an appointment Wednesday and promptly inked next year's pact.

The signing served to nip any talk of trading the erratic pitcher and came only three days after the end of the World Series.

OSU 11 Hopes To Increase Win Skein At Expense Of Washington

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY, Corvallis — Oregon State's exciting, go-for-broke football team, 22-15 winners over Baylor last weekend, went into seclusion in preparation for their next foe — the Washington Huskies.

All seats for the Seattle game have already been sold.

Coach Tommy Prothro announced that no one, unless properly recognized, will be admitted to OSU practice sessions this week. In addition to the physical barrier, a security screen has been placed on all progress and injury reports coming out of the Beaver camp.

The Beavers had fought victory over Baylor, coming in the final 28 seconds, marked Leroy Whittle, Dan Espalin and Ron Doman as heroes. Whittle gained 95 yards rushing, and it was Espalin who caught the winning touchdown pass Doman led the line play that held the Bears to 125 yards rushing.

Beavers Hold Closed Drills, Ducks Work On Pass Defense

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — UCLA hopes Syracuse University's second trip westward this season will prove to be another upsetting experience Friday night.

A fired-up Kansas team upset the powerful Orangemen 10-0 when Ben Schwartzwalder's team ventured into Lawrence, Kan., but Syracuse manhandled two visiting opponents from Massachusetts—Boston College 32-21 and Holy Cross 49-0.

Bruin assistant coach Dick Mansperger said, "This is another typical Syracuse football team. It will be the strongest team physically we'll face all year—a big and mobile line with a tank-like backfield."

However, UCLA has improved steadily since dropping its first two games against Pitt and Penn State, and then winning 10-9 over Stanford last week.

A crew of sophomores are becoming mainstays for UCLA with their play. Bob Richardson, who doubles up as flanker back and defensive halfback, intercepted a Stanford pass and raced 35 yards to the Indian five-yard line to set up a touchdown. Other sophomores making impressive showings are Jim Colletto at fullback, Kurt Altenburg at left end and Russ Banducci at right guard.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The University of Southern California squad leaves International Airport Friday morning for Indiana and the Saturday clash with Notre Dame.

Notre Dame, which lost 25-0 last year to the Trojans, has two close defeats on its record this season. The Irish lost their opener 14-9 to Wisconsin and were edged 7-6 by state rival Purdue University.

USC got a lift from Hal Bedsole's smooth pass receiving in practice Wednesday. The towering end dropped some key passes in USC's only loss of the year, a 17-12 defeat by Oklahoma.

Included on the traveling squad is end Fred Hill who had missed the previous games because of a sprained back suffered in a pre-season workout.

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Stanford defensive back Jim Shroyer, who injured a knee Tuesday, will not play Saturday night against the Rice Owls at Houston.

However, coach John Raiston said today end Bob Howard, sidelined with the flu, will make the trip.

STOCKTON, Calif. (UPI) — University of Pacific coach John Rohde held a defensive drill Wednesday in preparation for the Tigers' meeting here Saturday against the Fresno State Bulldogs.

Tackles Don Shackelford and

Dick Kirby were praised by Rohde.

SEATTLE (UPI) — Washington Husky fullback Junior Coffey showed little ill effect from his recently fractured right foot Wednesday as he ran hard and fast during a pass pattern drill.

However, coach Jim Owens said Coffey isn't expected to play against the Oregon State Beavers here Saturday.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI) — Two Washington State interior linemen are back after a bout with the flu.

Trainer Dick Vanderfoot okayed guard Roy Busse and tackle Glenn Baker for practice Wednesday.

day as coach Jim Sutherland ran the Cougars on pass plays for their game Saturday at Pullman against San Jose State.

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI) — Senior University of Oregon guard Don Cadanasso, who suffered a leg cut against West Virginia, has been taken off the Duck injured list.

The Webfoots worked on pass defense Wednesday for their contest this Saturday with Idaho here.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI) — The Oregon State Beavers held a closed workout Wednesday as they geared for this weekend's contest with Washington in Seattle.

A spokesman said the Beaver coaching staff feels the Husky game will be the toughest of the season.

MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI) — Sophomore guard Jerry Cambell has been placed on the doubtful list by Idaho coach Dee Andros for this Saturday's game with the University of Oregon.

Cambell, who moved up to the first string only Tuesday, was out Wednesday with an injured knee. Andros said linebacker Dick Litzinger has also been nursing a bad leg and is doubtful.
