A COSTLY MISTAKE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The General Accounting Office (GAO) said Tuesday that the federal government was making a costly mistake by renting instead of owning its post office facilities.

A GAO report covering a study of 91 postal facilities leased by the Post Office Department showed that after 15 years, the amount paid in rent would exceed by $2.1 million their cost of construction.

TO STAGE "ATTACK"

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An "attack" on northeastern Canada and the eastern seaboard of the United States as far south as Georgia will be staged Friday by bombers of the Strategic Air Command.

The Defense Department said the exercise, "Top Rung I," would extend as far west as a line running from Hudson's Bay to Chicago, but would avoid population centers as far as possible and would not disrupt civil air traffic.

Linda McClarnan Now Mrs. Wells

The wedding of Linda McClarnan of Cottage Grove and James Lee Wells of Roseburg took place Sept. 21 at the Methodist Church in Cottage Grove. The Rev. Orville Covault performed the double ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McClarnan of Cottage Grove. Mr. and Mrs. James G. Wells of Roseburg are the bridegroom's parents.

The wedding ceremony took place before the altar which was decorated with a large bouquet of fall flowers. Marcia Allen, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Lorraine Ness, soloist.

James McClarnan gave his sister in marriage. She wore a full-length gown of frosted lace, styled on demi-belle lines, with sequined edging on the sleeves and hemline of the skirt. Her veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a jeweled petal headpiece. She carried a white Rainbow Bible topped with an arrangement of white gladioli and Stephanotis.

JoAnne McDaniel of Coos Bay was maid of honor. Her short sheath dress was fashioned of pale apricot Oriental sheer with obi sash and bow at the back waistline. Her headpiece was a matching bow-trim halo ring with a bluish veil. She carried an arm bouquet of apricot and coral gladioli.

Jim Cox of Portland was best man. Ushers were Jim Aiten and Larry Shearer, both of Roseburg. Sally Kay Marsh, niece of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. She was garbed in a pale green sheer frock.

Decorations in fall colors decorated the Friendship Hall where the reception was held. Twila Whitehead had the guest book, and Sharon Kelly, cousin of the bride, and Judy Allen, were in charge of the gifts.

Serving were Mrs. A. P. Weinkauff, Mrs. Eldon Whitehead, Mrs. Corda Pentico and Mrs. John Cook. Mrs. Alfred McKenzie and Mrs. Gene White assisted about the room.

The couple left on a honeymoon trip to Diamond and Crater lakes, the bride wearing a charcoal and gray three-piece knit suit with velvet hat and black patent accessories. The young people are now at home in Medford.

The bridegroom is a senior at Southern Oregon College where he is majoring in business administration. Mrs. Wells is employed at Pacific Northwest Bell.

Coming from out of state to attend the wedding was Mrs. David Marsh of Los Angeles, sister of the bridegroom.

Marjorie Powell Becomes Bride Of John F. Nemeth

Marjorie Powell of Sacramento, Calif., and John F. Nemeth, Drain, exchanged wedding vows Sept. 14 at the First Methodist Church in Reno, Nev. The Rev. Mr. Anderson performed the impressive double ring ceremony before relatives and close friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Karl Hummel of Yoncalla, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nemeth of Michigan.

The bride wore a street-length dress, styled with a beige Chamilly length sleeves. The skirt was satin and slightly gathered at the sides. The bride carried a bouquet of bronze orchids. She was given in marriage by James Ollar of Sacramento.

Matron of honor was Irene Carter of Sacramento, and best man was Bus Shirley of Drain.

A reception was given by Roy and Betty Linquist of Reno. The bride's cake and coffee were served.

Following a wedding trip to Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Nemeth are at home in Drain.

Mrs. Nemeth was credit manager of Hale's Department Store at Sacramento. Her husband is employed by Drain Plywood.

Wedding Event Of Sept. 20th

Baskets of lavender and white gladioli and candelabra decorated the Drain Methodist Church when Janelle Mathis and C. Dennis Christensen were married Sept. 20 at 8 p.m. The Rev. William M. Parker performed the double ring ceremony before 80 relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Mathis of Yoncalla. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lewis Laakey of Drain.

Given in marriage by her father, the beautiful bride wore the traditional blue garter and a necklace borrowed from her mother-in-law. She chose a white satin sheath ballerina length gown, with a gathered overskirt, fitted bodice with a scoop neckline and three quarter-length sleeves accented by white satin shoes. Her elbow length veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bridal bouquet of a lavender orchid surrounded by pink rosebuds on a white Bible.

Miss Bonnie Roberts was matron of honor and wore a gown she made for the occasion, of lavender satin with capesleeves and slight gathers at the waist. Her head-
