Dear Abby!

Keep Mum!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I work for an ophthalmologist. He is middle-aged, extremely handsome (the muscular, gray - at - the temples type) and is very, very sweet. He is married and I have yet to see him give a woman any encouragement. Twice in the past month women patients have tried to attack him. You know, when an eye doctor does a refraction, he must put his face very close to the patient's. Woman Number One just suddenly threw her arms around his neck and tried desperately to kiss him. Woman Number Two backed him into a corner and started to shout all over the place that she was in love with him and didn't care who knew it. The whole office building is talking about it, and people are hinting that my doctor must have encouraged them. What can I say in his defense to save his reputation?

HIS NURSE

DEAR NURSE: Don't try too vigorously to defend him, or they might think you are Number THREE! A professional man's reputation is seldom affected by outlandish aggressive ones.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow in my early 60's and I would like to have your opinion on a delicate subject. I have a very kind and intelligent gentleman friend whom I admire. I have been keeping company with him for three years. I see him every day. He never mentions a word about matrimony. I am wondering how to act on the subject. I could use some sound advice.

WHAT TO DO

DEAR WHAT: If a man does not mention matrimony, it is a good bet that he isn't thinking about it. My advice: keep listening and say nothing.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow with married children. I married a widower who also had married children. Our problem is, where should we be buried? My first husband and my present husband's first wife are buried in separate cemeteries and each lies alone. Should my husband and I each buy a plot beside our first mates and be buried beside them? My husband thinks we should be buried together as we will no doubt finish our lives together. But I think, out of consideration for our children, we should be buried beside our previous spouses. But how would that look for me, since my name is no longer the same as my first husband's? However, he is the father of my children and that should count for something. Our children want no part of the decision, so we are appealing to you.

SECOND WIFE

DEAR SECOND WIFE: In death, those who are left behind should be considered first. For the sake of your children, I think you should be buried alongside their father.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BROADMINDED: "Out of sight, out of mind." And you are out of yours if you let him go off with your blessings for a little fling.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Passed Hand Helps To Slam

(Written For NEA)

By OSWALD JACOBY

The artificial two no-trump response is not used by a passed hand. There are too many times when he passes 11 or 12 points and wants to bid a natural two no-trump. Of course, a jump to three by a passed hand is never a forcing bid.

If you do happen to pass a hand that fits remarkably well with your partner's major suit opening you show this by bidding three no-trump as an artificial raise. You really can afford this. No one the four spade bid had not shown quite as good a hand and were slightly doubtful about getting past four.

The three no-trump response told a different story. South knew that his partner had passed a hand with tremendous support for spades and South was willing to go to five in any case.

Also, South had a perfect hand for use of Blackwood and when North showed two aces South was delighted to go to the slam.

Q—The bidding has been:

North: 1♣ Double 1♥ West: 3♥ Pass 3♠ Pass 4♥ Pass ?

You, South, hold:

♠ K 8 5 4 ♡ 4 3 2 ♣ K J 7 6 ♦ A 10

What do you do now?

A—Pass. Your partner has signed off and you should respect his decision since you are looking at three little diamonds.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You open one diamond, holding:

♠ K 7 6 ♡ A 4 3 ♣ 8 5 4 ♦ A 10 2

Following the procedure: double, pass, pass. What do you do now?
