

Integration Leaders Set Showdown With City Officials In Birmingham

By ROBERT GORDON
United Press International
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—
Integration leaders Martin Luther King Jr. and Fred Shuttlesworth return here today for a showdown with city officials on their demands for more desegregation.

The two Negro leaders who led the massive racial demonstrations here that exploded into violence and led to more than 2,500 arrests, issued an ultimatum last week that 25 Negro policemen must be hired by next Tuesday.

They vowed to lead the Negro community in more and bigger demonstrations if their demands are not met.

Both King and Shuttlesworth have emphasized, however, that employment of the Negro policemen is only the first step. They also demanded "face-to-face" negotiations between Negro leaders and the city council to arrange better job opportunities for Negroes in other areas of government.

To Appear ON TV
Gov. George Wallace was to appear on local television late today and was expected to discuss the racial situation and hold a news conference.

The Community Affairs Committee on Human Relations, composed of 14 whites and nine Negroes, adopted a resolution Friday urging Mayor Albert Boutwell to change the city's policy of hiring only white policemen. Many of the city's most influential business and civic leaders previously had made the same recommendation.

Earlier the mayor said he would not answer the King and Shuttlesworth demand but Saturday a spokesman announced Boutwell was considering the committee recommendation.

Elsewhere In The Nation
Clinton, La.: At least 43 pickets were arrested during the weekend while protesting segregation customs in stores. Most of the arrests came Saturday, but four members of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) were arrested Sunday.

Chicago: Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy told an audience in Chicago Sunday that the administration's civil rights legislation "has become an article of faith, testing whether white Americans can put aside sectional and political differences to meet racial problems."

He said the "whole nation will be the loser" if Congress rejects the measure.

Greensboro, N.C.: About 200 Negroes paraded before a segregated theater Sunday night. The demonstration was orderly and there were no arrests.

Charlotte, N.C.: Author-humorist Harry Golden urged Negroes attending a convention of the North Carolina NAACP Sunday to use their ballots to oust Southern office holders who block their quest for better treatment.

Jackson, Miss.: Negroes attempted to attend two all-white Methodist and Episcopal churches here Sunday but were refused entry and left quietly.

Glide Gets Demonstration Of New Reading System

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY
Mrs. Margery Queen, curriculum consultant for Scott and Foreman Text Book Corp., taught students of the first and second grades, six rooms, of Glide Elementary School last week. She demonstrated a new technique of reading and also brought the primary teachers up to date on the multiple uses of this new technique. "This is part of the continuing program of the Glide Elementary School to keep the curriculum at a high level," said Calvin Christensen, principal of Glide Elementary.

Dick and Pat Reese of Eugene and David Cellers, senior at the University of Oregon, spent the weekend at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Cellers. The three went deer hunting Sunday with Reese bagging a buck.

Darrell Cellers and his classmate at Oregon College of Education at Ashland, made an overnight visit Friday with the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Fortune spent the weekend at Oakridge, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Hughes and family, former residents of Glide. The Fortune's son, Glen, 1962 graduate of Glide High, has transferred from Oregon College of Education at Monmouth to Oregon State University. A sophomore, he is living in the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity house. Glen played three years with the Lockwood Junior Legion baseball team before entering college.

Glide High alumni visiting their parents and to attend the homecoming week-end celebrations were Leo Steele, student at Oregon College of Education at Ashland, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steele at Toketee; from the University of Oregon, Norma Haas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haas and Jeanne first record has been acclamations of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatfield, and Rob Blakely, student at Oregon State University, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Blakely.

Indian Family Due At Nazarene Church

The Klaut Indian Family, Arickara Indians from Ft. Belkold Indian Reservation of North Dakota, will present a musical evangelism program at the First Church of the Nazarene in Roseburg at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

They have just celebrated their 33rd year in full-time music evangelism in the United States, Canada, Cuba and Mexico.

The family, the Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Klaut and the four boys, Vernon, Melvin, Raymond and Kenneth, along with Vernon's wife Betty, have sung to over 40 denominations a year and have appeared on the nation's outstanding musical programs as the Phill Kerr musicals in Pasadena, Calif.

They have put out over 30 records and single and four long-play records. Their first record has been acclamations of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatfield, and Rob Blakely, student at Oregon State University, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Blakely.

GOVERNOR MARK HATFIELD not only says "cheese" when he poses for October Cheese Month picture. He also takes a healthy bite of Oregon cheddar to complete the job. Here he receives novel "cheesebarrow" from Oregon Dairy Princess, Linda Olsen, to launch first cheese promotion month sponsored by Oregon's 12 cheese manufacturers and dairy farmers.
