

Canyonville High School Sets Homecoming Event This Week

By MRS. R. E. PROCTOR
Preliminary plans are being made at Canyonville High School for the annual homecoming celebration to be held Oct. 18.

A torch and noise parade Thursday evening will herald a pep rally. A parade Friday will precede the football game with Butte Falls.

Seven members of the Canyonville Volunteer Fire Department attended the first aid review class held at the Tri-City School Thursday evening. Routine equipment checks occupied the rest of the firemen at their regular meeting.

Mrs. George Allen and son, Skip, each brought down a forked horn deer from the Silver Lake district where they were hunting recently. Mrs. Paul Klenke also shot a forked horn and Ray Klenke, a four-point buck. Camped close to them was the Chuck Bass family who also brought out a forked horn.

Mrs. D. L. Taylor and daughter, Mrs. Carla Mollett and Stevie Mollett, all of Eugene, and Bud and Judy Smith of Portland were weekend guests at the John Hamlins. Callers this week at the Hamlins included C. A. Riddle, who lived here some 20 years ago, and his host, Ben Phelps of Azalea. Ralph Bratten claims the record for getting the largest deer so far in the South Douglas area—a 148 pounder shot last week above Tiller.

Francis Keller, the butcher at the Village Market in Canyonville reports having processed some 30 deer so far in the 100 pound range. Ade Johnson at the Superette has processed about 20 and reports many more coming in. They are also in the 100-125 pound range with local deer in good condition.

Some of the hunters who have filled their tags include the Irwin Cypherts who took two at Wagonite the other side of Bend; Larry Fuller with a four point taken locally; Jimmy Gross with a three point taken locally; Sid Hemphill of Prospect got one over in Eastern Oregon and shared his meat with his hunting partner, Don Lijja; Wally Dixon got a small one in Eastern Oregon; Leonard Clifton, Jr., got his four-point by Whiskey Camp by Tiller while Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clifton Sr., each got a forked horn in Eastern Oregon.

A guest at the home of Mrs. J. P. Clifton is her niece, Mildred Coy, of Cushing, Okla.

Recent visitors at the Howard Royle home include Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McClintick and family of Boise, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ralston and family of Seattle; Mrs. Don Murphy of Eugene and Mrs. Marie Beavers and children of an Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones and daughter are visiting their many friends in the Canyonville area. Mrs. June Jones is visiting relatives in California while Joyce Brudator of San Rafael is staying with Susan Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoverson returned recently from a month's trip which included taking their daughter, Sue, to Texas Women's University, visiting relatives in New Mexico and South Dakota and a visit with their daughter and family, the Jim Sprouls, at John Day.

Weekend guests at the George McClanes were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Spaur of Portland.

Lance Schull, who attended Canyonville High School several years ago, was a recent houseguest of his aunt and uncle and family, the Bert Arenas.

News of the death of Earl Jackson, former South Douglas resident, was reported by his nephew, Jim Hancock of Canyonville.

Jackson died at Santa Maria, Calif., Sept. 24 and had lived a number of years in the Myrtle Creek and Riddle areas following World War II.

New Marriages, Separations Hit Movie Set

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Gossip columnists and movie fans today had to move fast to keep up with marriages, separations and new additions in the Hollywood set.

Actress June Allyson, 39, returned to work on a television role after a one-day honeymoon with her new husband, hair stylist Glenn Maxwell, 31.

The actress widowed last January by the death of actor Dick Powell, and the barber were married in a civil ceremony at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Saturday.

Also honeymooning were actress Connie Stevens, 24, and actor James Stacy, 27, who tied the knot Saturday at the St. Francis de Sales Roman Catholic Church in suburban Sherman Oaks. It was one of Hollywood's biggest weddings in recent years.

Actress Jane Wyman, once married to actor Ronald Reagan, and her husband, musical composer Fred Karger, have separated. Karger said he saw little chance for a reconciliation. The couple married in 1952, divorced two years later and remarried in 1961.

In New York, actress Joan Collins, the wife of actor Anthony Newley, gave birth Saturday to a 7-pound, 11-ounce girl in Mount Sinai Hospital. Both were reported in fine condition.

The Elizabeth Taylor-Richard Burton-Eddie Fisher triangle was status quo. The singer said in Las Vegas that his wife informed him in a telephone conversation that she was in "no hurry" to get a divorce.

Fisher said he had telephoned Miss Taylor at the Mexican location where actor Richard Burton's new movie, "Night of the Iguana" is being filmed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bouceck Jr. are building an addition to their home in Scotts Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Zeller, Reedsport, were recent houseguests of their cousin, Marjorie Bouceck.

Bill Atkinson, Los Angeles, Calif., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bouceck Sr. for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee have moved back to Drain. They have been living in the Vince Applegate house.

Mrs. June Dodd, accompanied by her daughter, Nancy, made a business trip to Portland recently.

Miss Joyce Langdon has returned from a trip to Sacramento, Calif. She and Delphia Gardner visited Virginia Coburn, the latter's sister.

Wheat Sale To Reds Will Save $200 Million In Storage Cost

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman estimates the United States will save about $200 million in storage costs by selling U.S. wheat to Russia.

Freeman's estimates are based on pending Soviet purchases of between 150 to 200 million bushels, which would only make a dent in the 1.2 billion bushel U.S. surplus stockpile now stored in American granaries.

The Agriculture Department indicated today that Russia and other Communist countries might purchase as much as 250 million bushels of U.S. wheat.

A weekly publication by the department's Foreign Agricultural Service said that "inquiries in recent weeks have indicated that around 250 million bushels may be involved, with the Soviet Union apparently interested in about 150 million."

Appearing on a television program Sunday, Freeman said he was convinced the sale would be advantageous to the United States by improving wheat farmers' income, reducing the U.S. balance of payments deficit and strengthening wheat prices.

He termed as "a bit ridiculous" Richard M. Nixon's criticism of the sale. Freeman implied that the unsuccessful 1960 presidential candidate was trying to use the issue to inject himself into the 1964 election campaign.

Freeman also discounted the contention of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., that political considerations such as Russian removal of her troops from Cuba should be attached to the deal.

Such provisions, Freeman said, "would be a deterrent to the strengthening and improving" of U.S. - Soviet relations.

Case No. 24851

AVERY V. THOMPSON, District Attorney for Douglas County, Oregon, Plaintiff, vs. Mena Kim, Defendant.

TO: MENA KIM, Defendant.
IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and defend in the above-entitled suit on or before the last day of October, 1963, and if you fail to do so, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the amended complaint.
