

Liston-Clay Schedule February Title Bout

DENVER (UPI) — Young heavyweight hopeful Cassius Clay will get a chance to fulfill his dream and meet champion Sonny Liston next February, Liston's press aide said Monday.

Denver promoter Milt Willner said Liston, who scoffs at Clay's demands to fight and also his predictions of victory, would fight the Louisville challenger in February, possibly in Chavez Ravine in Los Angeles.

Clay said he would welcome the fight. "I've been dreaming about this fight — I've been dreaming for a long time. I want that big bear so bad I can taste it," Clay said.

Willner said the site was not definitely determined, but that the home of the Los Angeles Dodgers looked a promising spot for the much heralded bout.

Willner also said former champion Ingemar Johansson of Geneva, Switzerland, and anybody except Brian London of England "will have to wait in line until after (Liston) fights Clay."

Swedish boxing promoter Edvin Ahlqvist said today Johansson was training seriously for a possible fight with Liston.

Willner said he expected to hear from London today in response to an invitation to come to Denver this winter and fight Liston. English heavyweight champion Henry Cooper turned down a similar request Monday.

Willner said Liston would not fight Clay or Johansson this year because of tax reasons. But he said the big champion would be ready for Clay in February.

Clay, in Louisville, said he would be ready also. "After we finish," Clay said, "The President is going to send out a proclamation and Liston's jaw will be declared a disaster area."

Sugar Ray May Retire After Winning Battle

PARIS (UPI) — Former welterweight and middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson considered possible retirement today because of his difficulties here in winning an unpopular decision over inept Armand Vanucci of Corsica.

The referee and three judges gave "old man" Robinson the 10-round decision but did not disclose their voting before the 5,000 boozing fans Monday night at Palais des Sports.

At 43 or 44, New Yorker Robinson appeared woefully lacking in stamina as he puffed his way to a win over the wild-swinging Vanucci, who suffered his sixth straight defeat. On three occasions, at least, Ray clinched and hung on until he caught his breath.

"I was lucky to win," Robinson admitted to sports writers. "Vanucci put up a fine defense but I was not feeling myself." Would he retire?

"It may have been my last fight," Ray said, but added quickly: "On the other hand, maybe there's still a couple of bouts left in me. I don't know yet."

Robinson, weighing 159½ for the first time since June 24, when he lost to Joey Giardello and suffered such a battering he almost retired then.

First Masters Champion Dies

DETROIT (UPI) — Horton Smith, 55, the first Masters champion and a member of the PGA Hall of Fame, died today of Hodgkins disease.

Smith had been suffering from the disease for the past six years.

The pro at the Detroit Golf Club since 1946, Smith was attending the Ryder Cup matches Sunday when he collapsed.

Smith returned to Detroit Monday but collapsed again in his car and was rushed to a hospital where he was reported in satisfactory condition. But he took a turn for the worse and died shortly after midnight.

Smith, a past president of the PGA, won the first Masters at Augusta in 1934 and won the title again in 1936.

Smith won numerous other golf crowns including the French Open title on his 21st birthday in 1930.

Horton, who was married and divorced, is survived by his brother, Wren of Chicago.

His mother lives in Springfield, Mo., and a son lives in Philadelphia, N.C.

RCC Golfers Post Team Match Victory Over SPGA Linksters

The Roseburg Country Club golfers withstood a strong surge by the Stewart Park Golf Association's team Sunday to post a victory in the first annual team match between the two squads.

RCC ended the two-day tournament, which was staged on successive Sundays at the RCC and Stewart Park courses, with a gross score of 1,605. The Stewart Park golfers ended with a 1,664 total. The team scores were figured on the low gross scores of the top 10 players for each team who competed both days.

Steve Smith, RCC, had the low gross total for the 36-holes of play, carding a 149. Joe and Mike Perrault, both representing RCC, were tied for second with 155 36-hole totals.

The low net honor was won by Rusty Diehl, RCC, with a 26-hole total of 136, followed by Jack Baker, Stewart Park, with a 140.

Sunday's low gross score was fired by Dave Leiken—a 75. Tied for low net honors Sunday were John Hagedorn, RCC, and Dick Casebeer, Stewart Park, with identical 68s.

The long drive Sunday was shot by Bill Alderson, while O. B. Davis won the "close to the pin" competition. Alderson and Davis both represented Stewart Park.

The team match between the two clubs is planned as a yearly event, with the RCC team getting to keep the trophy for a year as a result of their 1963 victory.

New Fish Ladder Installed At Dam

Salmon and steelhead heading for upstream spawning beds in the North Umpqua River in Douglas County will soon have a spanking new fish ladder to make their way over Winchester Dam.

Pacific Power and Light Company, recent purchasers of the COPCO power plant located here, took a close look at the old fish ladder sadly needing repair and proceeded to make plans for a complete new fishway on the recommendation of Dr. Roy Hamilton, PP&L fishery expert. Final plans for the ladder were agreed upon by company engineers and the Oregon game commission.

Construction of the new ladder got under way Sept. 5 with completion date set for Oct. 15 to allow salmon and steelhead held up by the construction ample time to move upstream to spawn this fall.

During the construction period, the game commission has salvaged trapped fish and passed them over the structure.

Emergency passage was also allowed during a two-day period of high water which held up construction activities on the ladder.

The new ladder will pass fish at all stages of water, and has two entrances for low and high water stages. An easy-going upstream passage, salmon and steelhead will have only 12-inch jumps from one pool to the next.

A new counting station will also be installed following completion of the ladder. The station will be built by the game commission on the downstream side of the high-water and flood areas. The old station often had to be abandoned because of high water, and several times extensive damage was caused by flood waters.

Lions' Richards Extends 5-A-1 Point Lead

Cottage Grove's Alan Richards continued to set the pace in the Midwestern League scoring race, while Douglas' Dan Withers and Jim Heard are tied for the Umpqua Valley League scoring lead.

Richards powered his way for three touchdowns in the Lions' 21-13 victory over South Eugene, raising his total through five games to 12 TDs for 72 points.

Marshfield's Jerry Button ranks second to the hard-charging Lion fullback with a total of 48 points—including three six-pointers in Marshfield's 34-13 weekend victory. Button has now rambled for eight touchdowns.

Moving into third place was Jerry Knutson of the Sheldon Irish with 47 points, while Ken Snoddy of North Bend ranks fourth with 34 and Chuck Olds, place kicking specialist of the Cottage Grove Lions, is fifth with 32.

Roseburg's Ron Leep is tied for seventh place in the scoring race with 24 points — all scored on TD passes.

Withers and Heard have identical two PATs to lead the Douglas Trojans and the UVL scorers with 32 points each. Heard moved into the tie for the league's scoring lead by leading the Trojans to a conference win over the Glendale Wildcats. In the contest Heard romped for two TDs and Withers scored one.

Larry Ruckel, Riddle, follows the leaders with 28 points, with Glendale's Bill Hubler fourth with 26 points.

In Midwestern League play this week the spotlight will be on Cottage Grove Friday where the rugged Indians will meet with the Lions in the battle of the undefeated District 5-A-1 teams. Barring a tie, either Roseburg or Cottage Grove will emerge as the undisputed league-leader as a result of the game.

Other Midwestern League games Friday include North Bend and Thurston at Springfield's Silke Field, North Eugene and Sheldon at Eugene's Civic Stadium and Springfield will be at Willamette. Saturday the third ranking Marshfield Pirates will be in Eugene to battle the improving South Eugene Axemen. All games will start at 8 p.m.

UW Halfback Chosen Big 6 'Back of Week'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Steve Bramwell, University of Washington mighty mile halfback, is the Big Six Back of the Week.

The 154-pound soph rambled on a 92-yard punt return last Saturday that broke open the Washington-Oregon State game.

He also picked up 37 yards on five carries from scrimmage for an 11.4 average and played well on defense against the brilliant Oregon State end Vern Burke.

California's Jack Schraub was named Lineman of the Week.

Prominent Boxers Attempt Returns

NEW YORK (UPI) — Three prominent fighters on the comeback trail will display their prowess — or lack of it — this week.

They are former welterweight champion Luis Rodriguez, former welter and middleweight king Sugar Ray Robinson and former top heavyweight contender Zora Folley.

Rodriguez, of Cuba, who won the welter crown from Emile Griffith last March 21 and lost it back to Griffith on June 8, will square off against unbeaten Wilbert (Skeeter) McClure, young middleweight contender, at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The Rodriguez-McClure fight will be televised nationally. It will be the first fight at the Garden in eight weeks and the first Friday night bout to be televised from the Garden in three years, during which the television bouts were staged on Saturday night.

Rodriguez, 26, is favored at 9-5 over 23-year-old McClure of Toledo, Ohio, who recently came out of the Army. He is unbeaten in 14 professional bouts. He scored six kayos. Skeeter is ranked seventh among middleweight contenders.

Rodriguez has 22 kayos in his 51-3-0 record.

Heavyweight Zora Folley, on the comeback road after his knockout last December by Doug Jones, fights heavyweight contender Billy Daniels of New York at Montreal Thursday.

Folley of Chandler, Ariz., is now ranked ninth among contenders; Daniels fifth.

At Paris Monday night, the once great Sugar Ray Robinson continues his comeback attempt against Armand Vanucci, French middleweight. In Robinson's latest bout with a good middleweight, he suffered a severe beating by sixth-rated Joey Giardello at Philadelphia.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Monday: Paris — Sugar Ray Robinson vs. Armand Vanucci. Boston — Tom McNeely vs. Duke Sabedon.

Tuesday: New York (Sunnyside) — Johnny Persol vs. Johnny Alford.

Wednesday: Washington — Bob Foster vs. Sixto Rodriguez. Miami Beach — Tony Alongi vs. Al Gonzalez.

Thursday: Montreal — Zora Folley vs. Billy Daniels.

Friday: New York (Garden) — Luis Rodriguez vs. Wilbert (Skeeter) McClure (TV). Rome — Gaspar Ortega vs. Nino Venvenuti. Detroit — Von Clay vs. Sonny Banks.

Saturday: Nothing scheduled.
