Church Wedding Unites Couple

In a candlelight setting of white gladioli and chrysanthemums, Leta Arlene Roderick of Sunnyside, Wash., was united in marriage to Gilbert Warren Langhoff of Roseburg, Saturday night, Sept. 21.

The Rev. H. Leslie Moore performed the double ring ceremony in the First Brethren Church in Sunnyside.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roderick of Sunnyside. The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Langhoff of Roseburg. The bride's gown of oriental satin with hand clipped Chantilly lace, formed a full skirt ending in a chapel train. Her veil was attached to a Swedish crown of pearls.

Attendants of the bride wore cherry pink acetate gowns with matching hats. Mrs. David Olsen of Port Orchard was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Roderick of Spokane and DiAnn Roderick of Sunnyside, both sisters of the bride, and Ruth Waldo of Corvallis.

A surprise to all was the arrival home of Raymond Roderick, brother of the bride, from Germany just a few hours prior to the wedding. He had been in the service for two years.

The bridegroom's attendants were Fredrick Heidt of Boise, Idaho, as best man and Bernie Schutt of Sunnyside, Robert Harrell of Boise and Gerald Neu-

Club Planning Celebration

The first fall meeting of the Garden Valley Women's Club was called by their president, Mrs. E. S. Booth.

The nucleus plans to celebrate the club's 50th anniversary in May of 1964 were formed. The landscaping projects, which have been a community co-operative project of the Valley Garden Club and the Women's Club received a boost with the presentation of a birch tree. The tree was one used by the garden club in their Douglas County Fair garden.

Attending the no-hostess meeting were Mrs. Bill Tipton, Mrs. Eddie Kohlman, Mrs. Carrie Sinclair, Mrs. Emma Long, Mrs. Pete Pon, Mrs. C. L. Spray, Mrs. Alva Teeter, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Mrs. Harding Knapp and Mrs. E. S. Booth.

Mrs. Sieverin Party Honoree

ONYX CARVINGS

Have you seen the hand-carved Onyx from Mexico? Onyx is not always black, as you know! The Onyx carvings at Dorothy's are white and green. And many other shades that come in between! There are horse head book ends and others, too. Cigarette boxes and ash trays to please you! Carved elephants in many different kinds and sizes. And many other animals, which are surprises! All of these make nice gifts and souvenirs. Select several of them and receive many cheers. Now is the best time to make your selection. While there is lots of variety and perfection!
