Retirement Dinner Given In Honor Of Paul White

Paul White, who recently retired from the Oregon State Highway Department after 27 years of service, was honored by employees of the Department at a dinner held at the Winston Community Hall. The dinner, a surprise to the honored guest, was held at 7 p.m. A beautifully decorated cake in the form of a mountain with highway scenes and small automobiles formed an attractive centerpiece for the table. White was presented a lovely jacket and an electric lantern by his fellow employees. Master of ceremonies for the occasion was John Gunter, who was assisted by Earl Pritchard with preparations for the party. Adolph LeBlanc, a retired state Highway Department employee of Salem, entertained the group with stories pertaining to his work as a stripping crew foreman during his highway career several years ago. He related the method of stripping the highways as immature in comparison with procedures today; stating that he had literally walked from the Oregon-California line to the Columbia River. The stripping in the early days was done by a machine but employees walked along operating it. Music was furnished by Carl Winfrey, violin, and Clem Spurlock, with a guitar. They also sang several vocal selections. White has resided in Winston, where he has been employed, for the past 10 years. Prior to that he worked in Milwaukie and Oregon City. He and Mrs. White plan to remain in Winston in their home on Oak Street. They have no definite plans other than to spend considerable time fishing. They both enjoy camping and the many scenic spots in the state. Friends paying tribute to the honored guest and Mrs. White were: Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Lawrence, Shirley Erickson, Frances Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Delton Magness, Mr. and Mrs. John Gunter, Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Palver, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Thorp, Imogene Wheeler, Clarence Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter, A.
