GOP Solons Back Basic School Cut

SALEM (UPI) — Twenty-one of the 29 Republican House members have voiced agreement with Gov. Mark Hatfield's plan to cut basic school support, and re-pass the $12 million one-shot speedup of withholding tax collections.

House Minority Leader F. F. Montgomery, Eugene, said the GOP caucus Sunday did not decide whether the legislature or the governor should make the cuts in basic school aid.

Montgomery, who has been calling for a sales tax to be referred to the people, said the Republicans agreed with the Democrats that there should be no bills to increase taxes now, but that does not preclude consideration of a sales tax.

Montgomery said the Republican House members felt legislation at the Nov. 11 special legislative session should be confined to the fiscal crisis. He said only the rules, ways and means and taxation committees should be activated.

At a meeting Friday, 11 of the Senate's 30 members said the Senate Rules and Ways and Means committees would be activated, and that the tax committee would be placed on a stand-by basis. There is Senate opposition to re-passage of the one-shot measure.

The 31-member Democratic majority in the House has not yet caucused.
