

MR. AND MRS. ELBERT BALL, above, prominent residents of Riddle, observed their golden wedding anniversary at a charming affair Oct. 16 in the Youth Center at Riddle. The Balls, who were married Oct. 10, 1913, in Roseburg, have resided in Riddle all of their married life. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

QUEEN of Zuleima Temple, Mrs. Murray (Marina) Gardiner, of Medford, paid her official visit to Zuleima South Douglas Nile Club at a dinner meeting held Friday evening at the Episcopal Parish Hall in Riddle. She was accompanied by a large number of her officers.

Official Visit Paid To Club

Zuleima South Douglas Nile Club honored their queen, Marina Gardiner, of Medford, at a lovely dinner Friday evening at the Episcopal Parish Hall in Riddle.

She was accompanied by the following: Edna Barnhart, princess royal, Gold Beach; Lilly Belle Cooley, princess Tirzah, Glendale; Pearl Moreland, Princess Recorder, Medford; Goldie Gunn, Princess Zora, Cottage Grove; Rosemond Orr, Princess Zuleima, Grants Pass; and Mary Ruth Thompson, Lady of the Gates, Glendale.

Other distinguished guests were: Minnie Bullock, Grants Pass, and Lucille Rice, Medford, past queens of Zuleima Temple No. 13.

Under the direction of Marvin Cornutt, the tables were beautifully decorated in the fall motif — leaves, fruits and cornucopias.

Covers were placed for guests and the following club members: Mrs. Veta Boyd, Zora Temple No. 5, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. W. M. Meyers, Mrs. Marvin Cornutt, Mrs. Eva Feoro, Mrs. Frank Danner, Mrs. Jack Doud, Mrs. Clifford Kent, Mrs. Stanley Harryman, Mrs. Shirley Hogg, Mrs. W. H. Stringer, Mrs. H. J. Gratz and Mrs. Wayne McCoy.

Queen Marina began her visitation on April 23. Since then she has visited 11 clubs. At her visit to South Douglas she shared a message, "Living With Ourselves." She spoke of how people built their lives, and asked, "Are we building with planks of love, joy, kindness, fairness and honesty, or are we using planks of second grade material — envy, meanness, hatred and jealousy."

The meeting closed with a short message from Princess Tirzah and an appropriate poem by Mrs. McCoy.

IT PAYS TO PATRONIZE NEWS-REVIEW ADVERTISERS

We Are Happy to Announce that

Diana Boyter

Has Joined the Staff at

MODERNE BEAUTY SALON

350 S.E. MAIN — Equitable Savings & Loan Bldg.

VALERIE PLUMLEE
ROSEMARY BURGE
ERMA JOHNSON

Open Evenings by Appointment

50th Anniversary Is Observed

In a setting of golden blossoms, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Ball received the 100 friends who came to offer their felicitations upon the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception held Sunday evening, October 16, in the Youth Center.

The reception was a token of affection planned by members of the Riddle First Baptist Church. Mrs. Ball has been an active member of the church for 51 years. The lovely flower arrangement complemented Mrs. Ball's blue lace jacket dress, which she wore with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The corsage and her husband's boutonniere were gifts from their children and grandchildren. The golden chrysanthemums were gifts from Mr. and Mrs. George Sosie.

Mrs. Stanley Dewar, general chairman for the reception, was responsible for the attractive floral arrangements. She was assisted by Mrs. Glen Abbott, Mrs. Arthur Boyd, Mrs. H. L. Boyd, Mrs. A. L. Matthews, Mrs. James Mealer and Mrs. Kenneth Paetz. The beautifully appointed refreshment table was graced by a four-tiered wedding cake in gold and white, surmounted by a miniature bride and bridegroom, and inscribed with the numerals "50." Mrs. Alfred Nichols baked and decorated the cake, assisted by Mrs. Joe Lakin and Mrs. James Mealer.

Mrs. E. E. Hart served the cake; Mrs. Ernest Pruner poured coffee; and Mrs. R. E. Roseburg.

Harvest Theme Is Used For Xi Omicron Potluck

A delightful potluck was held by members of Xi Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi, at the home of Mrs. Craig Short. Decorations on the serving table and about the living room used the fall and harvest theme.

Refreshments were served to Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Neil Christian, Miss Jean Crow, Mrs. James Fournier, Mrs. Donald Gingery, Mrs. Harry Hill, Miss Joan Harper, Mrs. John Horn, Mrs. Don LaBranche, Mrs. George Larsen, Mrs. Arnold Ryder, Mrs. Craig Short, Mrs. Robert Triplett and Mrs. R. L. Wiley.

The next meeting will be on Oct. 30 at the home of Mrs. Ryder. Mrs. Horn will present the cultural program.

Mrs. Ford Entertains Local Art Association

At the recent meeting of the Roseburg Art Association at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Ford, it was decided that the group would furnish pictures to be hung at both hospitals in Roseburg.

Refreshments were served on the patio. Assisting Mrs. Ford were Mrs. W. W. Spires, Mrs. Orvis Ford and Mrs. Lowell Rhoden.

Model Meeting Held Recently

Alpha Chi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held its model meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Joe Scallon.

Bob Van Vactor showed interesting slides taken on his trip to Moscow last spring. Beautiful pink dahlias were used on the serving table. Mrs. Gary Wilson and Mrs. Muri Storms served delicious refreshments to Mrs. Gene Bolen, Mrs. Chuck Edison, Mrs. John Faust, Mrs. Joe Scallon, Mrs. Bill Barker and guests, Mrs. Bill Brown and Mrs. Eldon Everton.

Prizes went to Mrs. Edison and Mrs. Bolen.

ONLY 2 DAYS LEFT!!

ANNUAL FUR SALE!

Restyling and Repairing At Special Low Prices!

Irwin Stern Fine Furs AT SALE PRICES!

BUDGET TERMS!

Open Fri. Night Until 9

615 SE Jackson 673-5015

Janice McGuire Becomes Bride

A lovely wedding took place Saturday, Oct. 12, at 8 p.m. ceremony when Miss Janice McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGuire of Springfield, and Sam Baimbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Baimbridge of Oakland, were united in marriage at the Springfield Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Otto Franks, pastor of the church, officiated. Church decorations were bronze and lavender cactus dahlias. Gary Brown sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given away by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of poi de sea, styled with the traditional long pointed sleeves, square scalloped neckline, buttons accenting the back and sleeves. The skirt had an apron panel and brush train of lace with soft pleats at the panel edges. The bride's bouquet was of lavender and white spider chrysanthemums with a corsage in the center.

The maid of honor was Miss Joan McGuire, sister of the bride. She wore lavender brocade over taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Serene Oberholte, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Phillip Peterson of Monmouth. Their dresses were of toast-colored taffeta, styled the same as that of the maid of honor. Elaine Oberholte was flower girl. She was dressed the same as the maid of honor and carried a small basket of lavender and toast-colored pom poms. Ring bearer was Tomas Qualley of Eugene, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Ted Baimbridge, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Raymond Spencer, cousin of the bridegroom's brother; and David and James McGuire, brothers of the bride.

A reception, given by the bride's parents, followed the ceremony and was held in the Fireplace Room of the church. Miss Cherie Vinson and Miss Marilyn McKinley cut the cake. Mrs. Rick Deighton served the punch, and Mrs. Robert Brownlee poured coffee. Miss Donna Bluhm had charge of the guest book, and the Misses Donna, Barbara and Carol McGuire had charge of the gifts.

For traveling, the bride wore a natural-colored suit with brown accessories and her wedding corsage. After a trip to the coast, the newlyweds are at home on Kellogg Rd., Oakland.

Oregon Is Home For Newlyweds

Myrtle Creek will be home for Mr. and Mrs. Cecil A. Wolfer Jr., who were married July 20 at Plattsburg, N.Y.

Mrs. Wolfer is the former Claudette Karen Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Black of Bremerton, Wash. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wolfer Sr. of Canyonville.

Following the marriage at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, the couple resided in Plattsburg where the bridegroom was stationed with the U.S. Air Force. Following his separation from the armed services Oct. 1 they took a belated wedding trip to Washington and Oregon.

Turkey Dinner Planned Nov. 2

The Women's Association of Oakland Community Presbyterian Church will hold its annual turkey dinner Saturday, Nov. 2, starting at 11:30 a.m. at the church.

Turkey and all the trimmings will be served. Bazaar articles, candy and baked foods will be sold.

Meet Thursday

Women of the Roseburg Country Club met Thursday at the clubhouse for noon luncheon followed by election of officers and the weekly card play. Winners were Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, first; Mrs. R. D. Brydges, second; and Mrs. W. F. Forrest, third. The annual fall guest-day bridge-luncheon will be an event of Thursday of this week at 12:15 noon at the clubhouse, at which time the new officers will be introduced. Bridge will be in play during the afternoon hours.

CHILDREN'S SHOE PRESCRIPTIONS

FILLED HERE

Millers

SHOE DEPT.—Main Floor

We carry a full line of Edwards Pedic shoes, fashionably styled for children whose feet need special attention. Your prescriptions filled accurately by our experienced shoe fitters with Edwards Pedic shoes.

Edwards SUPER-PEDIC S P

THE WEDDING of Janice McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGuire of Springfield, and Sam Baimbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Baimbridge of Oakland, was an event of Oct. 12 at the Springfield Lutheran Church. The Rev. Otto Franke officiated. (Picture by Care Studio, Sweet Home).

Yule Ceremony Is Held By WOM

Christmas trees and tinsel set the scene for the "Christmas in October" ceremony held by the Roseburg Chapter of the Women of the Moose at the Moose Home.

Welcomed as new members were Delaine Webber, who received her Hands of Friendship from Dorothy Buchanan, and Dixie Vadder whose membership was transferred from Santa Rosa, Calif. Co-worker Loretta Blank received her membership pin.

College of Regents members Bessie Cornish and Betty Wambolt gave talks on Mooseheart. Hazel Jameson spoke on Moosehaven, where she recently visited.

Members and guests participated in a silver march and offerings were presented for both Mooseheart and Moosehaven. Special guests for the evening were executive officers, John Melnick, Robert Croll, Ed Howell, Carl Martin and William Kissinger.

Refreshments were served by Marilyn Dickison and Isabel Penfield.

Ceremony Held For Mu Pledges

Mrs. James Shrum entertained members of Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at her home recently.

A lovely ceremony in which pledges, Mrs. Robert Adams, Mrs. Ron Elliott, and Mrs. Frank Snell received their Ritual of Jewels Degree was held. Mrs. Vern Ashby and Mrs. Jerry Coen presented interesting programs entitled "The History of Dress" and "The Art of Dress."

Mrs. Jerry Coen was elected to represent the chapter in the Beta Sigma Phi International Valentine contest.

The hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Dee Wilson, served refreshments to Mrs. R. D. Coen, Mrs. P. H. Helweg, Mrs. Robert Adams, Mrs. Vern Ashby, Mrs. Ken Boyce, Mrs. Jerry Coen, Mrs. John Cunningham, Mrs. Ron Elliott, Mrs. Dewey James, Mrs. Lauren Loveland, Mrs. Lee Miller, Mrs. Frank Snell, Mrs. Richard Snyder and Mrs. Bill Steele.

Potluck Held By Umpqua HEU

The Umpqua Home Extension Unit met Tuesday, with Mrs. James Archer and Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb demonstrating "Meals From the Freezer." The many delicious foods were served with the potluck dinner.

Mrs. Archer conducted the meeting. Project leaders for coming meetings were selected. The next meeting will be Nov. 5 when Mrs. Ralph Karlinger and Mrs. D. L. Nultemeier will have the project, "Let's Get Some Facts About Funerals." Joy Butler was appointed physical fitness chairman.

The group voted to give $25 toward an Oregon State University scholarship, as well as a 4-H scholarship.

A silent auction will be held at the next meeting, proceeds to go toward the scholarship.

STORMY WEATHER SAVINGS!

FREE FRIGIDAIRE RAINBOW UMBRELLA

An Umbrella With All The Sparkling Frigidaire Colors — Free With The Purchase of a Frigidaire Dishwasher

FRIGIDAIRE Model DW-SMB DISHWASHER

- You get big capacity — holds nine full place settings*
- Top rack folds out of way
- You get fully automatic operation
- You get roll-easy mobility — goes wherever you want it
- You can take it with you when you move — no installation needed, ever

$149<sup>95</sup>

OPEN FRIDAY NIGHTS TIL 9 P.M.

Umpqua Valley DISHWASHERS AND APPLIANCE

648-658 S. E. Rose St. Ph. 672-1616 635 S. E. Stephens