

Melrose Pair Visits Relatives During Four-Week Vacation

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Driskell have returned to Melrose following a four-week trip to points in Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas. They visited West Plains and Ava, Mo., which is Driskell's birth place. Other stops to visit various relatives were made in Mountain Grove, Mo., and Imboden, Walnut Ridge and Powhatan, Ark. They toured Boot Hill in Dodge City, Kans., and stopped at Hodson's Mill in Missouri. Mrs. Driskell was on vacation from her job with Farmer's Insurance Co. Her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, worked in her place at the office.

Couple Makes Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huffham returned Sunday from a visit with friends in Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Stinner are home following a week's hunting trip to Yukon Valley. They took their house trailer.

Edward Nielsen spent Saturday in Portland attending the Pacific International Livestock Show with the FFA team.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Chitwood drove to Medford recently to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kennedy.

Taking advantage of the last few days of deer hunting season were Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Tjomsland, who took their trailer house to Silver Lake during the weekend. Also at Silver Lake were Yale Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. David Schrader and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reece. Mrs. H. A. Densmore hunted with friends in the Drain area. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Trusty spent the weekend hunting at Yansy. Mr. and Mrs. Clarson Chitwood and sons and Ed and Ted Reece were among those going to the football game at Cottage Grove Friday night.

Navy Family Moves

Mrs. Harold Thompson and children have moved to Southern California where Thompson is currently serving in the Navy.

Mrs. Dee Seitz of California is currently residing with her daughter, Mrs. Frank O'Brien. On Sunday the two women drove to Portland to take Mrs. Seitz' grandson, Ronald Wood, to his home.

Mrs. Warren Lathen returned Monday to her studies at the University of Oregon where she is majoring in education after spending the weekend at the family home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ross have traded their home here to Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Eugene and moved to that city. Hansen is Boy Scout executive in this area.

Frank O'Brien has been ill of Cleveland Hill Road, but is now back at work.

Mrs. Charles DeHart and son, Jerry, spent Monday and Tuesday visiting friends in Sweet Home. Jerry is on a two-week Navy leave from San Diego.

J. P. Bathrick is recuperating from a badly bruised leg suffered last week when his motorcycle was involved in a minor accident with a car on Harvard Blvd.

Camas Valley PTA Slates Public Spaghetti Dinner

By MRS. DAVE THRUSH

The Camas Valley PTA will sponsor a spaghetti dinner in the school cafeteria on Saturday, Nov. 2, between the hours of 5:30 and 7 p.m. This is an annual fund-raising dinner for the benefit of the scholarship fund of the PTA. All area residents are invited to attend.

The regular PTA meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 4, at 7:45 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Grange Holds Social

The Camas Valley Grange social night was well attended Tuesday evening. After cards and other table games were played refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown have returned home after spending the past three weeks hunting and fishing in the China Hat area in Eastern Oregon.

Judy Dancer, who is attending Link's Business college in Boise, Idaho, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dancer. The Dancer's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Looney, and boys, Danny and Gayland, all of Tiller, spent Saturday night and Sunday with the family. Later on in the week Dancer's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Dancer from Spokane, arrived for a couple of days' visiting.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Camas Valley Methodist Church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Guy Moore for an all day meeting. They spent the morning tying a quilt. In the afternoon Mrs. Ernest Wheeler led the worship service and also gave the lesson on "A Call to Prayer and Self Denial," with all the women taking part in the lesson. There were 2 women present. The next meeting will be at the church on Nov. 13 at 1:30 p.m.

Sutherlin Schools Set Picture-Taking Date

By MRS. WILLIAM BLAKELEY

Individual pictures of Sutherlin school district students and pre-schoolers will be taken at East Elementary School on Saturday between 9 a.m. and noon and 1-4 p.m., it was announced by Mrs. Kent Pulley, vice president of the co-sponsoring junior high school PTA.

The picture taking project is an annual one sponsored jointly by the East and junior high PTAs.

Those having pictures taken are under no obligation to buy them, Mrs. Kent reported.

School Calendars At Sutherlin Soon Ready For Distribution

By MRS. WILLIAM BLAKELEY

A report from the Sutherlin West Side School PTA by Mrs. George Warren, president, states that the school calendar is ready to go to press and will soon be distributed to all parents. This is a new project this year and will keep the parents informed of all school activities for the year.

Recently the PTA assisted in the taking of heights and weights, and checking of eyes at the school. Mrs. Dale Cannon was in charge. Mothers assisting were Mrs. Carlen Bratton, Mrs. James Brown, Mrs.

Robert Campbell, Mrs. L. H. Fite, Mrs. Orlo Handy, Mrs. Tom Pearson, Mrs. Paul Sellers and Mrs. Wallace Rondeau.

Room mothers for the year have been selected, and the 35 mothers met Wednesday in the teachers' room with the home room chairman, Mrs. Robert Campbell.

Californians Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stowe and family, Madeline, Dianne and Bobby of Los Angeles, have spent the week visiting in Sutherlin with the former's mother, Mrs. George Beecroft, and friends. Mrs. Pat Fetters spent the weekend in Eastern Oregon hunting and reported she was successful in getting her deer.

She also visited with her sister, Mrs. Kobart Osborn of Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Herndon and children, Janis and Jim, spent the weekend in Beaverton visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Durrell Gear and children, Milton and Cherril. Returning home through Corvallis, they stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Larkin. The two men had been prisoners of war in Germany during World War II, and had not seen each other since the end of the war. Herndon has been successful during past years in reuniting many of the men who were in the same camp.

Mary Bade of Sutherlin is recuperating at her home following eye surgery at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene. Mary, who is the honored queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 42, will be confined to her home for at least six weeks and would appreciate having company.
