

Twelve Face Death Penalty In Trial Condemned By U.N.

PRETORIA, South Africa (UPI)—Eleven men—Africans, whites, and an Indian—today faced sabotage charges that carry a possible death penalty in a trial condemned by the United Nations.

They include two former leaders of the banned African National Congress (ANC) and the son of a former member of parliament.

They are charged with organizing or committing 222 acts of sabotage, including bomb attacks and raids on jails and police stations, in the two years before their capture last summer.

The state accuses the group of trying to prepare for guerrilla warfare within South Africa and armed invasion from without to overthrow the government of Premier Hendrik Verwoerd.

The United Nations urged earlier this month that South Africa stop the trial and free the prisoners. It was apparent from speeches supporting the

Red China Delegate Courts Soviet Friendship

MOSCOW (UPI)—A Chinese Communist, in a marked departure from the usual Peking line, told 6,000 applauding Russians and others today the Chinese favor peaceful coexistence and continued friendship with the Soviet Union.

Chao Kuo-chiang, secretary of the All China Federation of Trade Unions, spoke of mutual solidarity in a speech to the 13th Soviet trade union congress.

He seemed, however, to stress people-to-people friendship between China and Russia rather than party and governmental relations.

His brief address, in moderate tones, followed a weekend appeal by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev for an end to the bitter propaganda exchanges that have poisoned party and governmental relations between Peking and Moscow during the past year.

He gave clear approval to peaceful coexistence, the main bone of contention between Peking and Moscow.

"We are firmly fighting the policy of aggression and war conducted by the imperialists for the implementation of peaceful coexistence between countries with different social systems," Chao said.

With Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in the hall, trade union chief Viktor Grishin Monday attacked Peking's policies and urged unionists throughout the world to rally to Moscow.

Grishin, one of the Soviet negotiators at last summer's unsuccessful ideological talks with Chinese leaders here, told the union members of "serious differences" between the two Communist nations. He said they went beyond Communist party relations and created an "abnormal" situation between the two governments.

(In Peking Monday, Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi told visiting Japanese journalists that China will not be able to develop its own atomic bomb for several years. He blamed many factors for the delay, including the withdrawal of Soviet aid and technicians.)

These geologists at left, examining terrain near Shiprock in northern New Mexico, are part of a team of modern explorers searching for new gas reserves. They travel by jeep, helicopter and afoot in this continuing program to seek out new supplies for your future comfort. Natural gas, formed millions of years ago, is a resource which will serve the West far into the future. Each year new reserves are found, keeping well ahead of the growing demand for America's most modern fuel. Heating, cooking, water heating—and scores of payroll-building commercial and industrial uses—are among the benefits brought to the West today by natural gas. If you're now enjoying the benefits of natural gas it's partly because of the team of highly trained people who bring it to you. If you're not a user of natural gas, it is easy to become one.*
