

Nancy Wilson Becomes Bride

The First Presbyterian Church in Portland was the scene Sept. 23 of the wedding of Nancy Wilson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles P. Wilson of Roseburg, and Lt. John R. Eskeldson, U.S. Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Eskeldson of Lebanon.

The 4 p.m. single ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Paul S. Wright before 150 guests.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She was clad in a full-length gown of lace which had been worn by her sister, Mrs. Donald Quesenberry of Patterson, Calif. The dress was designed with a bouffant skirt over a hoop. Her fingertip veil was secured by a dainty Juliet cap, and her flowers were white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. D. V. Macdonald of Eugene, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Quesenberry and Miss Marilyn Eskeldson of Lebanon, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They were charming in cyclamen pink sheath frocks of taffeta with full overskirt. Their bouquets were cascades of pale pink dahlias.

David Eskeldson was best man for his brother. Ushering duties were performed by Kent Wells of Lebanon and J. C. Chambers and Darryl Duncan, Daniel Eskeldson, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Following the wedding, the parents of the bride were host and hostess at a reception held at the church.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip, the bride wearing an oxford gray suit with red accessories. After Nov. 1 the couple will be at home at Fort Meade, Md.

The bride attending University of New Mexico. The bridegroom was graduated from Oregon State University.

Going to Portland from Roseburg to attend the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Merker.

Toastmistress Club Meets

Roseburg Toastmistress Club met recently at the Grand Jury room in the courthouse. Golda Nickell, president, welcomed the members and guests Jane Hartman, Mollie Peterson, Edith Roberts, Miriam Hill and Marlys Parkhurst.

Frances Alexander, topicmistress, asked each member to recount some humorous incident in their lives. Induction of a new member Bertha Stockfish was conducted by Maple Lyons.

Following the business meeting, Toastmistress Frances Luoma introduced Barbara Alexander, who gave a most instructive talk on education, followed by a word test by Jackie Davidson, lexicologist. Iva Schweppe discussed pros and cons of the tax bill, and Maple Lyons spoke on "What is a Toastmistress?"

Mollie Peterson demonstrated changes in a black basic dress, using various accessories. Barbara Alexander acted as model.

Golda Nickell gave the timer's report, after which Edith Roberts evaluated the meeting. Bertha Stockfish gave the closing thought.

Joint Meeting Held Monday

Myrtle Creek and Roseburg Toastmistress clubs held a joint meeting Oct. 21 at Duffy's Piano Roll Inn.

The theme of the meeting, which was presided over by Lila Neel, was "Harvest Time - 1963." Invocation and pledge of allegiance were by Bertha Blackett. Lois Rice assigned the topic "How I Have Improved My Life in the Last 9 1/2 Months."

Maple Lyons was Toastmistress and introduced Jackie DeGroot, who reminisced entertainingly about her childhood years when she helped with the family walnut harvest. Jackie Davidson gave some helpful tips for remembering names. Timer Margaret Clay gave her report, and Eva Peero acted as general evaluator. Closing thought was by Carol Pitts.

Hostess Mary Lowandowski arranged the beautiful centerpiece, a large pumpkin filled with autumn flowers.

Has Birthday

A family dinner Saturday evening at Canyonville honored the sixth birthday of Peggy Adele Clifton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clifton.

Forest Glen Senior Residence

YOUR HEALTH

You have a staff of three physicians at Forest Glen to look after your health. Your complete medical history is recorded when you enter, enabling our doctors to follow closely your health needs. This does not mean that you must be in perfect health. It would be foolish to expect physical perfection in persons 62 years of age. You can come into our home in a wheel chair or on crutches so long as you are able to feed yourself and care for your personal needs. Of course those in the advanced stages of any disabling disease would not be eligible.

YOUR FOOD

Among the most important needs of an elderly person is proper food. There is a graduate dietitian at Forest Glen to see that our members receive the proper nourishment and variety of food. Those in need of special diet have special foods to meet their needs.

ACCESS TO FRIENDS

You will meet and make friends here at Forest Glen. More than this you are within easy reach of your family and other friends. They will be able to come to you here for a visit with overnight accommodations.

MODERATE RATES

Forest Glen is designed to meet the needs of those with moderate incomes. The home offers the most security and medical care of any similar home in the Northwest.
