Dillard Family Slates Move

By PHEBE MCGUIRE

Mr. and Mrs. John Sanborn of East Willis Creek in Dillard have sold their home and are planning to move to Alsea where they have purchased an acreage of orchards including opening a fruit stand. The Sanborns have resided in Dillard for the past 11 years. He has been in construction work besides caring for the ranch they are selling. They will remain in Dillard until after Christmas in order that their son, who is stationed in the U. S. Navy may be home for the holidays and be with his many friends in the area. They also have a married son and a daughter in junior high school, as well as a son in grade school.

Dear Abby!

It's Too Late Now!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: Six weeks ago a neighbor of ours lost a child. They were all broken up about it and the mother was under sedation for several weeks. Our problem is we did not send them a sympathy card and now it is bothering me. Do you think it would give them a lift if we sent them a card now? We need an answer.

NEIGHBORS

DEAR NEIGHBORS: Don't send a card now. It could only open old wounds. Only one who has just learned of a loss can properly send a condolence message six weeks later.

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago a new girl moved into our neighborhood. She is 12 and I am 13. My mother insisted that I be nice to her, because this girl didn't know anyone. She has turned out to be the world's biggest pest. She is a show-off and loud mouth. She calls me on the phone and invites herself over. Sometimes she doesn't call, she just appears at the door. Once she is inside, she will not leave. I have run out of excuses to give her. Please help me.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: When she telephones you, tell her you can't invite her over because you have studying to do, or have to help your mother. When she appears at the door, greet her with the above information, and tell her she may come in—but only for ten minutes. She'll catch on.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married several years now—I might add, to a good man. But a very important matter has come up, which is: This man was married before and his first wife was (and still is) in a mental hospital. They have children. As far as I know he never was divorced from her, but he said, under the circumstances, it was all right to get married again. I would like to know, is our marriage legal? I am not a young woman and I have never earned my own living. Thank you.

THINKING OUT LOUD

DEAR THINKING: There are NO circumstances under which a man may marry again while he is still married to another woman.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "J.": We may not ask of God, "Why did this have to happen?" Rather should we say, "Since this HAS happened, Lord, give me the strength to bear it, and show me where to go from here." Then refrain from adding the burden of your own sorrow to the troubles of those who love you.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

A DIRTY MESS

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—The owner of a San Diego janitorial service was arrested Monday on suspicion of breaking more than 200 dirty windows he was hired to clean.

Police said Bernard G. Pollard, 34, of the Dependable Maintenance and Janitorial Service, had hoped the customer would blame juveniles for the breakage. But a private investigator took films of the incident, officers said.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey were in Portland over the weekend to attend the football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton will celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary by holding open house at their home at 1064 SE Douglas Ave. Sunday, Nov. 3, from 2 to 6 p.m. Relatives and friends are invited to call and have been requested to please not give gifts.

Mrs. Deming Bronson returned Sunday after a trip to Seattle, Wash., where she attended the funeral of Mrs. Crawford (Doris) Morrill, sister of the late Deming Bronson. Mrs. Morrill was very well known in Roseburg having visited here a number of times at the Bronson home.

Past Matrons Club of Roseburg Chapter, OES, will meet at a 7:30 p.m. dessert-supper Monday, Nov. 4, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wimberly on SE Lane Ave. with Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. W. E. Hercher, Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. W. F. Harris, and Miss Ethel Webb as hostesses.

Mrs. Mabel McMillen and Mrs. Odile Messing have returned to their homes, following a 32-day trip by Trailways up through Washington, across Canada to Montreal and then down into the New England states to Boston. From there they went to New York, toured Manhattan Island, the Statue of Liberty, United Nations and went up to the top of the Empire State Building. In Washington, D.C. they were met by Sen. Wayne Morse, who took them into the United States Senate, where they heard him speak. Mrs. Morse sat with the tour group while they were in the Senate. They toured all the places of interest in Washington, D.C. and went to Mount Vernon, home of this country's first president. They started west through the Virginias, stopping at places of interest, and then on to Chicago, across South Dakota, where they stopped over in Mitchell to see the Corn Palace, which is redone every year at a cost of $10,000. They visited the Badlands and Mt. Rushmore and returned home via Billings and Missoula, Mont., where a farewell banquet was held, before Washington tour members returned to their homes. There were 37 tour members besides the bus driver and the escort. They report a most interesting and enjoyable vacation. The tour through six Canadian provinces, 24 states, three of which the group were in twice, covered 7,832 miles, from Portland and back to Portland, not including all of the sight-seeing tours on different buses.

BACK IN TOWN

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy returned to the White House late Monday afternoon from her new home near Atoka, Va. The President and their two children returned Monday morning by helicopter. Mrs. Kennedy was driven back in a station wagon.

Terry Watters, sophomore at Oregon State University at Corvallis, spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Roseburg visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Watters.

Joe Sayre, Dr. Bruce Tuck, Mel Taylor and Fred Harder returned Monday from a trip to the Ontario region in Eastern Oregon to hunt birds. They made the trip in Sayre's plane.

Senior Citizens (residents 50 and over) are invited to enjoy the all-day meeting Friday, Nov. 1, at the YMCA. This group, which is YMCA sponsored, will meet from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. with a 12:30 noon potluck luncheon. Those attending are asked to bring food for the potluck and their own table service. Hostesses for the occasion include Mrs. Rose Mitchell, Mrs. Ethel Harris and Mrs. Pearl Shugart.

Glenn H. Taylor of Roseburg left Tuesday for Portland to attend the funeral of his brother, Ray W. Taylor, 63, which took place at 11:30 a.m. today at Homan Mortuary on Hawthorne Ave. Ray had been ill the last two years and was in a coma the last six months. In 1920 Ray was associated with his brother, Glenn, in the Service Garage on N. Jackson St. in Roseburg. He is survived by his wife, Catherine, of Portland; a twin brother, Dr. Ralph L. Taylor, of Bellingham, Wash.; two brothers, Glenn, Roseburg, and H. H. Taylor, Oakland, Calif., and sisters, Vera Onthank of Portland, Mrs. J. A. (Mildred) Rankin, of Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton V. Jackson are back at their home in Roseburg, following a trip to Portland to attend to business and attend the football game.

Mrs. John Byron of Tulelake, Calif., former Roseburg resident, was an overnight visitor here Monday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Deb Abraham, and Mr. Abraham. She was en route home following a week's stay in Seaside with her sister, Mrs. Dale Smith, and family. Mrs. Smith recently underwent surgery and is now convalescing at her home. Mrs. Smith is the former Mary Rowland of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Del McKay of this city were in Portland over the weekend for the football game. They were accompanied to Portland by Mrs. William Garrison, who joined her husband there. Mr. Garrison had gone earlier in the week to attend the Bank meeting. Mrs. Garrison was also joined in Portland by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, former Roseburg residents and who now make their home in Ballard, Wash., where Brown is manager of the Elks Lodge, the same position which he held while living here.
