

Helicopters Seek Three Men Believed Held By Viet Cong

SAIGON. South Viet Nam government troops fired on Bud- (UPI)—Forty-five U. S. helicopter demonstrators May 8, killers today spearheaded a search- ing nine.

Two of the men, both Army officers, were believed to be wounded.

The condition of the third, an enlisted medical technician, was not known.

The Defense Department in Washington identified the Americans as Capt. Humbert R. Versace of Baltimore, Md.; First Lt. James N. Rowe of McAlester, Tex.; and Sgt. Daniel L. Pitzer of Spring Lake, N. C. They were officially listed as missing.

In another development, three members of the United Nations observer mission to Viet Nam left Wednesday for the city of Hue in central Viet Nam, where the government's crisis with the Buddhists began last May.

Roseburg City Police are continuing their investigation into the theft of about $120 in coin money taken Sunday night from coin-operated laundry machines at the South Stephens Wash and Dry.

Lookingglass Girls Start Cooking Club

A junior 4-H cooking club was organized recently in Lookingglass under the leadership of Mrs. Tom Hubbard. Officers for the new club includes Susan Loerts, president; Cindy Leigh, vice president; Lori Niebaum, secretary; and Janet Reagles, reporter. The group will hold monthly meetings until their project is completed.

Additional members of the club are Sue Smith, Karen Boling, Lois Titus, Debbie Keeney and Thora Hubbard, according to Hazel Marsh, correspondent.

TOP OFFICERS HERE — The Insurance Women's Association of Roseburg hosted a sub-regional conference for Region IX of the National Association of Insurance Women last weekend which drew representatives from several Oregon clubs and guests from Washington and Montana, as well as several distinguished visitors. Plans were launched at the meeting for the 1965 national convention to be held in Seattle. Local women accepting chairmanships in connection with the convention were Gloria Wright, Nancy Linno and Sibel Endicott. Pictured above at the meeting, from left, are: Miss Margaret L. Nelson, Great Falls, Mont., regional director of District IX; Mrs. Lillian Marsters, president of the Roseburg chapter; Mrs. Ethel I. Miller, Tacoma, Wash., president of the national association; Miss Aileen Skirving, Seattle, Wash., public relations coordinator for the 1965 national convention; and Miss Glodys Main, Seattle, co-chairman for the national convention. Miss Main is also a past national president. (News-Review photo by Chris)

Murder Trial In Fourth Day

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI)—The Thompson "murder for hire" trial headed today for ignition of the fireworks. That may come by Friday. Veteran observers said the jury could be picked by then.

The trial of the little man from St. Paul, the criminal attorney with the piercing eyes and the silvery-mousy crewcut, entered its fourth day today with five jurors yet to be chosen. They are three members of the regular panel plus two alternates.

Timmer Eugene Thompson, the criminal attorney who at 35 was plunged into tragedy when his wife was slain last spring and three months later became the center of shocked and angered interest in the Twin Cities when he was indicted on a charge of murder, has been taking a sort of mental beating in the jury picking.

Three-fifths of all the persons examined as prospective jurors Wednesday in Hennepin County District Court were excused from duty because they said they were opinionated as to his guilt.

The trial was brought here on a change of venue from the Twin City of St. Paul, where the murder was committed. The issue that won the location switch was that publicity in St. Paul tended to create bias among prospective jurors.

The state of Minnesota accuses Thompson of first degree murder in the bludgeon-knifing of his pretty wife Carol, 34, mother of four and devoted church worker whose life was insured for $1,081,000 in policies of which Thompson was the beneficiary. It will try to prove that he masterminded a three-man plot to do away with her.

Damage Suit Total Nears $500,000 In Tragic Roseburg Speedway Crash

Damage suits totaling close to the $500,000 mark were filed in Douglas County Circuit Court by victims of the Aug. 31 tragedy at the Roseburg Speedway. A racing car plummeted into a bleacher section killing two and injuring more than 20 persons.

Four additional suits were filed this week, asking damages for a total of $93,775. Previously four other suits asked damages in excess of $380,000. It is understood several other legal actions are being prepared.

Ima Jean Bell, administratrix of the estate of Orval Bell, asks $25,000 general damages for Bell's death at the age of 27. He was one of two persons killed. She also asks $1,080.85 as funeral expenses.

Defendants are the same persons listed in the first complaints filed by a different attorney firm. Defendants are Roseburg Speedway, Inc.; Pacific Racing Association; Mock Motors, Inc.; Marion C. Van Osten, driver of the fatal racing car which left the track and jumped the fence landing in the bleachers; D & D Bowl, Inc., and Hal Welker, with whom Van Osten's car collided causing it to go out of control. Mock Motors is listed as a backer of Van Osten, and D & D Bowl as a backer of Welker.

Mrs. Bell, only survivor of Orval Bell, asks $18,000 general and $225 special damages for her own injuries suffered in the crash. She claims she suffered permanent injuries to her back and spine, that she was knocked unconscious and suffers headaches; that she suffered head laceration, bruised right leg, deep laceration on her right forearm, and laceration of the right eyelid, both of the latter resulting in permanent scarring and disfigurement, together with shock and pain.
