

THE GOLDEN WEDDING of Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Bailliss was celebrated Oct. 20 at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rice. The couple was married Oct. 16, 1912, in Pomeroy, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Bailliss are pictured above with their anniversary cake. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography)

Feted Oct. 20

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Bailliss was celebrated at a delightful reception held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rice. The couple was married Oct. 16, 1912, in Pomeroy, Wash.

For the occasion Mrs. Bailliss wore a becoming lace dress trimmed with satin. Her corsage was a cluster of carnations.

Dominating the beautifully appointed serving table was the lovely three-tiered cake, flanked by tall, slim gold tapers.

Coming from out of town to attend the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Beale of Pomeroy, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bailliss, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. L. Snodgrass, Clarkston, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailliss, Edmonds, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Snodgrass and Mr. and Mrs. John Snodgrass, Grangeville, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Snodgrass, Boise, Idaho; Mrs. Viola Snodgrass, Lewiston, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowland, Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Keva Hutchinson, Medford; and Mr. and Mrs. Perle Skinner, Waldo Bailliss and Mrs. Sue Waldron, all of Portland.

Wed Saturday

Robert Patterson of Grants Pass, a former Glendale resident, and Louise Walters of Grants Pass were married Saturday, Oct. 26, at the First Christian Church in Grants Pass.

Patterson is a partner in the Patterson Lumber Co. in Glendale.

Those in attendance at the ceremony from Glendale included Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson; Mr. and Mrs. Henry La Prath, Mrs. Fred Kafer and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edson.

Mrs. Savage Club Hostess

Mrs. Robert H. Savage was a most gracious hostess Wednesday, when she entertained at a charming 12:30 noon luncheon at her beautiful home on SE Claire St. A gorgeous arrangement of white chrysanthemums graced the serving table, while gold-colored chrysanthemums were used in the living room.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. Edward M. Murphy, Mrs. Glenn Gibbons, Mrs. P. C. Quisenberry, Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, Mrs. W. L. Tozer, Mrs. Carl Teague and the hostess, Mrs. Savage.

High contract for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Bailey with Mrs. Gibbons winning the second high score.

Coming from out of town to attend the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Beale of Pomeroy, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bailliss, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. L. Snodgrass, Clarkston, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailliss, Edmonds, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Snodgrass and Mr. and Mrs. John Snodgrass, Grangeville, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Snodgrass, Boise, Idaho; Mrs. Viola Snodgrass, Lewiston, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowland, Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Keva Hutchinson, Medford; and Mr. and Mrs. Perle Skinner, Waldo Bailliss and Mrs. Sue Waldron, all of Portland.

Wed Saturday

Robert Patterson of Grants Pass, a former Glendale resident, and Louise Walters of Grants Pass were married Saturday, Oct. 26, at the First Christian Church in Grants Pass.

Patterson is a partner in the Patterson Lumber Co. in Glendale.

Those in attendance at the ceremony from Glendale included Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson; Mr. and Mrs. Henry La Prath, Mrs. Fred Kafer and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edson.

A BEAUTIFUL BRIDE of Oct. 18 was Sally Jo Myers of Springfield, daughter of Mrs. Earl M. Preston of Springfield and the late Edwin Myers of Roseburg, who was married to Darrel Taze Stafek, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stafek of Salem. The wedding took place at Ebbert Memorial Methodist Church in Springfield. The couple will reside at 5292 Main, Apt. 7, Springfield.

Sally Jo Myers Now Mrs. Stafek

The day marking the 53rd wedding anniversary of the bride's maternal grandparents was the day chosen by Sally Jo Myers of Springfield for her marriage to Darrel Taze Stafek of Salem. The date, Oct. 18, was also the 15th anniversary of the wedding of the bride's uncle and aunt.

The wedding took place at 7:30 p.m. at Ebbert Memorial Methodist Church in Springfield, the Rev. C. T. Barton, uncle of the bridegroom, performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Earl Preston of Springfield and the late Edwin Myers of Roseburg. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stafek of Salem.

White gladioli with white stock and pink and white carnations combined with the traditional candelabra to form the altar decorations. Candelights and candles before the ceremony.

E. L. Myrick of Eugene was organist. Monte Wagner of Roseburg sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by Earl M. Preston, her stepfather. She was lovely in her white bridal gown, the bodice of which was fashioned of lace with scalloped neckline dipping to a V in back. The skirt was floor-length, of silk tulle with a large bow having floor-length streamers. Her fingertip veil flowed from a delicate seed pearl and crystal crown. She carried an heirloom white handkerchief and her cousin's prayer book topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bruce Michaels of Pittsburgh, Pa., the former Diane Myers of Roseburg. She wore cranberry red faille, designed with empire bodice, bell skirt and three-quarter-length sleeves. Bridesmaids, Miss Gail Baird of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Cal Tichenor of Eugene, wore hot pink, their dresses designed the same as the gown worn by Mrs. Michaels. All of the bride's attendants wore net headdresses and slippers to match their frocks and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations, Stephanotis and red and pink rosebuds.

Following a honeymoon at the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are at home at 5292 Main, Apt. 7, Springfield.

The bride lived in Roseburg for 14 years. She attended local schools and was graduated from Roseburg High School. She was graduated from Oregon State University this spring. During her college days, she worked summers in Roseburg at the Southern Oregon Log Scaling and Grading Bureau. She is currently teaching business in Thurston Junior High School in Springfield.

The bridegroom was graduated from Salem High School and Oregon State University. He will enter U.S. Navy officers training school in Pensacola, Fla.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Nelson B. Higgs, grandmother of the bride from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barton of Salem, grandparents of the bridegroom.

Twins Kim and Karen Matula of Lebanon were flower girls. They and the candlelighters wore cranberry faille dresses similar to those worn by the bride's attendants.

The duties of best man were performed by Jerry Stafek, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's fraternity brothers, Dennis Spitz of Nyssa and Gail McCarty of John Day, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Preston wore a smart purple and moss green silk print dress with moss green accessories and a green orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was attractive in cranberry red. Her accessories matched her dress and she wore a pink orchid.

One hundred fifty guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed. The beautiful five-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Bill Nancy and Janet Petrowicz, Petrowicz, aunt of the bride, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

E. L. Myrick of Eugene was organist. Monte Wagner of Roseburg sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by Earl M. Preston, her stepfather. She was lovely in her white bridal gown, the bodice of which was fashioned of lace with scalloped neckline dipping to a V in back. The skirt was floor-length, of silk tulle with a large bow having floor-length streamers. Her fingertip veil flowed from a delicate seed pearl and crystal crown. She carried an heirloom white handkerchief and her cousin's prayer book topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bruce Michaels of Pittsburgh, Pa., the former Diane Myers of Roseburg. She wore cranberry red faille, designed with empire bodice, bell skirt and three-quarter-length sleeves. Bridesmaids, Miss Gail Baird of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Cal Tichenor of Eugene, wore hot pink, their dresses designed the same as the gown worn by Mrs. Michaels. All of the bride's attendants wore net headdresses and slippers to match their frocks and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations, Stephanotis and red and pink rosebuds.

Following a honeymoon at the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are at home at 5292 Main, Apt. 7, Springfield.

The bride lived in Roseburg for 14 years. She attended local schools and was graduated from Roseburg High School. She was graduated from Oregon State University this spring. During her college days, she worked summers in Roseburg at the Southern Oregon Log Scaling and Grading Bureau. She is currently teaching business in Thurston Junior High School in Springfield.

The bridegroom was graduated from Salem High School and Oregon State University. He will enter U.S. Navy officers training school in Pensacola, Fla.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Nelson B. Higgs, grandmother of the bride from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barton of Salem, grandparents of the bridegroom.

A CHARMING LUNCHEON honoring Mrs. I.J. Bean, above left, who is moving to Tacoma, Wash., with her family next week, was given Tuesday at the

Roseburg Country Club fireplace room by Mrs. Rex Roberts, Mrs. Ralph Chman and Mrs. Spencer Yates. (News-Review photo)

Party Given

A charming luncheon and farewell party was given by Mrs. Spencer Yates, Mrs. Ralph Ohman and Mrs. Rex Roberts at the Roseburg Country Club Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. I. J. Bean, who with her husband and their five children, David, Mike, Phil, Dick and Cindy, will move next week to Tacoma, Wash.

Deep maroon and gold chrysanthemums flanked by yellow lighted tapers graced the table. Beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Bean from the three hostesses and Mrs. C. H. Bab-bitt, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. W. F. Forrest, Mrs. Emil Ram-berg, Mrs. Dale Roles, Mrs. Jack Davis, Mrs. Byron Wood-ruff, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Del McKay, Mrs. Randolph Slocum, Mrs. Thomas Garrison, Mrs. Kenneth Clayton, Mrs. Eugene Krewson, Mrs. William Shapero, Mrs. H. E. DeBarnard Jr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Before leaving on her wedding trip, the bride tossed her bouquet, and it was caught by her cousin, Janet Petrowicz. For traveling, the new Mrs. Stafek wore a cranberry red three-piece suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Following a honeymoon at the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are at home at 5292 Main, Apt. 7, Springfield.

The bride lived in Roseburg for 14 years. She attended local schools and was graduated from Roseburg High School. She was graduated from Oregon State University this spring. During her college days, she worked summers in Roseburg at the Southern Oregon Log Scaling and Grading Bureau. She is currently teaching business in Thurston Junior High School in Springfield.

The bridegroom was graduated from Salem High School and Oregon State University. He will enter U.S. Navy officers training school in Pensacola, Fla.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Nelson B. Higgs, grandmother of the bride from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barton of Salem, grandparents of the bridegroom.

Twins Kim and Karen Matula of Lebanon were flower girls. They and the candlelighters wore cranberry faille dresses similar to those worn by the bride's attendants.

The duties of best man were performed by Jerry Stafek, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's fraternity brothers, Dennis Spitz of Nyssa and Gail McCarty of John Day, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Preston wore a smart purple and moss green silk print dress with moss green accessories and a green orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was attractive in cranberry red. Her accessories matched her dress and she wore a pink orchid.

One hundred fifty guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed. The beautiful five-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Bill Nancy and Janet Petrowicz, Petrowicz, aunt of the bride, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

E. L. Myrick of Eugene was organist. Monte Wagner of Roseburg sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by Earl M. Preston, her stepfather. She was lovely in her white bridal gown, the bodice of which was fashioned of lace with scalloped neckline dipping to a V in back. The skirt was floor-length, of silk tulle with a large bow having floor-length streamers. Her fingertip veil flowed from a delicate seed pearl and crystal crown. She carried an heirloom white handkerchief and her cousin's prayer book topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bruce Michaels of Pittsburgh, Pa., the former Diane Myers of Roseburg. She wore cranberry red faille, designed with empire bodice, bell skirt and three-quarter-length sleeves. Bridesmaids, Miss Gail Baird of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Cal Tichenor of Eugene, wore hot pink, their dresses designed the same as the gown worn by Mrs. Michaels. All of the bride's attendants wore net headdresses and slippers to match their frocks and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations, Stephanotis and red and pink rosebuds.

Following a honeymoon at the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are at home at 5292 Main, Apt. 7, Springfield.

The bride lived in Roseburg for 14 years. She attended local schools and was graduated from Roseburg High School. She was graduated from Oregon State University this spring. During her college days, she worked summers in Roseburg at the Southern Oregon Log Scaling and Grading Bureau. She is currently teaching business in Thurston Junior High School in Springfield.

The bridegroom was graduated from Salem High School and Oregon State University. He will enter U.S. Navy officers training school in Pensacola, Fla.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Nelson B. Higgs, grandmother of the bride from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barton of Salem, grandparents of the bridegroom.

Twins Kim and Karen Matula of Lebanon were flower girls. They and the candlelighters wore cranberry faille dresses similar to those worn by the bride's attendants.

The duties of best man were performed by Jerry Stafek, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's fraternity brothers, Dennis Spitz of Nyssa and Gail McCarty of John Day, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Preston wore a smart purple and moss green silk print dress with moss green accessories and a green orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was attractive in cranberry red. Her accessories matched her dress and she wore a pink orchid.

One hundred fifty guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed. The beautiful five-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Bill Nancy and Janet Petrowicz, Petrowicz, aunt of the bride, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

E. L. Myrick of Eugene was organist. Monte Wagner of Roseburg sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

Dinner Given For Visitor

Rev. Lyle A. Weed, a former Roseburg resident who was graduated from high school here in 1924, returned to Roseburg Saturday for the first time in nearly 25 years. Rev. Mr. Weed has been on the staff of the Methodist Board of Pensions with headquarters in Evanston, Ill., for the past three years. Prior to that he served as pastor of several Methodist churches in the states of New York and Pennsylvania. At present his duties require him to make frequent trips to various sections of the United States with other staff members. He stopped over in Roseburg for the weekend while traveling from Denver, Colo., to Portland, to help conduct a Pension Educational Conference.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

THE CAPPING CEREMONY for 11 junior graduate regents was held at the statewide convocation of the Women of the Moose. Receiving their caps were, standing, left to right: Cleatis Wright, Cottage Grove; Grace Carpenter, Bend; Anne Henderson, Waldport; Junie Hoover, Klamath Falls; Phyllis Beck, East

Portland, Louisa Hinton, Corvallis; and Margaret Rondel, Eugene. Seated, left to right: Ruby Huntley, Tillamook; Mary Nivala, Astoria; Winifred Rogers, deputy grand regent, Springfield; Elva Cheek, Marshfield; and Lola Crabtree, Springfield. (Clark's Studio)

Party Given

A charming luncheon and farewell party was given by Mrs. Spencer Yates, Mrs. Ralph Ohman and Mrs. Rex Roberts at the Roseburg Country Club Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. I. J. Bean, who with her husband and their five children, David, Mike, Phil, Dick and Cindy, will move next week to Tacoma, Wash.

Deep maroon and gold chrysanthemums flanked by yellow lighted tapers graced the table. Beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Bean from the three hostesses and Mrs. C. H. Bab-bitt, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. W. F. Forrest, Mrs. Emil Ram-berg, Mrs. Dale Roles, Mrs. Jack Davis, Mrs. Byron Wood-ruff, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Del McKay, Mrs. Randolph Slocum, Mrs. Thomas Garrison, Mrs. Kenneth Clayton, Mrs. Eugene Krewson, Mrs. William Shapero, Mrs. H. E. DeBarnard Jr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Before leaving on her wedding trip, the bride tossed her bouquet, and it was caught by her cousin, Janet Petrowicz. For traveling, the new Mrs. Stafek wore a cranberry red three-piece suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Following a honeymoon at the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are at home at 5292 Main, Apt. 7, Springfield.

The bride lived in Roseburg for 14 years. She attended local schools and was graduated from Roseburg High School. She was graduated from Oregon State University this spring. During her college days, she worked summers in Roseburg at the Southern Oregon Log Scaling and Grading Bureau. She is currently teaching business in Thurston Junior High School in Springfield.

The bridegroom was graduated from Salem High School and Oregon State University. He will enter U.S. Navy officers training school in Pensacola, Fla.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Nelson B. Higgs, grandmother of the bride from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barton of Salem, grandparents of the bridegroom.

Twins Kim and Karen Matula of Lebanon were flower girls. They and the candlelighters wore cranberry faille dresses similar to those worn by the bride's attendants.

The duties of best man were performed by Jerry Stafek, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's fraternity brothers, Dennis Spitz of Nyssa and Gail McCarty of John Day, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Preston wore a smart purple and moss green silk print dress with moss green accessories and a green orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was attractive in cranberry red. Her accessories matched her dress and she wore a pink orchid.

One hundred fifty guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed. The beautiful five-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Bill Nancy and Janet Petrowicz, Petrowicz, aunt of the bride, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

E. L. Myrick of Eugene was organist. Monte Wagner of Roseburg sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by Earl M. Preston, her stepfather. She was lovely in her white bridal gown, the bodice of which was fashioned of lace with scalloped neckline dipping to a V in back. The skirt was floor-length, of silk tulle with a large bow having floor-length streamers. Her fingertip veil flowed from a delicate seed pearl and crystal crown. She carried an heirloom white handkerchief and her cousin's prayer book topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bruce Michaels of Pittsburgh, Pa., the former Diane Myers of Roseburg. She wore cranberry red faille, designed with empire bodice, bell skirt and three-quarter-length sleeves. Bridesmaids, Miss Gail Baird of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Cal Tichenor of Eugene, wore hot pink, their dresses designed the same as the gown worn by Mrs. Michaels. All of the bride's attendants wore net headdresses and slippers to match their frocks and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations, Stephanotis and red and pink rosebuds.

Following a honeymoon at the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are at home at 5292 Main, Apt. 7, Springfield.

The bride lived in Roseburg for 14 years. She attended local schools and was graduated from Roseburg High School. She was graduated from Oregon State University this spring. During her college days, she worked summers in Roseburg at the Southern Oregon Log Scaling and Grading Bureau. She is currently teaching business in Thurston Junior High School in Springfield.

The bridegroom was graduated from Salem High School and Oregon State University. He will enter U.S. Navy officers training school in Pensacola, Fla.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Nelson B. Higgs, grandmother of the bride from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barton of Salem, grandparents of the bridegroom.

Twins Kim and Karen Matula of Lebanon were flower girls. They and the candlelighters wore cranberry faille dresses similar to those worn by the bride's attendants.

The duties of best man were performed by Jerry Stafek, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's fraternity brothers, Dennis Spitz of Nyssa and Gail McCarty of John Day, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Preston wore a smart purple and moss green silk print dress with moss green accessories and a green orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was attractive in cranberry red. Her accessories matched her dress and she wore a pink orchid.

One hundred fifty guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed. The beautiful five-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Bill Nancy and Janet Petrowicz, Petrowicz, aunt of the bride, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

E. L. Myrick of Eugene was organist. Monte Wagner of Roseburg sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

Dinner Given For Visitor

Rev. Lyle A. Weed, a former Roseburg resident who was graduated from high school here in 1924, returned to Roseburg Saturday for the first time in nearly 25 years. Rev. Mr. Weed has been on the staff of the Methodist Board of Pensions with headquarters in Evanston, Ill., for the past three years. Prior to that he served as pastor of several Methodist churches in the states of New York and Pennsylvania. At present his duties require him to make frequent trips to various sections of the United States with other staff members. He stopped over in Roseburg for the weekend while traveling from Denver, Colo., to Portland, to help conduct a Pension Educational Conference.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.

While in Roseburg he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand. A potluck dinner given in his honor at their home Sunday afternoon was attended by some of his former friends. In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor those present for the dinner and the afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. Flora Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree and Wesley Ashworth.

After being graduated from high school here Weed worked in the old Roseburg National Bank and then later attended Willamette University in Salem.