

ACCEPTS RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has accepted the resignation of two members of the Civil Rights Commission and its staff director.

The White House announced recently that those resigning were Commissioners Spottswood W. Robinson III and Robert G. Sotrey, and staff Director Bert I. Bernhard. Robinson has been named a federal judge for the District of Columbia.

Canyonville Methodists Slate Last Of Mission Study Series

By MRS. R. E. PROCTOR
Canyonville Methodists will host the last of four "Our Mission Today" studies at 7 p.m. Sunday. A fellowship hour will follow.

Aides Are Hired
Two new nurse's aides are employed at Forest Glen Hospital, according to Mrs. Carl Johnson, supervisor of nurses. Edith Hamlin and Eleanor Maxwell, both of Myrtle Creek, replace Jan Slek who is moving to California and Zelma Shipman of Tri-City who has secured leave of absence because of illness.

Mrs. Jean Kauantui presented a National School assembly program at Canyonville High School Oct. 30 titled "Underwater Wonders" showing scuba diving equipment and technique.

Attending the Oregon Banker's Association fall conference at Portland last week and Saturday's Oregon-Washington football game were I. N. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Herbert and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoverson of Canyonville.

Two family parties honored birthdays of the youngest members of the Klenke family at Canyonville. The Paul Klenke's daughter, Leslie, celebrated her first birthday on Monday at her home and the same group partied again Tuesday to mark the second birthday of the Stan Klenke's daughter, Katharine. Besides the family, included were Mr. and Mrs. I. Riepe and Robbie, Mrs. Andrew Pilhofer and Bill Pilhofer.

Credit Women Attend Meet

Seven members of the Roseburg Credit Women's Breakfast Club attended the Oregon-Washington Regional Credit Conference held in Eugene on Oct. 27. Local members attending were Matilda Brooks, Grace Teeter, Elaine Tucker, Connie Muggend, Marge Packer, Pat Travis and Ethel Siring.

Sparked by the theme, "Changing Times," outstanding speakers presented information on Oregon's economy, new commercial laws, and Oregon families, according to reports from returning delegates. The annual meeting, held at the Eugene Hotel, drew credit managers and business operators from Oregon and the Columbia River region of Washington.

A special meeting of members of the Credit Women's Breakfast Clubs was held at 7 a.m. Sunday. Speaker at this meeting was Helen Sawyer, junior past president international of Credit Women's Breakfast Clubs of North America.

EXPENSIVE FLAPS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It has been costing American taxpayers an extra $68,000 a year because the Marine Corps and the Army disagree on having flaps on hip pockets of uniforms.

The General Accounting Office, which made the estimate recently in a report to Congress, said the Army finally had backed down and future tropical wool khaki trousers would have flaps as the Marines wanted.

Dear Abby!
"Drop-In" Problem

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I am a happy bachelor and here is my problem. Two neighbors, one right next door to me on my left, and the other right next door to me on my right, are divorcees. They both tell me their troubles and cry over both fences whenever they catch me outside. Now my back yard is flooded with their tears and my grass is drowning. How can I keep these two husband-losers from ruining my yard?

HAPPY BACHELOR
DEAR HAPPY: Grow rich.

DEAR ABBY: I have a sister who isn't the smartest person in the world, but I love her. She tells me her troubles and cries on my shoulder. She has a husband, but he's no help. (He cries on his mother's.) Well, my sis called me at 4:15 this morning and scared my husband out of his wits. She wanted to know if she should call the police to look for her 18-year-old daughter who went out on a date and wasn't home yet. She was hysterical. Abby, I'll admit she's called at odd hours for reasons like there was a mouse in her bedroom, she is terrified of thunder storms, etc. But this time she really needed me, and my husband refused to drive me over there to calm her down. (I don't drive.) He said if anything like that ever happens again, I can go live with my sister. Who was unreasonable? Him or me?

BIG SISTER
DEAR SIS: I can't blame your husband for being fed up with your sister's hysteria. Tell sis to lay off the nocturnal S.O.S.'s, or you will lose your happy home.

DEAR ABBY: I have the perfect solution for the busy housewife who was embarrassed by the thoughtless person who just happened to be in the neighborhood so she thought she'd drop in and pay a social call. Bake a pie or something and take it over to her house. But don't give her any notice. Just ring her bell like she rang yours, and see how SHE likes it.

"TURN ABOUT"

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. J. O'S: A pat on the back develops character—if given young enough, often enough and LOW enough.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

East Blocks Dummy Tricks

(Written For NEA)
By OSWALD JACOBY

One of the most effective forms of the holdup occurs when a defender has two stoppers in dummy's suit and dummy has only one side suit entry.

South is in a normal, and what ought to be a very comfortable, three no-trump contract. He wins the opening spade lead in his own hand and promptly leads the eight of diamonds and plays the deuce from dummy.

At this point it is up to East to put on his mark and become a holdup artist. He lets South's eight spot hold the trick.

South plays his last diamond and now East takes his queen. East can now lead anything except his ace of diamonds, but he probably returns his partner's original spade lead. If South wins in dummy he can set up the rest of the diamond suit, but he won't ever be able to get to them. If he wins in his own hand he still has an entry to dummy, but no diamond to lead from his own hand. Of course, South still has a shot left in his locker. He will win the spade in dummy and try a heart finesse, but West holds the king and South will wind up one trick short of his contract.

FATHER, SON COLLIDE
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—Two motorists collided recently. When they got out to face each other, they found they were father and son.

Donald Akers, 23, driver of a car belonging to his employer's company, had a jammed accelerator and a flat tire which caused him to lose control and collide with his father's auto. Neither man was injured seriously.

Note that if East fails to hold up on the first diamond, South will make three diamond tricks instead of one and fulfill his contract with an overtrick.

PLANES AND SEAGULLS

MOFFETT FIELD, Calif. (UPI) — The Navy has won its two-week battle with a flock of seagulls for runway space at its Moffett Field base near San Francisco.

The gulls descended on the air strip Oct. 19 and engaged in competition with pilots and planes for landing room. Huge helicopters swept over the runway at regular intervals later and the birds departed in search of less hectic surroundings.
