Newcomers To The Area Are Invited To Luncheon

The Roseburg Newcomers Club plays an important role in helping newcomers to the Roseburg area to get acquainted. The group meets twice each month with the first meeting on the second Tuesday of the month held at a local restaurant for lunch and a program. The meeting held on the fourth Tuesday of the month is hosted at the home of one of the members.

Cards Enjoyed Friday Evening

There will also be an exchange of Christmas gift and decoration ideas brought by those attending the meeting. Reservations for luncheon must be made by Thursday, Nov. 7, by calling Mrs. William Scott, 673-8721. Newcomers to the Roseburg area are urged to make reservations with Mrs. Scott, attend the luncheon and get acquainted.

For the first October meeting, the Newcomers met at the Wickiup Room of the Umpqua Hotel for a noon luncheon. Following the luncheon, a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Henry Gratkowski. Twenty-one members and guests enjoyed the very interesting demonstration of arranging dried materials by Mrs. P. E. Beaver.

The lovely home of Mrs. Clara Gove on W. Luellen Drive was the scene of the second October meeting. Co-hostesses Mrs. Aaron Speier and Mrs. James Gray, served delicious refreshments. The short business meeting was followed by a social hour which enabled members and guests to get better acquainted.

The next meeting of the Newcomers Club will be Tuesday, Nov. 12, at the Bamboo House for a 12 o'clock luncheon. The program will be a book review by Miss Jo Ann Hutchings.

Bethel Enjoys Slumber Party

Bethel 18, Order of Job's Daughters, Myrtle Creek, held its annual candy sale recently, under the supervision of Frank Young, guardian of finance.

The quota of 360 boxes was sold in eight hours one day. The girls in Janice Wright's team were the winners. Nancy Ganz headed the other team. Coralee Campbell and Joyce Buchanan won prizes.

Following the sale, a spaghetti dinner was held at the home of Karen Steinhauer. After dinner, bethel members went to the home of Nancy Ganz for a slumber party. Later, the girls went swimming and snacks were furnished by the losing team.

Married Recently

The marriage of Ruth Elaine Stone and Donald Wayne Porter took place at the Calvary Baptist Church in Kansas City, Kans., Aug. 31, the Rev. Leland Angell performing the candle-light ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Lester Stone of Roseburg.

The bride was given away by her father. She was lovely in her full-length gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with a lace overskirt covering the bouffant skirt. The lace bodice was styled with long sleeves and a modified neckline. The gown had been made at a sewing party by members and friends of the bride's home church, the First Southern Baptist Church of Roseburg. The bride's veil was elbow-length, secured by a crown of seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was a white orchid arranged in a cluster of stephanotis.

Mary Sue Calvin of Joplin, Mo., was maid of honor. Evelyn Brown of Savannah, Mo., was bridesmaid. Both wore shrimp-colored lace and carried bouquets of gladioli.

Daniel T. Gates of Waukegan, Ill., was best man, and the groomsmen were Donald L. Ham of East Peoria, Ill.

Robyn Lynn Porter of St. Louis, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Theodore Craig Knight of Kansas City was ring bearer.

Ushers were Joseph P. Cunningham, Lincoln Park, Mich.; James R. Conger, Kewanee, Ill.; and Donald K. Rogers and John P. Young, both of Kansas City.

After the lighting of the memory candle, which had been made by Mrs. Frederick J. Hermann of Roseburg, the new Mr. and Mrs. Porter were presented.

Sutherlin Girl Feted At Party

Halloween was the theme of the seventh birthday party for Brenda Holloper, who was honored by her mother, Mrs. Allen Holloper, at her home in Sutherlin Saturday afternoon.

Games were played with prizes given to all present. Following the opening of her gifts, refreshments were served to Dana Bean, Mary and Doty Jo Hesselgesser, Marlin Halverson, Kim French, Trina Wiley, Dalrie, and Helen Holloper and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Don Hesselgesser assisted with the serving.

A LOVELY BRIDE is Mrs. Donald Wayne Porter, the former Ruth Elaine Stone, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Lester Stone of Roseburg, whose marriage took place in Calvary Baptist Church, Kansas City, Kan. The bride and bridegroom met while both were students at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo. The Memory Candle made by Mrs. Frederick J. Hermann of Roseburg, will be lighted each year on the anniversary of the marriage.

Tillicum Club Meets Tuesday

Mrs. Vern Holgate of Sutherlin entertained the Tillicum Club at her home Tuesday afternoon at a 1 o'clock luncheon. The rooms were beautifully decorated with dahlias.

High prize and the traveling Mesdames Cal Bowles, Edward Lamoreaux, Frank McCord, Joe A. O. Bunch; second high by Perrault, Ralston Bridges, Vern Liesinger and the hostess.
