

Civil Rights Issue Was Factor In Philadelphia Vote Tuesday

The race issue was a factor in Philadelphia because of evidence of white resentment against recent Negro demonstrations. Mayor James H. J. Tate hung on to his office by defeating Republican James T. McDermott by a margin of about 65,000 votes.

The Democratic victory margin compared with majorities ranging from 125,000 to 207,000 in the last three Philadelphia mayoralty elections. Sen. Hugh D. Scott, R-Pa., said the outcome indicated "a sharp reaction against the Green machine" led by Rep. William J. Green Jr., D-Pa.

Ohio voters approved Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes' $250 million bond issue. Republican mayors in Ohio were unseated in Columbus and Youngstown. The GOP did not even field a candidate against Democratic Mayor Ralph Locher of Cleveland.

Pair Nominated To Fill School Board Vacancies

The Myrtle Creek School Board at its regular meeting Tuesday night took steps to fill two vacancies on the budget board. Nominated were Frank Young and Webster Briggs to fill the expired term of Frank Starr and to replace John Markham Jr. who is now serving as a regular member of the board.

The board approved bills in the amount of $13,538.36, including a $2,412.91 item for dust collectors in the shop department. The latter item was budgeted earlier to correct a health hazard.

Oaks Re-Elected At Canyonville

Ed Oaks was re-elected for his 10th term as mayor in the city election held Tuesday at Canyonville.

He received 74 votes out of a total of 107 votes cast. Also running for the one-year mayor post was Horace Thompson who received 31 votes. There were several write-ins for various offices on the ballot, according to Mrs. R. E. Proctor, correspondent.

Appraisal Discussed

A report was given under old business regarding the U.S. Appraisal Co.'s inspection and inventory service which has been used each three years for insurance purposes. The question was raised concerning the advisability of having the appraisal made every year. Additional cost of around $500 for the total period was the determining factor in the board's decision to keep the appraisal on its present basis.

Fund Transfers Okayed

The board approved the transfer of the district's general funds from the Douglas County State Bank in Roseburg to the Myrtle Creek branch of the U.S. National Bank, both as a convenience factor and also with the thought that it might be of benefit to the local economy. The transfer date, expected to be sometime before the first of the year, will be arranged at the discretion of the superintendent and the school clerk.

Credit Card Misuse Results In $50 Fine

Vernon Lee Kelley, 18, of 178 S. State St., Sutherlin, pleaded guilty to a charge of fraudulent use of a credit card on appearance in the District Court of Gerald R. Hayes Tuesday. He was fined $50 and $5 costs. Kelley was accused of using the credit card of Philip Cook Sept. 5. He was arrested by state police.

Grady Snelling, 19, of Box 416, Winston, waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of forgery on arraignment before Judge Hayes Tuesday. He is accused of forging the signature of Mrs. Clyde Murray to a check made payable to Robert Ledbetter for $63 on the Douglas County State Bank Oct. 3.

Arthur G. Ramsey, 48, Spokane, has been committed to the Douglas County jail for 30 days, and was fined $150 on a drunken driving conviction in the municipal court of Canyonville Tuesday.

Car Accidents Injure 2 Here

Two Roseburg area residents suffered injuries in separate automobile accidents Tuesday. A total of four mishaps was investigated by city police.

Leo V. Leonard, 57, of 1867 NE Todd St., was taken to Douglas Community Hospital by ambulance, suffering injuries (not serious) after his car was struck broadside on SE Stephens at SE Douglas about 7 p.m.

Police said Leonard was making a left turn from Stephens onto Douglas and did not see the approaching car, operated by Barbara Lee Kemp, Route 5, Box 701, Roseburg, headed north. She told officers she was unable to stop on the slick pavement caused by a heavy downpour of rain and skidded into the right side of Leonard's car. Major damage was caused to both cars, and they had to be towed from the scene.

George Lenoir Kruse, 66, Idlewild Route, Box 426, was also taken to the hospital with minor injuries when the car he was driving was struck from behind by one operated by William Edward Steinnor, 12, of Winston. Police said Kruse had stopped for a red light on Diamond Lake Boulevard at NE Casper. Steinnor said he applied his brakes but was unable to stop. He was cited by police for violation of the basic rule (control-accident), and for having no operator's license.

A third accident involved the automobile of William Lee Marical, 24, 1333 SE Court St., which was struck from behind by another car operated by William Gordon MacLaren, 27, of Seattle. The accident occurred at 3:40 p.m. on SE Stephens St. at SE Haynes Ave. Marical had slowed to a stop behind another car which was parking. MacLaren said he looked down just a second and didn't realize the other car had stopped. His car had to be towed from the scene.

About 12:40 p.m. a car operated by Beverly Lorraine Rogan, 1738 NE Malheur, was struck on the left rear bumper by a car operated by Lester Vernon Seter of 201 NE Stephens Street. Seter was changing lanes and told investigating officers he misjudged his distance, hitting the other car.

Barn Is Victim Of Evening Wind

Gusty winds in the southern part of the county during the night caused minor disturbances mostly in the form of whipping tree branches and singing utility wires and in one reported instance, whipped up enough force to blow over a barn.

According to Mrs. R. E. Proctor, Canyonville correspondent, the barn on the north edge of Canyonville fell victim to a strong gust around 11 o'clock Tuesday night. The barn, reportedly an older structure in good repair, flew apart like the "one hoss shay" and its contents, a winter's supply of hay, were scattered far and wide. The barn went down with a resounding crash, Mrs. Proctor said.

Checks Reported Stolen From Car

State police at Roseburg received a report from the Eugene state police that two brief cases containing various checks were stolen from an automobile parked at the Jersey Lilly in Roseburg between 6 and 10 p.m. Tuesday. The victims of the theft were Richard Dean Hofman, Springfield and William Keith Carder, Eugene.

Myra Joy Spencer

Myra Joy Spencer, 56, of 410 Harrison St., Canyonville, died suddenly at her home Tuesday evening. Investigation into the cause of death is currently underway by the county medical examiner. She had reportedly been under treatment for a long-standing circulatory condition.

Education Board Will Review Materials Center Proposals

The Douglas County Intermediate Education District Board (formerly county school board) will review proposals for an instructional materials center at a special meeting Wednesday night.

The proposals for the instructional materials center (IMC) were made by a special survey team headed by Henry C. Ruark Jr., state Department of Education consultant for instructional materials.

Prime purpose of the center would be to provide a supply of audio and visual materials for the various districts within Douglas County. Tentative plans call for financing the project on a school census basis by the districts.

Symphony Group Announces Meet

The Roseburg Symphony will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the band room of Roseburg High School.

All known string players in the area have been contacted by Mrs. Thomas McGehee, who is assisting Norell. She said the orchestra is still badly in need of players and instruments in this category. Any experienced string player in the area is urged to contact Mike Norell at 672-2498 or Mrs. McGehee at 672-3593 as soon as possible.

Tire Blowout Ditches Truck

A 1961 freightliner truck with a homemade bunk steerable trailer and hauling a prefabricated bridge span beam went into the ditch near the Wilbur truck scales on Interstate Highway 5, when a front tire blew out Tuesday about 12:45 p.m.

State police report the truck and trailer were registered to Morse Bros., Lebanon. Operator of the truck was Robert Eugene Huffman, Junction City. Gary Lee Stevens, Brownsville, was operating the trailer.

Police said the bridge span beam continued forward, when the truck went into the ditch, tearing the entire cab off the truck. Huffman apparently was thrown clear of the truck and the load, but suffered an injured hip and was taken to Douglas Community Hospital by ambulance.

Stevens was uninjured. The bridge beam was broken in two.

study of present facilities in Douglas County, along with what they determined future needs to be, they also worked closely with several school teachers and administrators.

Ruark said a great deal of the groundwork had been done by a committee of county educators. He also said this indicated the desire of these educators to establish such a facility in Douglas County.

The report recommends that after making a basic decision to move ahead with an IMC plan, the county board should appoint an advisory committee representative of the school boards within the county. The function of the committee, for which the group says Ruark should be chairman, would be to aid and advise the superintendent and the IED board in the formation of policies for establishment and operation of the center and for the selection of a director.

Function Explained

The primary function of the center should be to establish a centralized pool of instructional materials, beginning with a basic educational film library of between 800 and 1,000 prints, and moving into additional and specialized types and kinds of materials and services as needs develop.

The advisory group said the administrators and advisory board should establish a policy calling for the continuous evaluation of the functions of the IMC and constant movement toward complete operations and an integrated and coordinated program based on the four major functions of: (a) A centralized pool of variety materials; (b) planned and continuing in-service work with teachers; (c) maintenance of equipment and materials in the local districts as well as at the IED center level; (d) provision and encouragement for local production of unique instructional materials not otherwise available.

Larceny Suspect Asks For Lawyer

James Raymond Grass, 26, Curtin, asked to see an attorney when arraigned before District Court Judge Gerald R. Hayes Tuesday for larceny by Bailee.

Grass is accused of failure to return an automobile taken for a trial run from the used car lot of J. W. Sayre last weekend.

Grass was arrested in Myrtle Creek by police there on a petty larceny charge. When it was learned he was in possession of the car reported missing at Roseburg, Roseburg City Police were notified. He was brought here and booked at the Douglas County jail.

Roseburg police also report the arrest of Stewart Glen Turner, 19, of Roseburg Route 4, Box 344, on a petty larceny charge, to which he pleaded innocent on arraignment in District Court. Trial was set for 2 p.m. Nov. 20. He is accused of taking a tire and wheel of Austin Lynch Oct. 31.

Although the group made no specific recommendations on location for the IED center, it was generally felt the logical location would be in Roseburg, because of its central location in the county.

Ruark has said he feels the center would have to be established by mid-January in order to be ready for the coming school year.

Guilty Plea Entered Here For Burglary

In Circuit Court criminal actions Tuesday, Gary Lee Maddox, 18, and Don Cameron Walker, 20, both of Portland, pleaded guilty to a Grand Jury indictment charging them with burglary not in a dwelling.

Judge Don H. Sanders ordered a pre-sentence investigation, and the defendants were continued free on bail. They were accused of participating in a burglary of Frank's Chevron Coffee Shop near Myrtle Creek Oct. 14. Two other youths were involved.

Veima Irene Bell, 48, Salem, was permitted to plead to a charge of drawing a check with insufficient funds in the bank, to pay the same in full before Judge Sanders Tuesday. She pleaded guilty and was given a sentence of six months in the Douglas County jail.

Credit was given Mrs. Bell for the more than four months she has already served in jail awaiting trial, leaving on November 28 days of the six months to serve. She originally was charged with obtaining money by false pretense, in connection with a $20 check passed at the Rose Room of the Rose Hotel. Trial on this charge was dismissed after a jury had been drawn, recently on grounds that the Grand Jury indictment was faulty.

Donald Byrd Edward King, who had been sentenced to 18 months in the Oregon State Penitentiary, was granted probation by Judge Charles S. Woodrich on provision that he serve 12 months in the Douglas County jail. He had been sentenced previously for obtaining money by false pretenses in connection with a worthless $10 check.

Richard Pochmara, 19; Edward Lightner, 20; and David Kellen, 18, all in the U.S. Navy with a San Francisco FPO address, pleaded guilty before Judge Sanders Tuesday to larceny of an auto. The judge delayed sentencing until he could check with the local Naval recruiter. The trio allegedly is absent without leave from the Navy. They admitted taking the automobile of Leon A. Lawrence, Roseburg on Nov. 2. The car was abandoned near the Toke Ranger Station, and the youths were picked up at the Idlewild Store hitching a ride, according to state police.
