Portland To Host Five Conventions

PORTLAND (UPI)—Five national, regional and state conventions will open here this week.

The National Grange starts a nine-day meeting Monday. About 1,500 delegates are expected.

The Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission begins a four-day meeting Tuesday. Some 150 persons are due.

The Oregon School Board Association opens a three-day convention with about 600 delegates Wednesday.

The Holstein Friesian Association starts a two-day regional convention of some 50 persons Friday.

Another 100 delegates are expected when the Credit Women of the Northwest open a two-day meeting Saturday.

Bond Sales In County Gain Over Last Year

Sales of U.S. savings bonds in Douglas County are running far ahead of 1962, according to a report from the U.S. Treasury Department.

During the month of October, the sales figure was $54,362, as compared to $45,062 in the same month of 1962. This raised the year's total to $551,041 for the year, almost $80,000 above the 1962 total at the end of October, $573,437.

The same trend was noted in the rest of the state where sales for the year now stand at $20,839,495, up more than $2 million.

Birthplace Is Visited

A visit to Orena, Idaho, birthplace of Ira B. Poole, was one of the highlights of a recent motor trip enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Poole in company with Mrs. Poole's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamlin of Canyonville. In addition to stops in Washington and Idaho to visit friends and relatives, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin at Madras and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Hamlin of Salt Lake City, Utah. Both Frank and Edwin Hamlin are brothers of John Hamlin and Mrs. Poole, and formerly resided in Douglas County. The return trip was made by way of the new Winnemucca-to-the-sea highway.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Musso of Bowman, Calif., spent two days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dahack on route home after a trip to Montana. Musso is a brother of Mrs. Dahack.

Ranger and Mrs. Hillard M. Lillgren and daughter, Sandra, were in Ashland for homecoming weekend at Southern Oregon College where Jon Lillgren is a freshman student. Jon participated in the festivities as a member of the band.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Clauson and family spent a recent weekend at Trout Lake, Wash., visiting friends at the Mt. Adams Ranger Station of the Gifford Pinchot National Forest.

Concert Policy Set In Glendale

The Glendale School Board met in regular session Wednesday with new superintendent, Ben Huntington, in attendance. The meeting was short and devoted mostly to routine business, according to Mrs. Gerald Fox, correspondent.

Following a discussion on the charging of admission to school concerts, the board decided that all such concerts should be free to encourage full community attendance.

Approval was given for Wayne Close, industrial arts teacher, to attend the Industrial Arts Conference which was held in Roseburg over the weekend and for Paul Schimp to attend a foreign language conference to be held in Gearhart Nov. 15-17.

The board will meet next on Nov. 20.

Highway Project Due

SALEM (UPI)—The State Highway Commission recently announced plans to reconstruct the 4.1-mile Coyote Creek-Grave Creek section of the Pacific Highway in Southern Oregon.

The proposed construction will transform the existing two-lane highway into a four-lane divided freeway meeting federal interstate standards.

The proposal includes bypassing the town of Wolf Creek and the construction of two interchanges.
