Thursday's Schedule
 Seattle at Los Angeles

Seattle's Guyle Fielder has passed another milestone in his record-breaking trip through the Western Hockey League. Fielder, who has spent 10 of his 14 years in pro hockey at Seattle, had a couple of assists Wednesday night to pass the 800 mark in WHL play. The 5-foot-9 star has led the WHL for seven seasons in assists and in total points (for goals and assists) on six occasions. His 85 assists in the 1958-59 season is the league mark, as is his 122 points in the 1956-57 campaign. His play Wednesday night helped Seattle tie the Los Angeles 4-4. That's all it took for the Totems to grab undisputed first place in the WHL because San Francisco dropped a 5-3 deci-

Renfro, Berry Back To Lead Ducks' Charge

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON Eugene — Oregon's explosive Webfoots, boasting a 5-3 record, battle rejuvenated Indiana Saturday at Portland's Multnomah Stadium and the Ducks will be searching for their first win in history over a Big Ten opponent. Although this is the initial grid meeting between the Ducks and the Hoosiers, Oregon football teams have tested Big Ten opposition seven times in the past and come away each time on the short end of the score. Coach Len Casanova's Webfoots have their great one-two offensive punch of quarterback Bob Berry and All-American halfback Mel Renfro to throw at the Hoosiers after being hobbled for two weeks with injuries. Berry is coming closer to normal physical condition, while Renfro is expected to be close to top shape and figures to be used on defense as well as offense. Indiana invades Portland without its top offensive threat, Big Ten all-star Marv Woodson, in suit. The Hoosier Hotshot, rated one of the nation's finest halfbacks, is currently recovering from knee surgery and, naturally, is sidelined for the season. In his absence, powerful junior fullback Tom Nowatzke has taken over as Indiana's prime offensive threat and he's responded by emerging as the Big Ten's leading rusher. Nowatzke has backfield help from quarterback Richie Badar, halfback Trent Walters, a high-stepping sophomore whiz, and wingback Don Dilly. Up front, the Hoosiers' top performers are guards Don Croftecheck and Mel Branch, although all the Indiana forwards are big, rugged and capable. Kick-off time for the intersectional battle is 2 p.m.
