Dear Abby!
Don't Live In Past!
— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —
DEAR ABBY: You said in your column that dentistry required years of training and practice. Well, I don't know anything about dentistry, but I am a student of American history and it is a fact that Paul Revere made George Washington's false teeth. And Paul Revere was not a dentist. He was a blacksmith! So, who needs dentists?
HISTORY STUDENT
DEAR STUDENT: And if you will look closely at a picture of George Washington, you'll see that his lower jaw protrudes a full inch beyond his upper. Back in 1790, when blacksmiths doubled for dentists, there was an excuse for it, but not today. So leave dentistry to the dentists, and don't bite the hand that makes it possible.
DEAR ABBY: I've been sitting back watching a three-married widow wreck the home of two of our best friends. This couple has grandchildren and were ideally happy. Then two years ago this widow came along. She manages to be everywhere this man is, even following him out of town on his business trips. The wife is a trusting soul who knows from nothing about what's going on. She is forever telling me how hard her husband works and how much time he has to spend out of town on "business." The pay-off is this: The widow has given him a deadline. Either leave the wife and marry her—or lose her. And he is going around like an idiot trying to hang on to both of them. What should be done?
WATCHING A MESS
DEAR WATCHING: A friend of both should get the man aside and try to bring him to his senses. (Judging from your knowledge of what's going on, you sound like an eligible mediator.) Unless you are SURE of your facts, stay out of it. This loon might have to learn the hard way.
DEAR ABBY: The bride who wanted "WHAT KIND OF FOOL AM I?" sung at her wedding showed what kind of fool she was. And, Abby, you showed your ignorance when you suggested "BECAUSE" or "I LOVE YOU TRULY." "BECAUSE" is poor. And "I LOVE YOU TRULY" is worse.
A wedding ceremony is part of a church service, and love songs are out of place. Any qualified organist or soloist can assist the bride in selecting appropriate wedding music, and there is no excuse for all the trash that is being played at weddings these days.

No-Trump Best In Match Play
By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)
Slam bidding isn't always difficult. If the game had been rubber bridge, North would simply check for aces by means of Blackwood and go to six clubs if he found an ace off the hand. In duplicate there was a further problem. North would like to get to six no-trump if possible, in order to score the few extra points that mean little in a rubber game, but may mean the difference between a top and a bottom score.
North and South vulnerable
South West North East
1 ♠ 1 ♥ 1 ♣ Pass
2 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass
3 N.T. Pass 4 ♠ Pass
4 ♠ Pass 6 ♠ Pass
5 N.T. Pass Pass
Opening lead—♦ A
and an average score in a tournament.
In the Texas Regionals at San Antonio my son, Jim, opened the South hand with one club. He had a rock bottom minimum, but an opening bid in our system.
West overcalled with one heart and it was up to Jim's partner, Russell Smith of Dallas, to take over.
He bid only one spade to start. Then, after Jim raised him to two, Russell bid three hearts. This cue bid in the opponent's suit was a game force. Jim signed off at three no-trump and now Russell bid four diamonds. Jim went to four spades. He had no interest in anything except the nearest exit, but now Russell lowered the boom and bid six clubs.
This series of bids made it easy for Jim to see what Russell had in mind. He did not appear to be trying for seven so he had to be angling for six no-trump. Jim obliged and they were pleasantly rewarded because the no-trump slam was an absolute lay down.

Q—The bidding has been:
South West North East
You South hold:
♠ A 2 ♥ K J 3 ♦ A 3 ♣ Q J 8 7
What do you bid?
A—Bid one club. You aren't strong enough to open with two.
TODAY'S QUESTION
You open one club and your partner responds one diamond. What do you do now?
Answer Monday
You'll be time ahead, you'll be money ahead, if you let us sell your home instead of trying to do so yourself.
